LIMESTONES READY FOR GANANOQUE PROTEST.

"Chauncey" Elliott to Represent Them—Team to Play Gananoque Will Be the Same as That of Last Saturday.
 The Limestone football team had a practice last evening, all the players turning out in uniform. Tomorrow's team will remain unchanged. If Crozier's arm allows him to play, it is not likely that he will be put at his old position on the wing.
 E. C. McIlwain, who is expected to play today, to see the Gananoque protest turned down. "Chauncey" Elliott will do his best for the Limestones, and expects that he will have no difficulty in clearing them as each player has an affidavit made out.
 The players deserve credit for the way they have come to the team this fall with everything against them. If they win tomorrow, it virtually means that the Junior O.R.F.U. championship will come back to Kingston this fall.

Sporting Notes.

St. Patrick's will have to win Saturday in Montreal, or both Ottawa teams will be out of the Quebec Rugby Championship.
 Rev. Mr. Barr has been agreed upon as the referee for Saturday's senior game between Tigers and Argonauts atarsity field, Toronto.

Toronto North, the exposure of the Ottawa sporting crooks has been a long time coming. The new C.A.A. should stamp them all out for all time.

The Ontario Hockey Association will likely affiliate with the reorganized Canadian Amateur Athletic Union, with equal advantage to the union and to itself.

It is said that Frank McGee, the crack football and hockey player, will leave Ottawa shortly for the west. It is understood that McGee has been transferred to Winnipeg by the railway commission.

St. Thomas Times: There is a proposition on foot to form a cricket league for next summer. The proposed league is to be composed of the two London teams, St. Thomas, Woodstock and Aylmer.

Longboat, the Canadian Indian, will run in the Boston Marathon next month. A friend of the redskin has offered to back him against a man in Canada for $1,000, the challengee to name the place, date and distance.

The leading United States colleges have scored as follows: Carleton 182 for 10 against; Yale, 123 for 9 against; Harvard, 131 for 6 against; Princeton, 165 for 9 against; Pennsylvania, 147 for 40 against; Michigan, 209 for 9 against.

Archie Edmunds, of Toronto, who has been boxing and wrestling all through Canada, both as an amateur and professional, has settled down in New York at boxing, wrestling and physical instructor to the Berkeley Lyceum, one of the best schools of physical development and instruction in New York.

Willie Hoppe defeated Schaefer in a game of billiards 400 points at 15:1, running out in twenty-ninth inning. Schaefer's score was 370. The game was to have been the second part of a 900 point match. At 15:2, the change having been made by agreement of the players in response to requests, Hoppe conceding the 18.2 game to Schaefer.

There are said to be 250,000 ten pin bowlers in New York City. The sport is on a firm foundation over the line, and it is said that there would be more money for the promoters of a national tournament than there would be in a prize fight. It is proposed to have crack teams from all the big cities compete in a big tournament at New York.

Boston: Hans, boasts of the largest horse in the world. At least his owners say he can't be duplicated in size. The horse is a four-year-old. He stands 18 1/2 hands high and weighs over 2,000 pounds. He is now a little thin in flesh, his normal weight being heavier. Horse experts predict that when matured he will weigh 2,500 pounds.

"Young Corbett" has gone into training for his next battle with "Terry" McGovern, which is scheduled to take place the first week in January. The Denver boy is at Stratford, Conn., where he trained for his recent contest with the Brooklyn "Terror." This will give Corbett just ten weeks in which to get into shape, twice as long as he ever took before to condition himself for a battle.

The touring team of football players from Galt that met on a brief visit to the west lost every game but their first and earned no welcome home, though the Galt Reformer was warm enough. This is a position of its analysis of the tour: "Not only have the supporters of football in Galt ground for objection to the team playing Sunday games as a Galt club, but they have a most emphatic protest coming when a team of the calibre of these tourists have proven themselves to be, take the reputation of the Galt Club in its hands and allows it to be trampled in the dust. It is true that the Galt Club has not, at present, a senior team equal to those which have represented the club in former years, and it is for this reason that the reputation which the club has made in the twenty-six years of its existence should not have been placed in the hands of a team whose incoherence (four of the western states closed with a game in St. Louis on Sunday."

WARRANT FOR ARREST.

Man Who Did Not Answer Summons.

Sergeant Nesbitt called out the name, "Norman Babcock," three times in the police court this morning, but Norman was conspicuously by his absence. He was accused of running a "push cart" on the sidewalk.

Constable Naylor testified to having in his possession a number of papers on which the accused with a sum of money was written. He also stated that Babcock had told him that he would be at court this morning.

