

THE WHIG—73rd YEAR

DAILY BRITISH WHIG published every day except on Sundays, Mondays, and public holidays... Weekly circulation, 10,000...

EDW. J. B. FERRIS, Managing Director

Making a Hit! A GOOD SHOT. We go straight to the bull's eye in the Ammunition trade. We aim to furnish just what the public want at fair prices.

Dig Up Your Overcoats. The fine weather won't last much longer. Better be prepared for cool days and chilly evenings by having your overcoat ready for service.

Administration Notice to Creditors. In the Matter of the Estate of Agnes Gwyneth Oaker, Married Woman, Late of the City of Kingston, in the County of Frontenac, and Province of Ontario, Deceased.

Wood's Peppermint Cure. The Great English Remedy. It cures colds, coughs, asthma, and all respiratory ailments.

Full Weight Coal. Whether you buy by the carload, ton, hundred or hundred weight, we can supply you with coal of the highest quality.

Canada's Trade With Germany. The attempt of the German government to bulldoze the Australian government on the tariff question reveals the attitude of the Kaiser, or his national advisers, towards Canada some years ago.

Editorial Note. The insurance commission's report will be presented to parliament before the new year. Meanwhile it is going through the papers in instalments, and like a serial story.

His Face Is of Naah. The unpopularity of W. R. Hearst, the candidate of the democratic party, is very hard to account for.

A Man Among Men. The division of labour in the Methodist church, so far as the Missionary Society is concerned, brought into official prominence the veteran general secretary, Dr. Sutherland.

THE TELLING REPLY

OF ONTARIO CLERGYMAN TO WRITER'S MISTAKE

The importance of the Deanery of Ontario is being made manifest by the position which Canon Farthing has taken in his telling reply to the writer's mistake.
