McKay's Furs

The reputation of this store for Furs has been the growth of careful manufacture and honorable dealing.

Even close inspection of Furs will not always reveal weak points to any one but an expert, and many apparently perfect garments are made from inferior skins.

Your own interests demand that you deal only with a house whose reputation is unquestioned. All our time and energy is devoted to buying, making and selling FURS, and our name on a garment is a guarantee of excellence. You are invited to call and inspect our show rooms.

KEPT SECRET

From Husband For Twenty Seven Years.

WAS MARRIED TWICE

BUT NEVER LET THE FACTS BE KNOWN

What Was Disclosed in a Suit in Court—The Wife Had Appropriated Much Cash Secured From Sale of a Farm—Glad to Get Rid of Her.

Lisbon, Ohio, Oct. 17.—In a suit for $34,000 filed here against the Hugh Montgomery estate by Thomas R. Matthews, administrator, and Florus Montgomery, a son by the man's first wife, it is alleged that when Hugh Montgomery took "Miss Lydia M. Hayes" as his second wife she concealed the fact that she had been married twice previously, first to Robert Hole, by whom she had two sons, James M. and Leander, and after divorcing him, to James Dickson.

Stranger of all in the petition, is the accusation that she was so successful in concealing her marital history, as to be enabled to keep Montgomery in ignorance of all during the twenty-seven years she lived with him, notwithstanding that Dickson, husband No. 2, resided near them.

When Dickson died, Montgomery learned in some way of the deception that had been practised upon him, and it was an added blow when he discovered that his 400-acre farm had been converted into cash, and that much of the proceeds had been appropriated by his wife. Angered beyond measure, he demanded the money, and at the same time ordered her from the house. She did not refund, but left the house, taking the money with her, which, it is alleged, she gave to her two sons by her first husband.

The disclosures, as stated, came about through the death of James Dickson, husband No. 2. The worry of it all affected Montgomery's health and he died on December 2nd, 1904. The woman survived until September 8th, 1905, when she, too, was stricken with a fatal illness.

It is alleged that she left $14,000, and that her sons, James M. and Leander Hole, took possession of the money. The suit just entered asks that this money be returned as well as other moneys which the woman gave to the Hole boys, aggregating in all about $34,000.

No one seems to be certain as to the maiden name of the woman. She was divorced from Hole after some years of turbulent married life, after which she was married to James Dickson. With Dickson she could not agree either, and it appears went from his roof. The wealthy farmer Montgomery appealed to her and led her to the altar on November 1st, 1887. Husband No. 2, Dickson, is said to have been cognizant of the marriage of his wife to another man, but never made any effort to raise trouble, as he was glad to get rid of her.

DO YOU KNOW HIM ?

Gets Into Trouble Over in Rochester.

Rochester, N.Y., Oct. 17.—John Schoen, Hamilton, applied to the police for the recovery of a wad of $50, which he said was stolen from him while asleep in a saloon, after a carousal on Saturday. Since awakening to discover his loss he has tramped the streets in destitution, and begged from lunch counters and hotel back-doors. Detectives were told to investigate his charge, but had to return with the young man to headquarters after a fruitless search. Regardless of Schoen's protestations, they subjected his clothing to a further search, which revealed the treasured roll in an inside vest pocket.

IS NOT SO BAD.

Bank Shareholders Will Yet Have a Chance.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—"I shall be very much disappointed if the assets of the Ontario bank do not realize more than sixty or seventy cents on the dollar for shareholders." The above, the first cheering statement that has emanated from officials, was made this morning by one of the directors of the Ontario bank. He was asked whether on their present showing the assets would give returns of as much as fifty cents. In reply he said : "They should do better than that. Why, when the royal commission was making its examination, they naturally wrote everything down at a low basis, and their summary was ahead of that figure. In addition one item they put down as worthless has since yielded a sum to the bank of 850,000."

That the outlook for shareholders is distinctly better was also shown by remarks made incidentally by George R. R. Cockburn, president of the Ontario bank. He said that more returns were coming in daily from investments which would place the bank in a better position.

Mr. Stavert, of the Bank of Montreal, said that so far as he knows Charles McGill, former manager, has not made any statement to the bank of his list of investments.

It is believed that the assistance of Mr. McGill will be called for to help straighten out the financial statement of the bank which is being prepared.

A HOLY WAR.

The Preparation Going on in Morocco.

Paris, Oct. 17.—M. Etienne, minister of war, has received a telegram from Gen. Llautri, saying preparations for a holy war continue in Morocco, on the Algerian frontier, and that a certain point of concentration has been chosen in the Wady Ghir. Preparations are being made for an encampment there. Gen. Llautri asks Minister Etienne to authorize him to take additional measures for the protection of Algerian territory.

