A WARM SUBJECT

There's nothing in the world we're so much interested in as Coal at this time of the year. It may sound queer to speak of coal buying and selling as a science, but that's what we've made it. Two important discoveries we have made are that complete satisfaction to our customers pays best, and that the way to win business is to deserve it.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-West Province, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person the sole head of a family, or male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for homestead entry or inspection must be made in person by the applicant at the office of the local Agent or Sub-agent.

An application for entry or inspection made personally at any Sub-agent's office may be wired to the local Agent by the Sub-agent, at the expense of the applicant, and if the land applied for is vacant on receipt of the telegram such application is to have priority and the land will be held until the necessary papers to complete the transaction are received by mail.

In case of "personation" the entry will be summarily cancelled and the applicant will forfeit all priority of claim.

An applicant for inspection must be eligible for homestead entry, and only one application for inspection will be received from an individual until that application has been disposed of.

A homesteader whose entry is in good standing and not liable to cancellation, may, subject to approval of Department, relinquish it in favour of father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister, if eligible, but to no one else, on filing declaration of abandonment.

Where an entry is summarily cancelled or voluntarily abandoned, subsequent to institution of cancellation proceedings, the applicant for inspection will be entitled to prior right of entry.

Applicants for inspection must state in what particulars the homesteader is in default, and if subsequently the statement is found to be incorrect in material particulars, the applicant will lose any prior right of re-entry should the land become vacant, or if entry has been granted it may be summarily cancelled.

Duties.—A settler is required to perform the conditions under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such homesteader the requirement as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirement may be satisfied by residence upon such land.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal.—Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft coal and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of ten cents per ton of 2,000 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

Quartz.—A free miner's certificate is granted upon payment in advance of $5 per annum for an individual, and from $50 to $100 per annum for a company according to capital.

A free miner, having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1,500x1,500 feet.

The fee for recording a claim is $5.

At least $100 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof. When $500 has been expended or paid, the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other requirements, purchase the land at $1 per acre.

The patent provides for the payment of a royalty of 2½ per cent on the sales.

Placer mining claims generally are 100 feet square; entry fee $5, renewable yearly.

A free miner may obtain two leases to dredge for gold of five miles each for a term of twenty years, renewable at the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The lessee shall have a dredge in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five miles. Rental $10 per annum for each mile of river leased. Royalty at the rate of 2½ per cent collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

A Scheme And Speculation.

The mayor of Toronto takes the sound position that before the people of his city can be asked to vote on the question of contracting for power from Niagara Falls, through the Hydro-Electric commission, the scheme must be more definite.

How Mr. Beck, in the report made by the commission some time ago, estimated that power could be had in the queen city, for distribution, at from $16.53 to $17.15 per horse power per year. But he did not include the amount annually which would have to be collected on sinking fund account. After due provision has been made for this and all incidental charges the rate is put down at $17 to $17.50 per horse-power per annum.

The proposal was that Toronto, which should use the larger quantity of power and is more interested in the issue than any other municipality, should submit a by-law to the people and have them vote upon it. The mayor objected, and on good grounds. There is no guarantee with regard to results. The scheme is, morover, very doubtful. The cost of the service is based on "estimates," and any one knows how faulty they may be.

The Hydro-Electric Commission may be able to give a tolerably close "guess" at things, but before much advancement can be made in its scheme there will have to be a specification of the proposed service and tenders invited so that the cost of transmission up to a given point can be definitely ascertained. The power question may have been developed a great deal in the last year, but it is far from being understood sufficiently to warrant municipalities going into something which is a "speculation" to say the least of it.

Van Horn Asserts An Idea.

Sir William Van Horn cannot be accused of partizanship. He has never hesitated to discuss public questions as he sees and understands them, and his views are always interesting. To be sure they are influenced by his personal enterprises, but that does not affect their force.