"Get issue a warrant, then," said the magistrate to the chief, and the latter complied with the request. Babcock will now have to answer the charge lodged against him, and also explain why he did not appear in court when requested to do so.

Babcock Appeared.

About 10:30 o'clock Babcock walked into the police station, and was surprised to find that court was concluded. The warrant for his arrest was then unnecessary. He was brought before the magistrate, and the latter gave him a severe reprimand for his absence.

"I was working, your worship," said Babcock by way of an excuse. "But you were summoned to appear at ten o'clock, and you should have been here," said the magistrate.

Constable Naylor told about Babcock blocking the sidewalk on Princess street with his push cart. The officer said that he had twice notified Babcock to take to the road, but he had disobeyed orders.

The magistrate imposed a fine of $5 and costs or a month in jail.

SEMI-BACK TO CANADA.

Two Young Men Arrive in City From Cape Vincent.

Herbert and Wesley McClellano, two young lads, were brought to Kingston from Cape Vincent by S. Immigration Inspector, F. B. Weaver. The men were placed under arrest, and confined in the cells on 17th, and confined in the cells on 17th. It was claimed that they were illegally in the United States, having failed to comply at Montreal with some of the formalities necessary for emigrants. The matter has not yet been arranged favorable to the young men.

It was stated here, today, that the men had not refused the States by way of the Cape, as the States by that point had entered the States when they went over from here in September last.

FORGOT TO COME BACK.

Borrowed Money to Purchase Clothes.

A young man employed on the steamer India, which arrived here the other day from Port William, is mourning the loss of $10. He loaned the money to another young man also employed on the boat, who has evidently "skipped." The young man, who is an Indian, stated that he wanted to buy a suit of clothes, and that he would pay back the money. He did not come back to the boat, and the money became suspicious and reported the case to the police. The Indian's home is in Cornwall and it is believed that he has gone there.

BOARD OF WORKS

WILL HAVE TO REPAIR THE ROAD BED.

Close to Street Railway Tracks Above Alfred Street—A Request to Open a Street Near the Athletic Grounds.

At the board of works meeting last evening were Alder Carson, (chairman), Gaskin, Craig, Couper and Craig.

A communication was received from Smythe, King & Smythe, solicitors for the street railway company, requesting permission to lay out a street forty feet wide through his land west of Macdonnell street, from "Billierol" to Johnston street.

The statute requires that streets must be sixty-six feet wide. Mr. Day is unable to lay out the street because of the width of the land.

Having to run the street entirely through his own land, Mr. Day, in order to make his building lots of sufficient depth, can spare only forty feet. What he wants is the consent of the council to make the street forty feet wide.

Ald. Carson said he recognized the need of opening up a street there in order to sell the lots, but at present there is no street to look after, without being obliged for building and repairing work.

Ald. Gaskin was of like opinion. If then it were to be perhaps different. Mr. King said that the city would not be responsible until it decided by resolution to take over the street.

Craig pointed out that the city had too many streets to look after. Some were merely lanes, though called streets. He would like to see any citizen given a chance to put his land on the market by dividing it into building lots. On motion of Ald. Gaskin the matter was referred to the city solicitor for report.

Mrs. Margaret Beophy wrote saying that her property had taken part of the property to open Stephen street, and had never paid anything for it. She asked that a fair valuation be set for what the city took, and that she be allowed to pay for it.

Thomas Kenny asked that a walk be built on Concession street, above Division street. It was decided to ask Mr. Kenny to send in a petition for an artificial street.

On behalf of Mrs. Mary McDonald, Albert street, J. B. Walker claimed twenty dollars damage for the cutting down of a number of rose bushes in mistake for weeds, though called weeds. He requested the corporation to cut down weeds on private lots according to law. When people, after being notified, fail to cut the weeds down, and charges the corporation does it, and charges the cost to the owners.

The matter was referred to the city engineer's department for report. The Engineer, Engineer McLeod, reported that no order had been issued to cut weeds in Mrs. McDonald's place.

Regarding the question of liability of the city for accidents caused by poles on the street, the chief engineer reported that in his opinion such poles do not constitute an actionable obstruction, but are warranted by the law.

The city solicitor reported that the city had no right to insist upon the Williamsville street railway track being taken up in view of the new agreement between the corporation and the city. He pointed out that the corporation was liable for damages resulting from the tracks being kept in repair.

The engineer stated that the trouble with the street and not with the tracks. The road was below the level of the tracks in many places. The city's duty was to keep the road in repair.

