

Xmas Parlor Desks
In Oak Mahogany or imitation. A fine variety at $4, $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, $10, $11, $12, $13, $14, $15, $16, $17, $18, $19, $20, $21, $22, $23, $24, $25, $26, $27, $28, $29, $30, $31, $32, $33, $34, $35, $36, $37, $38, $39, $40, $41, $42, $43, $44, $45, $46, $47, $48, $49, $50, $51, $52, $53, $54, $55, $56, $57, $58, $59, $60, $61, $62, $63, $64, $65, $66, $67, $68, $69, $70, $71, $72, $73, $74, $75, $76, $77, $78, $79, $80, $81, $82, $83, $84, $85, $86, $87, $88, $89, $90, $91, $92, $93, $94, $95, $96, $97, $98, $99, $100.

Curtains
Hundreds of designs in Lace, Silk, Tapestry and velvet.

Cushions and Cushion Covers
In good variety. Piano Drapes and Table Covers, all new ideas.

We will hold your purchases until Christmas. New customers are already making their purchases for the holiday. Selection is large.

T. F. HARRISON CO.
Phone 20.

Cushion Loops
AND Cushion Cords

Every shade and combination that can be produced in Cushion Loops, we have now in stock. Both Silk, Cotton and Mercerized, in the following prices:

25, 40 and 50c. Each

Extra Length Large Tassel

GIRDLES IN EVERY SHADE

R. McFaul
Carpet Warehouse

WARM SUBJECT

There's nothing in the world we're so much interested in as Coal at this time of the year. It may sound queer to speak of coal buying and selling as a science, but that's what we've made it.

Booth & Co.
FOOT OF WEST ST.
Phone 133.

Now "Do Your Best"
And don't "Get Left" with some of "the rest"

It will pay you to buy now, even if you don't want to occupy until spring. Here are a few bargains:

- No. 136—Double Frame 7-rooms, each, stable to one house, in west end, $1,750.
- No. 447—Double Frame, 5-rooms each, rent $138 per year, $950.
- No. 530—Single Frame, 6-rooms, deep lot, in good condition, $950.
- No. 511—Single Rough Cast 7-rooms, B. & C., in central location, $1,450.
- No. 623—Single Frame, 8-rooms, furnace, gas, nice lawn, Portsmouth, $1,200.
- No. 605—Nice Single Frame, 6-rooms, in first-class order, $1,000.
- No. 559—Single Brick 7-rooms, B. & C., stable, $1,300.
- No. 374—Double Brick, 7-rooms, B. & C., near University, $2,700.
- No. 648—Single Frame, 6-rooms, 1 1/2 lot and stable, Portsmouth, $350.

For further particulars, apply to McCann,
51 Brock Street
Phone 326 or 621.

THE SPORT REVIEW

STANDING OF THE COLLEGE RUGBY TEAMS.

McGill Beat Varsity in Toronto By 17 to 16—Yale Won From Harvard 6 to 0—Tammany Tigers Junior Champions.

Final decision was on Saturday given by the Intercollegiate Athletic Board of Reference in regard to the rugby matches in dispute. Prof. C. H. McLeod, secretary of the C.I.A.U., sent this letter to Secretary Pratt of the Intercollegiate Rugby Union: "It is my duty to inform you that the two games, which C. W. Power played with Toronto University football club, and whose name was on the C.I.A.U. register at the rates in question, were, under act No. 11, clause 6 of the constitution of the C.I.A.U. to be awarded to the opposing team.

I understand that these games have been as follows: October 15th, Toronto Varsity vs. Queen's; October 27th, Toronto Varsity vs. Ottawa College.

Another question of eligibility comes up. Ottawa College, in danger of losing their game of November 17th to McGill. Prof. McLeod has written Ottawa College, calling attention to the fact that the name of Courtois, which appeared in the published accounts of the game, as playing scrimmage on their team, is also not on the C.I.A.U. register. There is, of course, the slight possibility that they may have been a newspaper error. If Courtois is the correct name, then the game goes to McGill, and McGill are champions, with Queen's one game behind.

