GRAIN COMMISSION THREE WITNESSES HEARD THIS MORNING.

One Man Considers Mixing of Wheat Justified—Reason For Export of Canadian Wheat via United States Ports. Toronto, Sept. 28.—Three witnesses were heard this morning by the grain commission, A. E. Matthews, manager for J. P. Taylor & Co., grain dealers, Toronto, was questioned about the mixing of No. 2 wheat as admitted by Inspector Campbell yesterday. He was satisfied the result justified the mixing. He thought the inspector should not be held down strictly to the terms of the act, but should be allowed some latitude to use his own discretion.

Making Kingston Famous. In Kingston are at Campbell Bros., the style centre for men's hats. To Retire From Service. Sergeant Jagdish, Ordnance Stores corps, about to leave the service and settle in Rochester, N.Y. He is most efficient and agreeable and his departure will be regretted both with and without of local militia ranks.

The Y.M.C.A. Glee Club. The Y.M.C.A. glee club organized last night with fourteen members. The first practice will be next Wednesday at 7:30 o'clock. The seniors were well represented at the meeting. Others who wish to join can leave their names with the general secretary.

The Guessing Contest. W. H. Melley's guessing contest, which was entered into last night by the children was won by Gladys Lemmon, Frontenac street. She coming within seven of the correct number. Mr. Melley offered $1 to the child who would guess the nearest to correct number of bars of soap in his show window.

A Word With Advertisers. Owing to the pressure on the Whig's advertising columns we are compelled to ask the co-operation of the advertisers to the extent of at least sending in copy for their advertisements as early as possible. The day before insertion would be a great advantage, and would assure much better results.

65c. Basket Table Peaches. Extra fine large table peaches, 65c. per basket, green or blue grapes, 30c. J. Crawford.

Grand Military Night. The advent of Edward Brancecombe's Westminster Glee and Concert party (from London), who are announced to appear at the City Hall to-night, have the distinct fascination of presenting to us, a concert of a nature somewhat out of the ordinary run, at the same time possessing the charm of the highest plane of artistic excellence.

Recovering From His Injuries. Dr. H. Hanley is able to be out after being confined to his room for nearly a week suffering from injuries he sustained in the G. T. R. train collision near Naperville. He is still sore from the battering he got, a broken rib being the worst injury. The doctor had a decidedly narrow escape from death. The seat saved him.

Without A Superintendent. The general hospital is without a superintendent, Miss Gordon, who has been in charge during the past two years, left yesterday for her home in Toronto. The medical man to be appointed on Monday will be needed to begin duty at once. The governors did not anticipate making this change until November 1st, but Miss Gordon could not remain.

Expects No Increase. City Assessor Gordon says he does not expect any increase in Kingston's population this year. He has not completed his figures, but is at present inclined to believe that the population will show no gain over last year. There has been no work of importance here this season, to bring in men, and furthermore there has been quite an exodus of mechanics to other places.

Prayed For His Restoration. Rev. F. R. Stratton is seriously ill in the General Hospital. He has not been out of bed for some time, and his improvement to-day was announced in the Methodist connexion, which instantly suspended business for a minute, while Dr. Antill led in a most fervent prayer for his welfare. A measure of sympathy was ordered to be sent to Mrs. Stratton.

Police Station Troubles. Things have been very quiet at the police station during the past few days, and the uniformed guardians have had to raise a few squabbles among themselves. Yesterday's wrangle was over the declaration that "Nick" Timmerman had the largest pair of boots of any member on the force. Actual measurement proved this to be so. To-day, there is dissatisfaction among the orange "bobbies" over the green halibone put upon the station walls. Constable Driscoll is slated, while Constable Filson declares that the woodwork must be painted orange for the sake of balance.

Mrs. De Porcheron's Death. The death of Mrs. I. De Porcheron, at Champlain, N.Y., on Saturday last, was most unexpected. Although Mrs. De Porcheron has been ill for some time, she had been much better lately, and had taken a drive on the Monday previous to her death. But paralysis, the disease from which Mrs. De Porcheron suffered, stole on unobtrusively, and surprised the Dr. Mrs. De Porcheron, whose maiden name was Matilda McDowell, was the mother of Mrs. David Laidlaw of this city, and had many friends here. Her daughter had hoped to have her spend Christmas with her. Much sympathy is left for the family.

THE RULE REVISION COMMITTEE OF METHODIST CHURCH BEGINS WORK.