For instance, it is asserted that he "believes this country is making a mistake in allowing the export to the United States of spruce and spruce pulp manufacture." He pointed out at the annual meeting of the Laurentide Paper company that a cord of pulpwood yields to all interests in Canada, the individual, the government and the transportation companies, only six dollars. The same cord converted into ground wood pulp would yield $13; if made into sulphite pulp, $21, and if made into paper, at least $36.

With these a prior facts Sir William makes the deduction that it would be to the interest of this country to have the spruce converted into paper at home. A small export duty on pulpwood and on pulp would force the American capitalists to establish mills in Canada. This is always economically desirable, and certainly it would be the result, for timber limits in the United States are getting scarcer every year. The Americans must come to this country for their pulp. Why should they not come here for their paper?

The same idea, in different words, has been enunciated by others, and the conviction is growing that the policy which was enforced with regard to the saw logs will have to be enforced with regard to the pulpwood, and the sooner the better. Quebec is being rapidly stripped of its pulpwood. It is being cut and shipped to the United States and there made into paper. This paper the Americans must have, and it must be made from Canadian wood, largely. Why not have its manufacture in Canada?

Hammering Government.

The Whitney government has had its action in two respects repudiated by the conservative candidate in East Hamilton and by the Hamilton Spectator. "If," says our contemporary, "a government makes a mistake the loyal party man will recognize the fact of the mistake and refuse to endorse it, and we are glad to know that Mr. Scott, the conservative candidate in East Hamilton takes that view."

The Whig was prompted by this remarkable statement of the Spectator to read the proceedings of the conservative convention, and it saw by them that Mr. Scott was furious because Toronto influence upon the government was being used to the disadvantage of Hamilton. The removal of the Normal college especially touched him, and he said that the erection of a Normal school was "no compensation for the Normal college," and if elected he would use "the strongest language," in impressing that fact on the government. A Normal school Hamilton would have got in any case, and it wanted this school now and a Technical college, also.

Mr. Scott said that a mistake was made when the Central Prison contract was given out. He continued:

"And I am of the opinion that some of the members of the cabinet agree with me. I think the proper consideration was not given to it at the time, and I don't think it will ever be repeated. I think it is unfair both to labor and capital. I don't think it is fair that free labor should have to compete with prison labor, and I think it is unjust that manufacturers who employ free labor should have to compete against prison labor. I'll not favor a motion of censure on the government for that. That is my opinion, however, and if elected, I'm going untrammeled. I don't think there will ever be any more difficulty about the subject of prison labor, because I think everybody agrees that it was a mistake."

When confessions were in order, Hon. Mr. Hendrie did well in relieving himself of a burden. He had "personal views on the prison labour question, but he was only one of a number." What did he mean by that? That he had made representations and they had been over-ruled? "Mr. Hanna," said he, "will make addresses here during the campaign." Is this an invitation to the electors that if they want to heckle any one they should take hold of the provincial secretary, who made the prison labour contract?

"Such talks," the Herald remarks, having carefully canvassed the situation, "at a conservative convention must have made the old-time tories stare and gasp."

Editorial Notes.

The president of the Ontario Bank knew that the head office was not being inspected, and did nothing to bring it to pass. This is a mark against him surely.

The Ottawa Citizen disapproves of all speculation with trust funds, irrespective of whether this speculation is successful or not. The Citizen's position is the only sound one.

The mayor of Montreal comments upon the remarkable apathy of the people in regard to municipal affairs. Montreal is not the only place where a keener public interest is desirable.

He is a funny old man who wishes his friends "a merry Christmas" every time he sees them. That was the practice of a director of the Ontario Bank. No wonder the people failed to take him seriously.

Mr. Whitney says he has not yet contemplated a redistribution scheme. If the government cannot face the people again without a gerrymander it must have dropped low in the people's estimation.

The federal government, it is said, will appoint a commission to investigate recent elections in Canada. It will not, it is assumed, confine itself to one side, as the Ontario commission has been doing.