Had the question of eligibility not arisen at all, the intercollegiate rugby standing would have been as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
McGill	4	2
Ottawa	3	3
Queen's	3	4

Thus McGill have won the most games on the field, without any of their players' eligibility being questioned, and, therefore, seem entitled to the championship. However, according to the ruling of the powers that be, Queen's and McGill may have to play off at Ottawa next Saturday.

Had Ottawa College erred on the 7th, then McGill will be awarded that game, and the standing would be:

Team	Won	Lost
McGill	5	2
Queen's	4	3
Ottawa	3	4
Toronto	1	5

Varsity Down And Out.
McGill succeeded in defeating Varsity in Toronto on Saturday by 17 to 16, in the last of the intercollegiate scheduled rugby matches. Varsity thought they had a clear easy thing, just as they did a week ago when they got such a shock by Queen's kicking them. McGill won on headwork and by taking advantage of opportunities. Varsity lost in the first half. With the wind behind them, they failed to kick, and the half ended with the score only 1 to 0, in their favor.

Hale, formerly of the Royal Military College Intermediates, scored the winning points for McGill's favor, by scoring the ball from a pass and sprinted sixty yards, outstripping McPherson, and securing a touchdown. Just before time was called, Southern dropped a penalty goal, bringing Varsity's score to sixteen, but time was up a few seconds later.

Tammany Tigers Champions.
The junior O.R.F.U. championship game to the Toronto Tammany Tigers, who, on Saturday, won from the Hamilton Y.M.C.A. team, in their victory by 14 to 9. The result of this match on the defeated team's own grounds, shows that the Kingston Limestone who were also defeated by the Tigers, stood well up as one of the best junior teams. With the practice of the Toronto and Hamilton juniors had, the Kingston team would have come out champions.

Intermediate Champions.
Hamilton II take the intermediate O.R.F.U. championship. In Toronto, on Saturday, they defeated Argonauts II by 25 to 0. Having won the previous Saturday's match by 23 to 0, the Hamilton team are victors on the round by 48 to 7.

Won By Yale.
The United States College rugby championship was decided on Saturday, when Yale and Harvard met at Haven. Yale won by 6 to 0, scoring a touch and goal in the first half.

Hockey Gossip.
Trinity College, for the first time on record, has decided to enter a team in the junior series of the O. H. A. Montgomery, who has captained the Ingersoll intermediate hockey team for the last three years, has moved to Toronto and will play there this season.

Mercurion, of Toronto, is said to have accepted the terms offered him by Calumet. He was counted on to make one of the Toronto Hockey Club's teams.

It has been decided at McGill that it will be impossible to play hockey with all or any of the four United States colleges who requested games during the holiday season.

Bellefleur's new rink is 212 feet long by 100 feet wide and 45 feet high, has an ice surface 190 feet long and 95 feet wide, and is centrally located. All seats are amphitheatre style, and

Thin Hair

Yes! We had noticed that your hair was looking pretty thin, and that it lacked luster and life. But we didn't like to speak of it! Of course you know that Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair-grower, makes the hair soft and smooth, gives it life and strength. This isn't the kind of hair that falls out! And, too, it keeps the scalp so clean and healthy.

SCOTTISH SOCIETIES

AT CHALMERS CHURCH LAST EVENING.

Sermon on the Church 400 Years Ago—Others Have Labored and Ye Are Entered Into Their Labors.

The Scottish societies attended Chalmers church last evening when the St. Andrew's sermon was preached by Rev. R. J. Craig, M.A., who delivered a most admirable discourse. The members of St. Andrew's Society and the Sons of Scotland to the number of fifty occupied the central front pews. Scottish music was used in the service of praise. Miss Massey and Miss Knight were the soloists.

