DOCTOR ARRESTED.

Serious Charge Laid Against Strathroy Doctor.

London, Nov. 8.-Dr. E. J. Bateman, a prominent Strathrov physician, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police Wilson, charged with attempting a serious offence against Miss Adamson, a young woman, twenty-three years of age, living near Strathrov.

The attempt is alleged to have been made in Mr. Bateman's office last Saturday afternoon, while Miss Adamson was being examined for a sick ness from which she was suffering. Dr. Bateman is a graduate of Tria ity College, Toronto, and has been practising in Strathroy for about six years. Previously to that he practised for about ten years in Adelaide village.