The highest educational authority in England does not think patriotism can be cultivated by any law regarding the hoisting of flags on the schools. Mr. Roblin, of the Manitoba government, dissents, of course.

The labour bureau of Ottawa has been blamed because it did not intervene in the Buckingham strike and make for peace. The good offices of the minister and deputy-minister of labour were at the disposal of the employers, and were declined.

The Mail has it that Mr. Hyman will shortly retire from public life. The inference is that he has been humiliated by the election exposures. No tory candidate or member-elect ever showed any feeling like that, and the dear knows they had occasion for more than blushes.

A MAN DISAPPEARED

AND HIS BODY FOUND IN THE RIVER.

A Mystery at Gananoque — Did David Taylor Meet Accidental Death or Was It a Case of Suicide?

Gananoque, Nov. 19.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned, during the past few days, by the mysterious disappearance of David Taylor, who has been living on the old Dempster farm, on the river front, just east of the town. On Wednesday last he came into town, purposing to go, by boat, to Napanee. He was seen by several during the afternoon, and the last seen of him was about twenty minutes past seven o'clock, by Landing Waiter John M. Lee. Investigation showed he had not gone either by boat or train, and the affair culminated in the dragging of the river front near the Rathbun company's wharf, the body being grappled, during the afternoon, a short distance from shore. His watch had stopped at 7.25 o'clock, just five minutes after he was last seen. Whether a suicide or an accident will probably never be known. Deceased was sixty years of age. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of I. Cole, King street, for preparation for burial, before being removed to his home. A short service was held at his late home, Saturday afternoon. The funeral took place this morning, the remains being taken to Napanee for interment.

AVERSION A CAUSE.

Paris, Nov. 19.—The Echo de Paris says Japan's next war will be with the United States. While the governments desire peace, it declares it is impossible to eradicate America's aversion to the yellow race, which, according to the paper, is both instinctive and rational. The Echo says that fate has decreed a war, and the geographical positions of the two countries and their commercial rivalry can result only in a clash of arms.

The management of the Gananoque rugby team, as a sort of recognition of the able work done during the season, by the team, gave them a trip to Hamilton to witness the game between the champion Tigers of Hamilton, and the Montreal team, champions of Quebec. They left on Friday, by the International Limited, returning home Sunday.

The supporters of the Star-Bachelor Hockey Club reorganized them for the coming season. The election of officers was held, as follows: President, George A. Robinson; secretary-treasurer, Wilfrid LaQue; manager, Russell Britton; captain, Ralph Britton. The Star-Bachelors won the trophy offered for competition last year, and are in the swim to capture another this season.

Twenty-Five Years Since State Aid Announced.

Berlin, Nov. 19.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the late Prince Bismarck's announcement in the Reichstag, that the emperor was determined that the state should systematically assist the working people, male or female, by accident, sick and old age insurance, was commented on widely in the German press on Saturday, which generally approved or disapproved of the results, according to the political opinions of the commentators.

During the last twenty years $555,750,000 has been paid out for sickness $232,750,000 for accidents and $13,500,000 for old age.

CREATED A SENSATION.

A Professor Made the Woman Feel Decidedly Queer.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Tears and hysterical denials of women delegates, called "barbarians and murderesses," marked the close of the convention of the American Humane Association. For half an hour they had listened patiently while a speaker bitterly denounced the wearing of furs and bird carcasses. Adornment of such character was evident in all parts of the hall. Apparently unable to listen further, two women left the hall. Another burst into tears, while the husband of a fourth arose to defend the action of women who wore fur pieces.

It was the address of J. Howard Moore on "The Cost of a Skin," that caused the stir. "Nobody but a barbarian would adorn the head with the carcase of a bird or the head of grinning weasels," said Moore. "Such things appeal only to the vulgarian. Such a woman is about as attractive as if adorned, with a string of dried skulls. She excites pity, for she is a murderess."
