'Xmas Bargains in Cutlery, Agatewear Copperand Tinware, Stoves and Ranges

Much money is spent on Christmas Goods that are not of lasting value. Here it is different. Every article will be as valuable to you next July as it is now. Wouldn't it be wise, prudent and sensible, then, for you to select this class of goods as Christmas presents? Read over the many things we can offer you and, better still, call and see them for yourself.

Table Cutlery

Carving Sets from 75c to $5.00. Silver Plated Knives and Forks from $2.00 to $7.00 per dozen. Silver Plated Spoons, from 50c to $4.00 per dozen; also a complete line of Table Knives and Forks for kitchen use, from $1.00 to $5.00 per dozen.

Agateware

Tri-use Cereal Cookers_a careal cooker and two saucepans in one, made in best quality blue enamel $1.25 each pair of Skates make an acceptable gift to your boy or girl. If you buy them here you will be sure of quality and moderate prices. Ladies' and Gents' Hockey and Spring Skates. All sizes in stock. High-Class Boy's Hockey Skates at 50c per Pair.

Skates

For the Little Ones Children's Brooms

Children's Dinner Sets Children's Shovels Children's Knives and Forks All at low prices

Pandora Range

The leading Range of to-day. On the market only four years and we have sold over 400 of them in Kingston and vicinity. They will bake and cook perfectly with less fuel and labor than any other stove sold. Call and let us show it to you.

Russwin Food Chopper

Will grind all food stuffs quickly. It will not clog up, and is easy to operate, simple to take apart and clean. Your wife would appreciate it as a Christmas present.

Price $1.25 to $1.50

Some Special Suggestions

Bissell Carpet Sweepers Razors and Razor Strops Pocket Knives and Pen Knives Wringers and Washing Machines

Carpenters' Tools

We carry a complete stock of Tools of guaranteed quality; also Builder's Hardware.

LEMMON & SONS

351-353 King Street

FOR SUNDAY

REY. N. T. PERRY In St. Catharines Standard

A searchlight on a river-boat startling thing. When its flash denly and unexpectedly strikes upon the person on the bank it sets him in too bad that he does not see that the new robe. We never know how fault which injures him." We see it. dend we are until we hear the Father's He does not. Truly a peculiar and voice crying: "This my son was we could openly hear the criticisms of and is found.' our secret sins under a brilliant vou have to do each day? searchlight. Such an experience might ["Lord! what a change within harden us; it should humble us. A man often knows everything better than himself. He is like a globe-trotter who visits every place before his own country and his own home. If we read the biography of men, we apply We kneel, and all around us seem the lesson to other lives than our own. If we study society we see sins which are a close fit for others, but not for ourselves. If we listen to ser-

the Almighty, one for a cleaner heart. So they say, and so they think. Their own sins are yet secrets to themselves. It is a charitable thing to make allowances for the sins of our own with a wash of palliation or cured to many the obscurity is of man who is not a Christian cannot not troubled about his own appearance. It is only when he comes with-looking away from it-and this seems the geography of the valleys and low-

walked and talked in the darkness is ever to grasp the topography of his ders how he looks in that light. What elevation, must get an idea of his is the criticism from those who see earthly position as he walks along knows that every spot and mark and as he gets near to One who was withblemish is clearly seen. He is awak- out sin-as he puts himself in "the ened and inspired to appear and to radiance of His countenance." Many act his best. So the secret sins of of our sermons are valueless because which the Psalmist speaks are un- they are passed on to others. known to the man until they are set | When the Prodigal was far away in in the radiance of the face of Christ. | the kingdom of the swine, their asso-The Scottish poet, Robert Burns, ciate, he did not see himself nor. his once uttered a poetic prayer for some secret sin. It was only when he power to give us the gift to see our turned his face to his father's home selves as others see us-to see our own that his own life became open before sins even as they are seen by others. him. He did not know the discord of We often say that a man knows his own the quarrelling, gluttonous swine, unmind best. It is not always so. Per- til he got near and heard the harhaps others know things about us mony of the music of his Father's which are absolute secrets to us. house. He did not know how ragged and shameless and bootless he had ly given often ends with a "but it is been until his father placed upon him harrowing experience might be ours if | dead and is alive again, was lost ourselves as they are honestly given | Are you satisfied with yourself, willby other people. There would be some ling to be but a part of the machine things to startle us and we would see the business of the work with which one short hour Spent in Thy presence, will avail to

What burdens lighten: What temptations slake!