The subject of Mr. Craig's discourse was, "The Church of 400 Years Ago," and his text, "Others have labored and ye are entered into their labors." He pointed out that what the church was in the first century of our era—now moulded by its author's hands—is sufficiently explained to us in the New Testament. To find that church in its organization, faith and loyalty in the fifteenth century, is difficult.

There were signs in the fifteenth century of a new state of things from that which had existed for centuries. Nations were asserting themselves. Distinct national languages were forming. Poetry and prose were indicating a change. When Columbus sailed for America, matters in church and state were fast approaching a crisis, which was quickened by inventions, such as printing, and the revival of learning throughout Europe. Brave voices were heard crying out for liberty. Evangelical ideas spread. Savonarola died a martyr to independent thought and conscientious judgment. For thirty-six years longer would the black pall of ignorance and superstition hang over Scotland; that would its darkness pale before the morning star of the Scottish reformation, Patrick Hamilton.

The reformation of the 16th century soon followed, and the world of that thought and activity. Four hundred years ago the church had but one name. To-day it has many, and each may learn some thing from the others. Let there be fair emulation and abounding liberty to prepare the world for welcoming its coming head and king.

This theme, the speaker said, would be at least interesting to the Scotchmen assembled as a society at their annual service for than Scotland, "the land of your sires," no land took more religious part in the struggle for liberty than Scotland. Firmly welded her religious beliefs into the everyday life of her people. As loyal descendants of their Scottish forefathers, they should talk worthy of their heritage. Let there be fair emulation of high duties and privileges in this new land. Certainly, if they were loyal to Scotland they could not be false to Canada for the new great lesson of Scotland's history is love of country, home and kindred, and reverence for God and holy things.

Let Scotland be your pride and boast. By birth or race, you are Scotchmen. But do you now so consider it? That you may stand with conscience before God and man.

With whom all ordering is the societies met in the church hall and sang the hymn of thanks to the chaplain for his excellent sermon, and to the choir and church officials.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

What is Going on About the Harbor.
Craig's Steamer Waterbury, up yesterday from Montreal.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The steamer Fairmount and West-wood will lay up here for the winter until their return here in a few days from Fort William.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

SCOTTISH SOCIETIES

AT CHALMERS CHURCH LAST EVENING.

Sermon on the Church 400 Years Ago—Others Have Labored and Ye Are Entered Into Their Labors.

The Scottish societies attended Chalmers church last evening when the St. Andrew's sermon was preached by Rev. R. J. Craig, M.A., who delivered a most admirable discourse. The members of St. Andrew's Society and the Sons of Scotland to the number of fifty occupied the central front pews. Scottish music was used in the service of praise. Miss Massey and Miss Knight were the soloists.

The subject of Mr. Craig's discourse was, "The Church of 400 Years Ago," and his text, "Others have labored and ye are entered into their labors." He pointed out that what the church was in the first century of our era—now moulded by its author's hands—is sufficiently explained to us in the New Testament. To find that church in its organization, faith and loyalty in the fifteenth century, is difficult.

There were signs in the fifteenth century of a new state of things from that which had existed for centuries. Nations were asserting themselves. Distinct national languages were forming. Poetry and prose were indicating a change. When Columbus sailed for America, matters in church and state were fast approaching a crisis, which was quickened by inventions, such as printing, and the revival of learning throughout Europe. Brave voices were heard crying out for liberty. Evangelical ideas spread. Savonarola died a martyr to independent thought and conscientious judgment. For thirty-six years longer would the black pall of ignorance and superstition hang over Scotland; that would its darkness pale before the morning star of the Scottish reformation, Patrick Hamilton.

The reformation of the 16th century soon followed, and the world of that thought and activity. Four hundred years ago the church had but one name. To-day it has many, and each may learn some thing from the others. Let there be fair emulation and abounding liberty to prepare the world for welcoming its coming head and king.

