A Physician Says it is Contagious It Should Be Treated From the Spiritual Side.

Chicago, Oct. 20 .- An epidemic steria as contagious us the disease of smaltpox, according to Dr. A. K. Mitchell, of Lincoln, Neb., is sweeping over the nation, and unless the public can be brought to a calm retrospection great damage must be done, He attributed the malady to tancied

Dr. Mitchell's startling assertion was made at the meeting of the American Association of Railway Surgeons yesterday. His remarks brought out an eresting discussion of the nation's new affliction, during which Dr. R. W Corwin, president of the association, proffered some advice to physicians as to how the disease should be treated. "Physicians should mix the spiritual with their treatment of hysteria, and should use less of the material," said Dr. Corwin. "Everybody wants sensa-tion. It has crept into our school board and into the lives of women Women have their tens and drink They go to soda fountains some of them-and order drinks. I will say too, that they do not always order

Dr. Mitchell said hysteria was lookbreak of certain overtaxed, over-emotional females finding expression in tears or convulsions, but the educated physician, he said, knows that hysteriacis as much a disease as dlpox. It affects all men and the infectious and contagious charter of the malady, he said, are

Countess. Oct. 20.-A widow named Bouille has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment for committing swindles to the extent of $40,000. She passed herself off as the Comtesse d'Aubigny, and on the strength of the statement that she would inherit $1,000,000 from her husband's people borrowed large sums.

The suspicions of a M. Chevalier, one of her victims, was aroused by a friend, who pointed out that "Countess" sat on the edge of a chair. "No lady in high society," said the friend, "ever sits on the edge of chair. She always sits in the middle. Mme. Bouille had an accomplice called Modin, who made his escape before the warrant was out for his arrest, It. was reported some time ago that Modin had died at Angerville (Calvados), but M. Chevalier affirmed during the case that he saw him in a cab at Paris the day before the trial: He attempted to follow him, but was unable to do so owing to a block in the traffic. A fresh inquest is to be held on the body of the man found at Calvados.

Skeletons of Three of Napoleon's Soldiers Found in Alps. Geneva, Oct. 20,-The skeletons three men, who are believed to have been soldiers in the army of Napoleon that crossed the Alps in 1800, were found in a kind of closed-in cave in the ice on a distised road in the Col Septimer, a mountain 6,000 feet high. Two curious Swiss guides broke into the cave with their ice-axes. If their theory with regard to Napoleon is correct, the skeletons have lain there 106 The road near which they were found