Brave and clear,

The old Schench Homestead in Highland Pack, Brooklyn, N.Y. It was built prior to 1742 and is about to be preserved for an his- wide construction of course.

A HIVE OF INDUSTRY

the Corby Distillery

The Corby company distillery is a great hive of industry at present, this county, will hold court of revision the missionary work prepared that prize. After the contest was over, and Cannifton, Bec. 3.—The Farmers' In while the scrutineers were preparing body who is anyopedy knows every because body else very well indeed, and is on attentions to those who will increase brother of the third Earl of Lonsday stitute purpose holding their annual the results, a committee of young men torms of affectionate familiarity all the raiety of your stay in the capiminent agriculturists will address the Everyone was delighted. The next social event will be a debate. Judge Deroche, the senior judge there since early fall. They have erect municipal election the appeals are nued new cattle sheds to accommodate merous. Miss Handley, our teacher in 1,200 cattle, beside barns, warehouses the Brick school, has resigned. Harry Hutch will remove all foreign matters our collector for Thurlow township, is time. That is why so many send Huy- lessn so of manner that is very re- lous things await us in the shape of ignorance, and to interpret iniquity as the brain of all these disturbing the brain of all the brain of all the brain of all these disturbing the brain of all the brain of all the brain of all these disturbing the brain of all ler's and McConkey's high class con- fre hing after too much "behavior." duties and interests of our own throttled by our secret sins. The most the organs of the body are built up when the missionary vice-president in coal you require for this winter. We which relieves the feminine half of so and too tired after a hard day's work throttled by our secret sins. The most the organs of the organs of the organs of the organs of the secret sins. The most the femous the femous half of secret sins. The most the femous half of secret sins. The most the femous half of secret sins of the organs of the or tions here being so widely different, party they are just getting up.

TO LEAVE THERE

that little section of Vanity Fair In choosing your new nonunintanees. As husband, when he was purposent deed, "on dit," that they Sourish and you are under no particular obliga- Morocco, to Fez, and was the non body who is anybody knows every terestine persons, and confine your band, the Hon. William Lowther, is round. Then there is a distinctly cosmopolitan favor in the atmosphere movement, the atmosphere, the variety noble, Vienna, Sofia, Bucharest, Towhich compares favorably with the of society there, surgrising provincialism often ob. The presence of vice royalty at all be was secretary of the embassy, and served in Montreal drawing rooms, the more important functions gives was minister to Chili from 1901 to where better things might be expect- them dienity and pictures weress. The ed. It cannot be truly said of all our pervading influence of the English elemore prominent hostesses that they ment is felt all the way down to the and other buildings. What the village Males is ill with scarlet fever, William seem perfectly at home in their own messenger boys and the cabbies. The lacks now is more tenement houses. Haight has moved into the house late houses nor among their own friends, amenities of life are more strictly ob-Most of the laborers are obliged to ly occupied by Mr. Clement, and Mr. There is often a degree of stiffness, served by every class in Ottawa than find board in Belleville, about four Clement has moved into the Walker reaching solemnity between "me and in Montreal. Even small-salarind bank Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how for others, but none for us. It is can be kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, we kneel, how weak! We rise, how fall of power!"

Brave and clear, the company of the capital sevents live rather more strength of our provides vant to carry them to and from the two kneels in the light word to use in five the wings for them can afford to tolerate a few inconveniences. Laborers get 81.75a day, carpenters from $2 to $4, copper. Smiths and brother, and five here and the wise fall of the walker here and brother.