This theme, the speaker said, would be at least interesting to the Scotchmen assembled as a society at their annual service for than Scotland, "the land of your sires," no land took more religious part in the struggle for liberty than Scotland. Firmly welded her religious beliefs into the everyday life of her people. As loyal descendants of their Scottish forefathers, they should talk worthy of their heritage. Let there be fair emulation of high duties and privileges in this new land. Certainly, if they were loyal to Scotland they could not be false to Canada for the new great lesson of Scotland's history is love of country, home and kindred, and reverence for God and holy things.

Let Scotland be your pride and boast. By birth or race, you are Scotchmen. But do you now so consider it? That you may stand with conscience before God and man.

With whom all ordering is the societies met in the church hall and sang the hymn of thanks to the chaplain for his excellent sermon, and to the choir and church officials.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

What is Going on About the Harbor.
Craig's Steamer Waterbury, up yesterday from Montreal.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The steamer Fairmount and West-wood will lay up here for the winter until their return here in a few days from Fort William.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

The schooner W. J. Sufell, loaded with feldspar, for Charlotte, now for a week has not yet cleared.

The steamer Plummer passed Kingston, Saturday, on her way to Fort William to Montreal.

The schooner R. Macdonald is unloading here for the G.T.R. freight shed.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Bought The House.
George W. Mahood, druggist, has bought the house occupied by W. T. Minnes, Earl street, and will take possession at New Year's.

"Three Swallows."
Sir John Power & Son's "Three Swallows" Irish Whiskey, famous for over a century.

"Cans," Not "Cows."
In giving the cause of several typhoid fever cases in Saturday's issue, the statement was made that dairymen washed their "cows" with rain water from cave troughs. The correct reading should have been "washed their cans." The error was one of proof reading.

Next Week's Events.
Some good attractions are coming to the Grand next week, "A Message From Mars," is booked for Monday, December 3rd, "Kyrle Bell" in "Brigadier Girard" on Tuesday, December 4th, "Behind the Mask," on Wednesday, December 5th, and "The Eye Witness," on Thursday, December 6th.

Spring In The Air.
We notice in the list of post offices, there are six called Springfield, 2 Springfield, 1 Spring Bay, 2 Spring Brook, 1 Spring Coles, 1 Springdale, 1 Springham, 5 Spring Hill, 2 Spring Valley, 2 Springville, 1 Spring Road, Springside, Springtown, Springvale.

How The Taxes Stand.
At this date there is just $3,900 of this year's general taxes uncollected. Those in arrears should try and pay up so that the city council may conclude a record tax year. About $90 remains of the 1905 street watering taxes, while about one-third of this year's street watering rates have still to be collected.

To Buy New Instruments.
The instruments of the 14th Regimental band are being put into good shape again in readiness for the coming season. An oboe player will arrive in the city in the course of a few days. The oboe is an instrument similar to the clarinet and is said to produce a very sweet sound.

Presented With "Night Stick."
Constable Megarry, of the Kingston Police Force, was presented with a "night stick" by his friend, Constable Spooner, of the Cleveland Police Force, who has been spending his vacations in this city. Constable Spooner, formerly lived in Kingston, and has been spending a most pleasant time with his many friends. He will return to Cleveland on Thursday.

Why Progress Is Slow.
Rev. C. T. Scott remarked that $5,000,000 a year was spent for chewing gum in America, a thing almost worse than useless. That money, if rendered to God, would go far to bring about the time when every tribe and kindred on earth would know of God.

The Cathedral Memorials.
Workmen have begun to-day to put in place the architrave over the main door of St. George's cathedral. This is a memorial to the late Dr. Walker.

Who Stamped It?
John A. Webster, Gasqueton, owns a cheese factory, near South Lake, at a place locally called Springfield. In September Mr. Webster sent by the stage, some milk sheets, enclosing a note to the cheesemaker, to his factory. Nothing was heard of the package for some time. Mr. Sherby, mail-carrier, stageman, and general freight shipper, quite forgetting what he did with it. A month later Mr. Webster was notified by letter that his package was found in a bundle of printed matter. Some one unknown, put two cent stamps on the bundle of milk sheets (and that's all that's left of the note) and it travelled about till it landed in the dead letter office. Now Mr. Webster has paid his $10, and is looking for the man who licked the stamp. He has also appealed against the fine.