A Revolt Begun.

Tangiers, Morocco, Oct. 17.—A revolt has broken out in the Kehamn a district in the south, and communications between Marakesh, the southern capital of the country, and the coast is interrupted.

SMOTHERED BABY.

Peculiar Accident Which Happened in New York.

New York, Oct. 17.—The four-months-old baby of Mrs. Rosa Bender was smothered to death, yesterday, by a pile of clean linen placed on it by a servant. She was arrested on a technical charge of homicide. Mrs. Bender, while visiting her sister, Mrs. Sarah Engel, placed her baby, Rosa, on the bed, covered it with a sheet and went to her own flat. While she was gone Miss Rysaka, a servant, her arms piled so high with linen that she could not see over it, threw the linen on the baby and went out.

Mrs. Bender found the dead body a couple of hours later.

Pulp Mills Forced To Close.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The low water which has been menacing the Chaudiere industries all along, has now closed J. R. Booth's pulp mill completely. Mr. Booth has decided to let the pulp grinders stand idle in order to divert all the water power into the lumber mill. Any time that the volume of water increases sufficiently the pulp machinery will be put in operation again and it will start anyway as soon as the saw mill closes for the winter.

The Eddy pulp mill has been partially stopped also to save the power for the manufacture of paper.

Elephant Ranch Under Way.

Valentine, Tex., Oct. 17.—The first shipment of elephants which are to stock the elephant ranch which is being established near here by J. F. Adams and associates, of New York, arrived to-day. There are four females and one male in the initial shipment. Other shipments will be received within the next few weeks until the ranch is stocked with a hundred elephants.

It is said to be the first experiment of breeding elephants on a large scale ever attempted in this country.

A Story And Nothing More.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The minister of railways and canals informed your correspondent that there is no foundation for the newspaper report of the sale to Montreal capitalists of valuable water power privileges in Beauharnois canal. Application has been made to the department for permission to develop the available water power at this point, but the request was not granted.

Floor Betrays Smuggler.

New York, Oct. 17.—The liner Deutschland had just docked when some lace underneath the dress of a woman, who was walking on the pier, caught in a splinter of the flooring. When the woman stopped twelve yards of lace were stretched out on the pier. A customs inspector saw it, and assessed $12 duty for the lace. She was searched, but the twelve yards were all she had.

BOAT IS LOST

Disappeared While It Was Exercising.

DRAGGING GOES ON

THIRTEEN MEN ON BOARD GONE DOWN.

The British Consul Has Called For Aid—A Flying Locomotive Crashed Into a Passenger Train With Disastrous Results—Many Bodies Taken Out.

Paris, Oct. 17.—The French submarine boat Latin, with thirteen men on board, while exercising off the jetties, yesterday, disappeared from the view of the accompanying tug. Search and dragging operations were begun immediately and resistence was felt at a depth of 130 feet near the place where the Lutin sank. Darkness prevented any further attempts to raise the sunken vessel.

The admiral of the port has accepted an offer from the British consul to telegraph to Malta for salvage apparatus and a crew of fourteen men, commanded by Lieut. Peppau.

Twelve bodies have been taken from the wreck caused when a locomotive ran into a passenger train that was standing in the station at Epernon, department of Eure Et Loire, on Monday afternoon. The locomotive was travelling at the rate of fifteen miles an hour. Fifty of the passengers were injured, of whom fifteen are not expected to recover.

SIR RICHARD TANGYE DEAD.

Great Engineer and Founder of Art Gallery.

London, Oct. 17.—Sir Richard Tangye, head of the engineering firm of Tangyes, is dead. He was born in Cornwall, November 24th, 1833. Aside from his engineering achievements at the head of the firm of Tangyes, which has establishments in many quarters of the globe, Sir Richard had various artistic, educational, and literary interests. With his brother, George Tangye, he founded the Birmingham Art Gallery and Municipal School of Art. He was a diligent and keen collector of manuscripts, prints, coins, and medals, especially of the Commonwealth period.

He was the author of "Reminiscences of Travel in Australia, America, and Egypt," "The Growth of a Great Industry," "The Two Protectors," and other works.

Revived Hotel Rumor.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—There is a rumor to the effect that a large modern hotel is to be built at Quebec by the Grand Trunk railway. Officials of the railroad disclaim any knowledge of such a project, however, though it is said that plans have already been made not only for this hotel, but also for a system of hotels throughout the country similar to those run by the Canadian Pacific railway. The plan in its entirety, however, will not be carried out till such time as the transcontinental road has been brought to completion.