Brave and clear, we kneel the capital was fall of the many circles in Others and for the like strength here and for the like strength here and f they produce unnatural conditions terday, when out at his barn. He which destroy one's peace and rest. One suffers from hallucinations, night-one suffers from hallucinations, night-one in which horrible or than usual, followed him, only to and grace of manner added to a to come back to our big, untidy, de-

DEBUTANTES WERE LOATH people find you out and approve of

The Capital's Manners Refreshing- ou I'on s'amuse." Ottown people like ly Gay Compared With the Be- strangers, especially if they are wellthe papers, go down to government Some of our debutances who went visitors' book, make yourself known ment and the drawing room so thoroughly enjoyed their unique experience his charming wife, leave cards on the that they were loath to come home to dear, dirty Montreal. It must be admitted that from the fashionable and few other high officials, and make the eminine point of view, Ottawa, is a most of any useful introductions you much more satisfactory place of rest- may have to residents. Very soon indence, at least while parliament is in vitations to functions will be shower. session, than any other Canadian city. ed on you from all points of the com-The social life of the place is central-ized in a way that strikes Montreal-luncheon, or dinner, you will meet ers as very satisfactory and worthy of hospitable ladies who will ask you to come to their house for some sort of the same results could never be you know how to use your opportunilooked for. Society as an organized ties you can become surprisingly pobody, with a visible head and sharply defined grades, does not exist in time. Not very much is expected of Montreal. In Cttawn, it is not only you by way of return for so much an organized body, but it is a kind of kindness and hospitality. Just to be happy family, giving the phrase a agreeable and available above all available when you are wanted, and of Philadelphia, may preside at I do not mean that envy, jealousy to look smart and tispeak pretty."

British embausy of the United St and hearthurnings are unknown in You must also be careful in at Washington. She accompanied grow apace there, but the impression tion to anybody, it is just as well woman who remained in that count he stranger received is that every to avoid tiresome, dowdy, or unin- during the heated times. Her hos all sorts of sleep destroying visions. to heart failure, Deceased was about "A man is known" by the candy he smart appearance and a certain bi- morratic and heterogeneous centre of By cleansing the body of impurities seventy years of age. James Brinthell, sends at Christians or in fact any of speech and fear commerce and realize that more serisuspens. If you are of the kind that to be "au fond" much more a man Also for sale by Head

AN AMERICAN LADY

MRS GERALD A. LOWTHE Washington, Dec. 8 .- Mrs. Gerald A.

Samaria Stopped His Drinking A London Lady cures her husban

business to Edward McEwon, Westport. Mr. McEwon intends moving to the village early in the spring. We wish him every success. Mrs. H. Mc Kenny is on the sick list. Dr. Consitt is able to be out again after a severe illness. His many patients out a large quantity of wood this her recovery. Mr. and Mrs. W. Singleton. Crosby, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald, this week. The Conway and Toffey suit has been settled for $150. The revival meetings come to a close. They have had a reat many converts, W. Clemmans street. He spent the summer at Forflying trip to our town on Mon-

Are Different From Their Polar

under most primitive condition

The information was brought

of the people, Capt. Klinkenberg, the steam whaler Olga.

the ice near Prince Albert Land, Capt.

Klinkenberg, accompanied by Eskimos started inland on a hunting expedition direction over the snow, finding traces of people, and finally overtaking 150 or more of them. When they saw him copper knives and bows and arrows.

They held these above their heads, and

One advanced alone, and the captain laid down his rifle, the native putting down his weapons. They became friendly, and by means of signs Capt, Klinkenberg learned from one old woman.

who came from Prince William Land,

that they had never seen white men previously. He visited the village, and found about 600 people, all of whom with a lining of skins, and different in shape from those of other known tribes. They are nomadic. The only article seemingly brought from civilization seen by Capt. Klinkenberg was a piece of steel-evidently from some ship-which had been converted into a

Down At Zero.

Portland, Dec. 4.-The thermometer has registered zero for the last few days. The shop windows are arrayed in beautiful Christmas decorations.

Francis Healy has sold his butchering

he pointed a rifle at them.

lived by hunting and fishing.

british revenue cutter Thetis, w

Conkey's or Huyler's high class cand out of town for Christmas can have

Misses Hattie Heath and Emma De

with friends in Athens. A number from here attended the high school

Volte spent a few days.