FAVOURS ELECTION OF CON TITUTIONAL DEMOCRATS.

Will Turn Provincial Gazettes Into Campaign Journals-Demonstration on October 30th, Will Be Dispersed By Troops. St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.-As a sult of recent conferences the govern-ment has decided, tentatively, on ing the election of members to the new parliament. As far as possible these elections will be held simultaneously throughout the empire. A circular, has been sent to the various provincial governors, advising them of this decision, and instructing them to bend all their efforts to procure the election of government candidates. The circular suggests a number of measures to hamper the campaign of the opposition parties, including the deportation and imprisonment pernicious agitators. As practically the entire press favors the constitutional democrats and the more-radical parties, the various governors" are directed to turn the official -exettes,
