Failures in Elections.

The Hamilton papers are opposed to the election of aldermen from the city at large. The larger choice of the people—of men representing the entire electorate in place of a few of them—is not attended with the wisdom and discrimination which was expected.

Editorial Notes.

The fire department will be under fire at the city council on Monday evening. It really wants a touching up.

Conspiracy And Stander.

The end has not been heard of the East Elgin conspiracy and slander case. A protest has been entered against the return of Mr. Marshall, the member-elect, and when the case comes to trial it is expected that some startling revelations will be made.

State Insurance Proposed.

The life insurance managers were pretty well rehearsed in regard to the memorial which is presented to the insurance commission. This document submitted the stock company's side of the case, and the side that affects the dividends and profits.

Raising The Rate.

The devil seems to have a flirtage on a good many people and they keep on paying high interest.

Scriptural Graft.

Joseph Mercery cannot publish the Bible. Some day they will, and then we shall see the Bible, as well as the best books, in the hands of the graters.

A Serious Loss.

Meanwhile one of our saddest reflections, as the mighty are pulled down from their seats, is that we are gradually losing our reverence for the early Gothic type of whiskers.

Sage's Real Grief.

If people in heaven know what is going on among those left here, what will be Russell Sage's feelings when he thinks of his widow giving away all those millions!

The People's Good.

Toronto Globe. If Toronto gets power from Niagara at $17 or $17.50 per horse-power, we will feel that Niagara has not been harnessed for the profit of corporations, but for the benefit of the public.

Question Of Development.

Columbus, O., is now about to issue bonds for $140,000 to repair—not construct, mind you, merely repair—its electric light plant, which has been out of use for some weeks.

Too Much Food.

Every time you eat too fast, cram too much food into the stomach, you offend a law of nature and will probably suffer headache, nausea, biliousness and all the horrors of indigestion, which are so caused. Now if you will assist nature a little in an agreeable manner with such a pleasant and efficacious treatment as Hutch's, you need not suffer all those troubles. Hutch will give you instant relief from these little complaints and if you give it a thorough trial you will find that it causes which produce them. Hutch is a doctor for ten cents. 25c. and 50c. at all drug stores.