PAID FOR HIS RIDE.
Bicyclist Who Used Sidewalk Was Fined.

Cornelius Jones, of Princess street, who was summoned on a charge of riding his bicycle on the sidewalk on Colborne street, appeared in the police court this morning, pleaded guilty, and was fined $2 and costs. Jones did not attend court. Saturday, as requested, and he explained to the magistrates, that he had judged the time by the clock at St. Andrew's church, and that when he arrived at the police court he was too late, as court was over.

Vandalism Perpetrated By Maliciously Inclined.
A-Rancorful despatch says: "A most dastardly act of vandalism was perpetrated between the hours of Saturday night and Sunday morning on the new store recently erected by T. E. Ewen, and now occupied by Dobsony & Co. The front of the building, including the plate glass and doors, was besmeared with a coating of tar, with a few feathers mixed in."

FELL INTO A DRIFT

HOW H. H. ROCHE LOST HIS LIFE.

He Was Shovelling Snow in Carberry, Man., When the End Came—The Remains Have Reached Kingston.

Carberry, Man., News, Nov. 23rd.

About 9 o'clock yesterday morning, H. H. Roche, local manager of the Spear-Stevenson drug business, dropped dead while shovelling a path through a snow drift in front of their store. The unfortunate man was seen digging the path by many who passed by. None, however, seems to have seen him drop. He had almost completed his job when he fell dead, his body falling in the trench he had just shovelled. When noticed the body was lying on its back. W. I. Smale was the first to reach the man and on raising his head life was extinct, death having been instantaneous. Dr. Waugh was hastily summoned, and pronounced it a case of heart failure. The body was removed to Davy's undertaking rooms.

The deceased came to Carberry on Wednesday last week, to assume the management of the drug business recently disposed of by A. E. Birt. He was a native of Kingston, Ont., where his family reside. Mr. Roche, who came west with her husband about two months ago, accompanied him to Carberry, and to her shock is better imagined than described. The breaking of the news to her and her viewing the body of her loved husband, will never be forgotten by those sympathetic friends, who witnessed the scene. Mr. Roche was taken to the parsonage by Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, where she was visited by many sympathetic ladies of the town.

The remains of the late Mr. Roche were taken to the parsonage by Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, where she was visited by many sympathetic ladies of the town. The local druggists have subscribed a goodly sum for the expenses of the funeral, and permit the collector—Messrs. G. B. Murray and W. I. Smale—to hand the widow a substantial sum.

The deceased was forty-five years of age, of a very affable disposition and unblemished character. A widow and seven children survive him, to whom the sincerest sympathy of the community is extended.

The remains of the late Mr. Roche were taken to the parsonage by Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, where she was visited by many sympathetic ladies of the town. The local druggists have subscribed a goodly sum for the expenses of the funeral, and permit the collector—Messrs. G. B. Murray and W. I. Smale—to hand the widow a substantial sum.

The deceased was forty-five years of age, of a very affable disposition and unblemished character. A widow and seven children survive him, to whom the sincerest sympathy of the community is extended.

The remains of the late Mr. Roche were taken to the parsonage by Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, where she was visited by many sympathetic ladies of the town. The local druggists have subscribed a goodly sum for the expenses of the funeral, and permit the collector—Messrs. G. B. Murray and W. I. Smale—to hand the widow a substantial sum.

The deceased was forty-five years of age, of a very affable disposition and unblemished character. A widow and seven children survive him, to whom the sincerest sympathy of the community is extended.

A TAX COMPLAINT.

