THE SPORT REVIEW

THE CANADIAN AMATEUR ATHLETIC UNION.

Will Suspend Many Players if Found Guilty—Rugby Scores on Saturday—Rough Riders Defeated.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union in Montreal, on Saturday night, a homestead was thrown into the camp at the meeting of the governors held afterwards, by Frank Grierson, president of the Canadian Civil Service Amateur Athletic Association, who made the gravest charges against certain celebrated amateurs in hockey and football. He moved that the hockey clubs of the Federal and Eastern Leagues, who played last year and the clubs of the Quebec Rugby Union who played this year be suspended on a charge of professionalism after the rigby season was finished. He realized that there were many men in those clubs who were not guilty, but he wanted to get rid of the scum. He gave names, and Assistant Police Chief Starkie, Toronto, vice-president, Frank Grierson, Ottawa; secretary, Mr.
Crowe, Toronto.

He referred to the "scrap" that took place on certain of those trips between the players about the "division of the swag." He claimed to have proof that two teams from cities far apart divided between $400 and $500 amongst themselves, and promised many other revelations, including the money received by men for changing from one football team to another.

Some governors were for immediate suspension, but it was finally decided to appoint a committee to take charge of all the evidence Mr. Grierson would produce. President Starkie to suspend the players upon the committee's report.

These officers were elected: President, Assistant Police Chief Starkie, Toronto; vice-president, Frank
Grierson, Ottawa; secretary, Mr.
Crowe, Toronto.

General Notes on Sports.

It looks like Montreal for the Quebec rugby championship, unless St.
Patrick's can give the metropolis team a licking.

"Jack" Williams, of Kingston, did all the scoring for the Rough Riders on Saturday, against Montreal. He kicked their four points.

There is every possibility of the South Africans following the example of the New Zealanders and appearing in Paris early in the New Year at the close of their tour.

Lord Derby heads the list of winning owners on the British turf, his winnings now being in excess of £20, 000. Major Eustace Loder comes second, with approximately £15,000.

G. W. Isaacs, an old member of the Toronto Argonaut Club, who rowed bow in the junior championship four of 1905, and who is now a resident of Los Angeles, last week won the single sculling championship of Ottawa.

Pratt Institute, in Brooklyn, has decided to drop football. Dr. Vascheva, physical instructor, said: "We find that the game has brutalized to such an extent that a player has to be practically prize fighter to endure the knocks."

Guelph Herald: Every effort will be made to get the Guelph senior O.H.A. team placed in a group composed of Salt, Berlin, Stratford and Guelph.
That would make a compact and speedy district and would provide an interesting fight for the honors.

Articles of agreement for a fight to a finish between Joe Gans and Kid Herman of Chicago, have been signed in the city. The terms are 125 pounds two hours before the fight, the winner to receive sixty-five per cent and the loser thirty-five per cent and the stake.

The New York Evening Post says:
"There will be no race for the America's cup next year. There will, however, be a race for that historic mug in the summer or early fall of 1908, unless the New York Yacht Club refuses to meet the challenger a fraction of half way, which is extremely unlikely."

The South African rugby footballers in England won their match at Leeds against the English, with a score of 10 to 0, bringing their total score to 187 to 4. The tour closes on the first of January at Cardiff, Wales.
The South Africans, who are mostly Boers, wear green jerseys, with a springbok embroidered on the breast in old gold.

Announcement is made at Hamilton that the Bank of Hamilton has decided to move S. S. DuMoulin to the Teeswater branch immediately after the end of the present rugby season, and thus will pass out of football contact of the most prominent figures on the Canadian gridiron, and incidentally the Hamilton Tigers will sustain one of the serious losses in their history. Mr. DuMoulin has been playing rugby since the early nineties, having learned the game at Trinity College, Toronto.

American League men in New York are pushing the proposed change in the baseball rules. They have Pan Johnson's word for it that there won't be any serious attention paid to these fool schemes to "improve" the game. "I should we want to change a rule like the foul strike rule, which has already found such wide favor?" asks the American League's president. "Let well enough alone."
The rule is all right as it stands.

Three Real Romances.
Here are romances found in the news of a single day: In Norristown, Pa., fifteen minutes after marrying Amanda McClain, Walter Johnston took a drink of whiskey.
"Nately drunk at once, and will sue for a divorce."
In Mauch Chunk, Pa., Agnes Sullivan, ten minutes before she was to marry Charles Armer, called a friend and said: "Tell Charles I do not love him, and, therefore, cannot marry him." She didn't, either.
In Iowa, Kan., ten years ago, C. H.
Grandy and Charlotte Hayes. Only once did they talk. Then he went away remembering. The other day, his circumstances having changed, Grandy hunted up Mrs. Hayes, and she is now Mrs. Grandy.

The Wooing of Woman

Began in the Garden of Eden and has been going on with all its delicious consequences ever since. It is the starting point of a woman's life, the hour in which the sun really begins to shine.

Be she savage or civilized it is the dawning of the great light for which every woman longs. The story of how the world in every clime has done its wooing is the most fascinating that can be told the children of men and women.