It Will Consider Famous Foot-Notes Regarding Dancing, Cards, Theatres and Other Amusements—Commission Composed Ten Ministers and Ten Laymen.

Montreal, Sept. 28.—The commission to which has been referred the work of revising the general rules of the Methodist church has been appointed and has organized for the commencement of its enquiry, which is to extend over the next four years. It has now been made clear that the commission will consider a revision of the famous "Foot-note" regarding dancing, cards, theatres and other amusements, as well as the general rules and a wide field in relation to the duties of probationers and ministers. The commission is composed of ten ministers, ten laymen and the general superintendent and will conduct a large part of its investigation by correspondence. Athletics have been given a place in the church organization to which they have previously been a stranger. Not only has the general superintendent, but a large part of whose activities are athletic in character, been given a place in the ecclesiastical organization. But athletics have been made an integral part of the Epworth League, from which they have hitherto been excluded, though in some instances unofficially recognized. It was recommended that the salary of a married minister shall in future be not less than $800 per annum, exclusive of horse keep, parsonage, etc., a single minister not less than $600, and a probationer not less than $400, representing an increase of $50 in each case.

Rev. T. Ferrier, Brandon, moved that the word matrimony in the discipline be changed to "and administering the sacraments." He explained that in isolated districts lay members were empowered to perform the marriage ceremony, and this would give them a little extra revenue. It was decided to change the name of the Assiniboia conference to the Saskatchewan conference. The church and parsonage fund committee stated that the capital was totally inadequate to present needs, and the matter was worthy of the immediate consideration of the church. The committee recommended that the board should have authority, when necessity arose for immediate loans, for which funds were not in hand, to borrow from time to time such sums as might be considered requisite, the aggregate not to exceed $15,000. The request was granted. It was also decided to make an effort to increase the total of the fund to $100,000. It is now only $77,000. A committee was appointed to promote lay agency work.

A protest was registered against the principle of ecclesiastical precedence at state functions, and a deliverance was made as to the attitude of the church as to remarriage of divorced persons.

Conference adjourned at 10:10 o'clock last night.

INCREASING INTEREST

In the Appointment of a Hospital Superintendent. The interest in the appointment of a medical superintendent for the general hospital is widespread, and there is feeling against the choosing of an outsider. It is assumed that the young western doctor, recommended by the committee, is unmarried. All along, it has been the rule of the governors to appoint only a married man as superintendent, and it is still advisable to do so.

Interest in the appointment has spread to the lodge, and a leading member of two of these organizations declared, "I don't see another dollar subscription to the general hospital would come from either if the hospital governors turned down the choice of the Kingston doctors for the position."

A churchman said: "I'll see that there'll be no collection taken up in our church for the hospital if the governors act contrivance to the recommendation of the local doctors, who are best qualified to judge who is the most capable man for the position."

The city council may also have something to say about the appointment when the hospital's grant has just recently been increased to $3,000 a year. Kingston institutions should be loyal to their own.

Peaches, Pears And Grapes. The finest fruit grown, also small peaches for pickling, J. Crawford.

Stole The Constable's Key. Last night morning, the police station received a call to the corner of Ontario and Princess streets, to take charge of a young woman who was drunk. When Constable Driscoll responded, however, two men had the woman in charge and were ascending her past the barracks gate. The constable hurried after them, but before he reached the barracks gate, a wagon was halted by the men, and they jumped into it, and all made for Harrisfield, waving an adieu to the last approaching policeman.

65c. Pickling Peaches, 65c. Large baskets of choice pickling peaches, only 65c. J. Crawford.

Stylish and Good Rain Coats for Women

The summer we have just passed through certainly didn't have many periods when a raincoat was needed as a waterproof. But that's not saying how many times you'll need such between now and winter. The fall is the raincoat's most useful season. Rains are frequent; chill winds are blowing nearly every day; and the evenings are always cool—and from all these a good raincoat will protect you perfectly. And the cost doesn't need much consideration either. We have the very latest styles in excellent qualities at such popular prices as these: 3.75, 5.00, 5.75, 6.50, 7.50, 8.00, 8.95, 9.75, 10.00 and 11.50.

While if you have the least trouble about getting one to suit you ready-made, you could not do better than have one made to your order from some of our:

GRAVENETTE CLOTHS, in the popular shades of grey, fawns and navy, and black, full 60 inches wide, in three exceptionally good qualities, which have proven their worth, already to Kingston women, per yard, 1.00, 1.25 and 1.49.