Ashdown For Mayor.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—At a big meeting of delegates from various city organizations, including the board of trade, Manufacturers' Association, real estate exchange, trades and labor council and builders' exchange, it was unanimously decided to ask James Ashdown, the millionaire hardware man, to run for mayor. It was felt it was a critical time for the city, and that the best men should stand. Efforts will be made to get the very best men to stand for the board of control.

New Line For The Lakes.

New York, Oct. 17.—A new line of steamships is about to be established on the great lakes. Negotiations were concluded, to-day, between the Shipowners Drydock company and the American Shipbuilding company, the result of which are that the Lackawanna Steamship company, to be capitalized at $2,500,000, will immediately issue tenders for eight new vessels of 7,500 tons, to trade on the lakes. Pinkands, Mather & Co. will operate the new line.

The End Of The Salton Sea.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 17.—The work of diverting the Colorado river back to its old course has been completed, to-day, by the California Development company, and the Salton Sea, which threatened ruin to a huge arable district in the state, is a thing of the past. The railroad trestle across the river has been completed and the work of dumping rock into the stream commenced.

Object To Climate Of Halifax.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The Royal Canadian Regiment at Halifax is short 200 men. The other military depots throughout this country are now up to strength, but men will not enlist to go to Halifax, having some objection to the climate.

TO BE ARRESTED.

Warrants For McGill and Cockburn of Ontario Bank.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—The arrest of Charles McGill, former general manager of the wrecked Ontario Bank, may be expected at any moment. A warrant was issued, this morning, for the arrest. McGill, charged with falsifying the government returns regarding current loans in 1905 and 1906. The issuance of the warrant was the result of a conference between Hon. J. F. Foy, attorney-general, Crown Attorney Drayton, and James Bicknell, K.C., representing the Bankers' Association.

A summons has also been issued for G. R. R. Cockburn, president. The charge against Mr. Cockburn that he as president of the bank, wilfully signed false returns of the position of the bank to the minister of finance, and the receiver general. It is now stated the notes under discount in the bank are really over $200,000, less than stated in the returns, while the assets of the bank were padded. The total shortage is believed to be $1,000,000. It is not probable that action will be taken against other directors of the bank.

A. E. Ames & Co., brokers, issued a statement to their clients, this morning, assuring shareholders of the Ontario Bank, who may have purchased Ontario Bank shares through the influence of a circular recently issued by Ames & Co., that effective legal action will be taken against the Ontario Bank directors. If such action is not taken through other initiative, Ames & Co. themselves will take it. They consider the directors to have been so remiss in attention to the bank's affairs as to render themselves to the shareholders for very large sums.

McGill Arrested.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—Charles McGill was arrested at 2.20 o'clock this afternoon, at the King Edward Hotel, and taken to No. 1 police station.

TO FLOAT BAVARIAN.

Kingston Man Will Make Attempt at End of Week.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Great interest is being manifested by shipping men in the proposed attempt to float the Allan liner Bavarian, which has been on Wye Rock, below Quebec, for over a year. The Eastern Salvage company, of Great Britain, probably the greatest salvage concern in the world, sent out an expert to examine the Bavarian, and his report was that it would not be possible to save the vessel. Accordingly the Bavarian was abandoned, both by the Allans and the underwriters. William Leslie, of Kingston, formerly of the Collins Bay Wrecking company, is to make the final attempt on the occasion of the high tides on Saturday and Sunday next.

FIRE AT SHARBOT LAKE.

Four Dwellings Burned—Escaped Only With Lives.

Sharbot Lake, Oct. 17.—Early this morning fire destroyed the dwellings of Mrs. Meighen, Mrs. Gilbor, J. Conboy and Charles Ball. Little was saved of the contents of buildings. Many of the outbuildings were also destroyed. The fire started in Mrs. Meighen's house and the family only escaped with their lives. The wind was favorable, else the whole south end of the village would have been swept by flames.

Injured At A Church.

Belleville, October 17.—While working at the Baptist church, now being built in this city, James Pullan, an Englishman was badly crushed by part of a heavy windlass falling on him. He was rendered unconscious and at present it is not known whether he will recover or not.

Cortelyou To Be Moved.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The Post, to-day, says it is able to state, without qualification, that Postmaster General Cortelyou will be transferred to the treasury to succeed Secretary Shaw.

Morrisburg Postmaster Dead.

Morrisburg, Oct. 17.—Patrick Gormely, postmaster of Morrisburg, for many years, died last night. He was about seventy years of age.