The chairman said that something had to be done with the street, for the poles were liable to occur. On motion of Ald. Basman, it was decided to make repairs by manufacturing close to the tracks, if the solicitor reports that the city is liable.

The notice of action for damages from the street was referred to the solicitor. She fell on July 28th last on the piece of boardwalk on Bagot street, alongside Kilpatrick's marble works, and injured her leg and arm.

C. J. Graham, petitioned for a street of concrete walls on Division street, in front of the seven new buildings he has just erected. Ald. Gaskin opposed the building of the wall if the present boardwalk was not repaired.

"Kingston's Famous Fur Store"

A fur purchase comes once in lifetime to most folks, and that very fact makes quality the chief factor in buying—cheaper as you understand it can have no part or companionship with quality as we understand it—or as you demand it—therefore we emphasize quality. We guarantee it, whether you buy a jacket, a fur-lined garment, a scarf or a muff, and our styles are exclusive styles.

In our enthusiasm we almost forget to mention that every man in Kingston knows this as the best place for good headwear—Big Melodramatic Novelties.

MUST FIX THE ROAD AND SAVE PEOPLE FROM DANGER.

The folly of allowing the Williamsville Track to Remain Now Apparent—Ald. Hoag One Who Causes Expense to the City.
 The board of works is doubtful as to whether the city or the street railway company is responsible for keeping in repair the roadbed close to the tracks, in view of repairs being necessary to the road on Princess street, from Alfred street to the track terminus, along which stretch the rails are inches above the level of the street and very dangerous.
 According to the agreement between the city and the company, entered into on May 9th, 1893, it is clear that the city is responsible for such repairs, for fifteen years, from July 1st, 1894, or until July 1st, 1909, after which the company becomes responsible.
 Clause 15 of the agreement states that from the time the road is completed until the expiration of fifteen years, the repairs shall be done by the city. After July 1st, 1909, the street railway company must keep in thorough repair all street surface and all crossings inside the rails and eighteen inches outside the rails.
 The sooner the city puts the roadbed in order, the better it will be for the people. Had the demands of some members of the city council of 1903 that the new company be required to pull up the rails, been acceded to, there would have been no trouble since. At the time in question, the present mayor, Mr. Moray, fought hard against allowing the rails to be left there. So also did ex-Alderman Birk and others. They knew the trouble that would ensue to the people in that vicinity and all others driving over the thoroughfare. Now the city must go to considerable expense in putting the road in repair so as to allow the rails to remain.
 It is worthy of note at this particular time that Alderman Hoag has announced himself as a mayoralty candidate for 1907. He was one of the aldermen who stood by the side of the street railway company. He voted in favor of allowing the rails to remain, and his vote has caused trouble to the people uptown ever since, and will now cost the city to expense in macadamizing the road.

A Curious Trip.

Some five years ago Miss Evelyn Holland, of Ottawa, one of Queen's residents, was visiting at Vancouver, British Columbia, when she overboard a bottle containing a letter, never thinking she would hear again of it. Later, however, she had a letter from a young man, who had been safely housed, has hobbled up seemingly on coast of South Africa. What mysterious ocean currents took it there the savants of the world can decide.

Two Lads In Trouble.

Kingston boys who play "hockey" from school will find themselves in trouble. There has not been much trouble along this line of late, but this morning two lads, one aged four, and the other seven, were before the police magistrate on a charge of truancy. The cases were related for a day, when the principal of the school at which the boys attend, will be asked to give evidence.

At St. Mary's Cathedral.

Last evening in St. Mary's cathedral after the celebration of grand vespers, the office for the dead was intoned, the altar being draped in black. This morning (All Souls Day), a solemn mass of requiem was celebrated for the souls of the faithful departed. The ceremonies were very impressive. The month of November in the Roman Catholic church is dedicated in memory of the dead and masses for their repose are celebrated each morning except Sunday.

A Sudden Death.

Sitting in a rocking chair at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank R. Grimmer, Cape Vincent, N.Y., Mrs. Alram Rutten expired an exclamation of "Nature of Honor," on September 18th, 1881, was the daughter of Samuel and Clarinda Gordon. In 1861, she was married to Abram Rutten, Pictou, Ont., and up to about four years ago had resided in that town. Since that time she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Gardner, in Cape Vincent. She was a member of the Main Street Methodist church, Pictou, and was an earnest and conscientious Christian. Two children survive her, W. A. Rutten and Mrs. Gardner. The remains were taken to Pictou for burial.
