STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER
THE ALL-
IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private life to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from day to day, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and possible examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very thing which has never been your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a copy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs.
Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.
When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many criminal cases, you cannot well say, without trying it, "It do not believe it will help me."

Told in the Twilight

It's an important thing to a bride to have a fine day for her wedding, it's important to her friends that her post-nuptial reception day be bright, for everybody likes to put on her prettiest clothes to go and see a bride. So Mrs. J. H. Sutherland's wedding was very bright yesterday, and to-day with a rainy summer frock.

Mrs. Sutherland herself looked charming in a really lovely frock of flowered chiffon, trimmed with strappings of mauve velvet ribbon, Valenciennes insertion inset in to the perfect sleeves, and brotelles and ribbon adorning the bosom. The Irish point headed frills of Valenciennes which edged the puff, and the lower part of the sleeve was of the Valenciennes insertion. The skirt was pleated over a petticoat of white taffeta. The whole was a "creation."

Mrs. Edward Ross, who received with the bride, wore chiffon silk of pale blue, heavy white passementerie trim-ing it. Miss E. Sutherland, who made the tea, wore white silk with motifs of white net and lace. The drawing-room, where the reception was held, looked warm and cozy with autumn flowers and leaves, lightened by the palest of pink curtains. Barberies were twisted in the chandelier, and twisted in the frill work of the arch, scarlet salvia was on the piano, and Virginia creeper was about the mantelpiece. The tea room was pink, the strongest note being struck by the warm glow from a rose-shaded lamp. A centrepiece, beautifully executed in wild roses was upon the brilliant table, and here a silver-framed mirror, which was a large cut glass bowl holding pink carnations.
The tea room assistants were Miss Mabel Hiller, Miss Sadie Reid, Miss Flora Parnell and Miss Muriel Abbott. A feature of the afternoon and some one who shared the honor with the bride was Master "Teddy," Miss E. Sutherland's small nephew, who in his suit of white, and with his golden hair and blue, blue, eyes made a picture indeed.

The marriage of Mr. J. Castelli Hop-

A SARNIA WEDDING

TWO FORMER KINGSTONIANS AT ALTAR.

A pretty event at the home of Alfred R. Martin—The Bride Always Pretty Looked Exceedingly So on Tuesday.

A beautiful golden morning dawned for the Sarnia wedding, on October 2nd, in which so many Kingston people were interested for the sake of both bride and groom. On that day at half-past seven, at her father's residence, 222 George street, Miss Florence Harriet, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Martin was married to Hugh Malcolm Robertson, second son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart Robertson of this city, by Rev.
Dr. Oliver.

The bride who is sweet and pretty all things, looked doubly so in her fluffy wedding gown, white, with over taffeta, skirt, and bodice being elaborately garnished with Irish point and Valenciennes lace. The bridal veil was of fine mesh of orange blonde and to the hair fell over the bride's face, and down about her robe, in the sweet old-fashioned way. Her bouquet was of white roses, and trailing streamers of white ribbon, and her crown ornament was a pearl and diamond piece. The groom's suit was of grey, and he wore a white shirt and white tie. The bride was given away by her father and like the wedding was attended.

While the service was going on, Miss May Martin, the bride's sister, played softly the wedding march. The rooms looked very pretty, their forms lined with cushions, and the requirements of both the wedding and the breakfast. The mantelpiece, before which the bridal party stood, was banded with palms and ferns till an impression of the green was left on flowers added thereto to the pretty flowers.

Mrs. Martin, the bride's mother, wearing a handsome gown of black silk, with garniture of white lace, and Mrs.
Robertson, mother of the groom, was gowned in a becoming gown of mauve.

The groom, like his bride, was well dressed, and his hair, trimmed with brush and ribbon, and his eyes, in spite of their being "wedding" as the phrase goes, all sorts of lovely things came to the bride's eye glass, in every form being specially presented. Telegrams, too, from all quarters reached them, the first arriving being from the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Phoebe, of Port Dover, who is the guest of Mr. John Mowat, Johnson street.

Miss Etta Hale left, to-day, for Montreal.

Mrs. George Earle, Jr., of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. George Earle, Barriss street, on Friday.

Miss Blanche Deacon will leave tomorrow, for Preston Springs, on her way up she will spend a day with Miss Florence Merrick at "Drankome Hall," Toronto.

Mrs. Ogilvie Dobbs came up from Brookville, on Monday, and is visiting Mrs. Joseph Walker, Union street.

Mr. H. Walker left, yesterday, for Halifax.

Mrs. Joseph Power and Miss George Trudell Power are home from Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. James Craig, Princess street, have been visiting at Mr. S.
Stewart's, Harrowsmith, and returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph Fortescue and Miss Daisy Fortescue left, yesterday, for Montreal. Mrs. Fortescue will pay a visit to her sister, Mrs. Parson, before going into apartments for the winter.

a month's leave of absence, and he and Mrs. Leslie left, on Monday, for Mrs. H. H. Fuller, of Michell's Hill, Guelph, and granddaughter of the late Lord Bishop of Niagara, to Mr. E. G. deCoriolis, eldest son of Baron Gas-tave deCoriolis.

Miss Lenora Ira, daughter of Mrs.
John S. Barker, Pictou, Ont., to Oscar Cuthbertson, lawyer, sheriff, Barton, Florida, marriage to take place in December.

Miss Henrietta M. (Nettie) Smith, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Smith, of Plantagenet, Ont., to Mr. J. Armitage Ewing, advocate, of Montreal. The wedding will take place quietly about the middle of October.

Miss Agnes Helen Fulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen, St.
Catharines, to Mr. Charles Reinhold Fitzgerald, of Worcester, Mass., son

Crime in France Has Caused a Sensation.

Paris, Oct. 2.—Much excitement has been caused in the district around Le Mans by the discovery of a "Jack the Ripper" crime. A widow named Grel-sixty years old, has been discovered murdered in a wood a short distance from the town. The woman who had a small income generally lived on alms as she lacked hands. A few months ago two fugitives from justice went to her cottage in the wood and killed her with drink. Then they robbed her. The woman's body was found last week it is rightly mutilated. The legs had been cut off, the trunk ripped up and she had been strangled. There is no trace of murderers, but it is thought that the crime had been rehearsed for some time. For the past six weeks sleep has been found to the number of a dozen similarly mutilated. The first few found were horribly mutilated, but the last few showed much improved skill.
