WARRANTS ISSUED
FOR ARREST OF ALLEGED
POLITICAL WORKERS.
Who Stand Accused of Conspiracy in the Federal By-Election in June, 1905—George Reid Readily Gave Himself Up.
Toronto, Sept. 29.—Seven warrants were issued, this morning, for alleged political workers, said to have been involved in the conspiracy charged in connection with the Dominion by-election in London, on June 23rd, 1905.
Those for whom the warrants were issued are: George Reid, William Servis, George Arly, W. J. Malloy, Daniel Wiley, George Reid, E. J. Silton and James Pearson.
Reid, who is a well-known resident of London, surrendered himself to the police, this morning. He was arraigned on a charge of conspiracy, and pledged not guilty. He was admitted to bail on one surety of $1,000, (furnished by George Wilkie.

MAJOR SCHMITZ.
San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 1.—Mayor Schmitz left today for a three-month vacation trip in Europe. His selection of the present time for his vacation is due largely to his desire to escape the political tangle into which he has been drawn. At a recent republican state convention Schmitz practically nominated Gillette, the Southern Pacific's candidate for governor.
After this selection union labor leaders denounced Gillette as a traitor to the cause of labor. Before the convention was held Mayor Schmitz declared: "I will never support an enemy to the cause of labor."
As Governor, Schmitz would be repudiated by the labor movement.

LOST FOR THREE DAYS.
William Gallup's Adventure in British Columbia Woods.
Vancouver, Sept. 29.—With his clothes all torn and himself almost a wreck from exposure, William Gallup hugged into the city a night or two ago after having made his way through the forest from the Britannia mine, Howe Sound. He was lost in the dense forest, and had been swollen by the late rains into torrents.
Gallup was out shooting on the divide head of the mining camp, and took a light lunch with him, as he expected to be out only a few hours. He lost his way, however. After he had travelled a good distance and had reached an altitude of 1,000 feet, a heavy fog blew in from the sea and wrapped the mountain tops in a blanket of mist. Unable to locate any landmarks, he spent a night wandering fruitlessly about, in danger of death every hour. In the morning he found himself in an unknown district, and after a long search, he after spending three days travelling arrived at North Vancouver.

AMERICANS HOLD IT
Until a Permanent Government is Established.
Havana, Sept. 29.—An American provisional government assumed possession of Cuba to-day, when Secretary Taft's proclamation declaring himself provisional governor of the island was formally issued. The terms of the proclamation caused general satisfaction, especially on account of the moderate terms in which it was expressed, and its promise that the government will be maintained purely for the purpose of restoring peace, order and public confidence until a permanent government is established.