By Ernest Villiard—The Collector's Explanation.
Ernest Villiard writes to the Whig, complaining of wrongful street watering tax charges. He says that early in September he received a bill for eighty cents for the 1906 tax. When he paid it, Collector Bartels altered the bill for $1.00 for street watering for 1905, and paid it. Then Mr. Villiard says:

"On Friday, November 23rd, in walks Mr. Clark, the bailiff, and his lieutenant, Mr. Lavigne, into my home, and made a demand for $1.30 for street watering, 1906. After a very pleasant scene, the nature of which the general public from personal experience, may understand, I paid $1.30 more into trouble by forcibly putting those two fellows out of my house. Now, while this matter out, I want to make a public protest against these methods of up-to-date tax collecting."

Tax Collector Bartels was asked for an explanation of Mr. Villiard's grievance, and gave the following: "The law requires that both landlord and tenant receive tax bills, and accordingly, Mr. Villiard and his tenant were billed, in September last, the tenant paid his bill, and last month Mr. Villiard paid the street watering tax on all his property for 1906. At the time, it was not known that his tenant had paid. When the entry was noticed, Mr. Villiard was given credit for the duplicate payment. Regarding the demand for 1905 street watering taxes, the collector says that Mr. Villiard came into the treasury department on November 17th, and showed his receipts. These receipts were for the taxes of 1906 and not for 1905. He was given credit for his duplicate payment, above referred to, and asked to pay the balance of eighty cents on the 1905 bill. This Mr. Villiard refused to do, and Collector Bartels says he invited him to send along his bailiff.

The collector says that the bailiff never sent after delinquents until good and sufficient notice to pay has been given.

Prevost, at the New York clothing store, Brock street, has made a great reduction in price, in the order and read-made clothing department; also the great furnishing. Everything will be offered at a great reduction in price. The stock is well assorted, with new goods in every department.

There are some awful mean people in the world. The Salvation Army contribution box at the K. & P. station has been robbed of one cent. There were fourteen cents in the box on Saturday, and when the funds were counted to-day there were only thirteen cents.

There will be another meeting of the Citizens League, on Tuesday night, at the Y.M.C.A. Women voters are asked to attend as well as all men interested in reducing the number of liquor licenses.

A-Rancorful despatch says: "A most dastardly act of vandalism was perpetrated between the hours of Saturday night and Sunday morning on the new store recently erected by T. E. Ewen, and now occupied by Dobsony & Co. The front of the building, including the plate glass and doors, was besmeared with a coating of tar, with a few feathers mixed in."

WARRIED AND FEATHERED.
Vandalism Perpetrated By Maliciously Inclined.

A-Rancorful despatch says: "A most dastardly act of vandalism was perpetrated between the hours of Saturday night and Sunday morning on the new store recently erected by T. E. Ewen, and now occupied by Dobsony & Co. The front of the building, including the plate glass and doors, was besmeared with a coating of tar, with a few feathers mixed in."

A-Rancorful despatch says: "A most dastardly act of vandalism was perpetrated between the hours of Saturday night and Sunday morning on the new store recently erected by T. E. Ewen, and now occupied by Dobsony & Co. The front of the building, including the plate glass and doors, was besmeared with a coating of tar, with a few feathers mixed in."

A-Rancorful despatch says: "A most dastardly act of vandalism was perpetrated between the hours of Saturday night and Sunday morning on the new store recently erected by T. E. Ewen, and now occupied by Dobsony & Co. The front of the building, including the plate glass and doors, was besmeared with a coating of tar, with a few feathers mixed in."

A-Rancorful despatch says: "A most dastardly act of vandalism was perpetrated between the hours of Saturday night and Sunday morning on the new store recently erected by T. E. Ewen, and now occupied by Dobsony & Co. The front of the building, including the plate glass and doors, was besmeared with a coating of tar, with a few feathers mixed in."

A-Rancorful despatch says: "A most dastardly act of vandalism was perpetrated between the hours of Saturday night and Sunday morning on the new store recently erected by T. E. Ewen, and now occupied by Dobsony & Co. The front of the building, including the plate glass and doors, was besmeared with a coating of tar, with a few feathers mixed in."

Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Chafes

Dr. Scott's Liniment

And if very serious, saturate a piece of lint and apply to the affected part.

An