

Daily British Whig

YEAR 73. NO. 301.

KINGSTON, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1906.

LAST EDITION.

The Home of the Safety Razor

We have all the new kinds that make shaving a luxury.

There is nothing finer for a Christmas Present

Ever Ready, 12 blades, $1.50 case Star, 1 blade, $1.50 to $5. Claws, 12 blades, $3.75. Gillettes, 12 blades, $5 to $12.

Plain Razors, in single or in sets of from 2 to 6.

Every razor guaranteed or money refunded.

Goods exchanged after Christmas if not satisfactory.

Mitchell's Hardware

For Your Life Assurance Call at

The Canada Life Assurance Co. Office, 18 Market St., and get an ANNUAL GUARANTEED DIVIDEND POLICY.

For your Accident and Sickness Insurance.

For your Fire Insurance, For all Cobalt Stocks and full information thereto.

For North-West and Cuba Lands, CALL AT—

18 Market St.
Telephone 703.

J. O. HUTTON, Manager

THE ARCALVADA M. & M. CO.
Have Mines attacked and surrounding Death Valley. Gold M. and M. Co.'s claims. Stock now sold at 10 cents a share, up to ten cents a share as soon as first 250,000 shares are sold. Buy now from

JOS. F. SWIFT Financial Agent

CATARAQUI

December 21st, 1906

TENDERS WILL BE RECEIVED BY the undersigned up to FRIDAY, noon, the 28th instant for the work of laying a Flat Roof on the School Room in School Street, No. 9, Cataraqui, in the Township of Kingston. Floor surface about 1,000 square feet.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Work to be completed by January 3rd, 1907.

GEORGE NICOL, TRUSTEES PURDY, JNO. SIMPSON.

Secty-Treas.

SHARBOT LAKE BRIDGE

SEALED TENDERS WILL BE RECEIVED at the office of the County Clerk, Court House, Kingston, up to 12 o'clock noon, of THURSDAY, January 3rd, for building on the north side of Shabot Lake where the floating bridge now stands.

The bridge is to be 120 feet long, of 120 feet from the north bank and to be 3 feet deep and 14 feet wide on the top, and according to plans and specifications in the County Clerk's Office.

Bob Sleights

2 sets cheap, also a first-class lot of Furniture, Carpets and Stoves, at TUREK'S Second-Hand Store, 398 Princess street.

James Redden & Co.

DAILY MEMORANDA.

Skating at the Royal Rink to-night. This is the Festival of St. Stephen first Martyr. Hotel, 8:15 p.m. Grand Opera Lodge, 9:15 p.m. Limelight Lodge, No. 91, A.O.U.W. meets to-morrow night.

The sun rises Thursday at 7:33 a.m. and sets at 4:29 p.m.

Tomorrow is the Festival of St. John the Evangelist and Apostle. Citizens' League Meeting, Y.M.C.A. Thursday, 8 p.m. Members and friends come.

This day in history—Upper Canada made a province, 1791; Upper Canada entered, 1776.

Plain Razors, in single or in sets of from 2 to 6.

Every razor guaranteed or money refunded.

Goods exchanged after Christmas if not satisfactory.

THE PENALTY

For Surrendering To The Japanese.

SENTENCE OF DEATH

MAY BE COMMUTED TO IMPRISONMENT.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff is among those who will suffer—Prisoner Scores Prosecution For Its Ignorance—Decision of Court-Martial.

Petersburg, Dec. 26.—The court-martial which has been trying Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and seventy-eight officers of his squadron for surrendering to the Japanese at the battle of the Sea of Japan, on May 28, 1905, has handed its decisions.

Vice-Admiral Nekrasov, Commander Lichine, of the coast defense fleet, General Admiral Apraxine; Rear Admiral Gregoroff, of the coast defense ship "Admiral Seninav, and Lieutenant Smirnov, who succeeded to the command of the battleship "Nicolai I," were sentenced to death by virtue of extenuating circumstances and the long and otherwise blameless careers of these officers, the court will petition the emperor to commute their sentences to ten years' imprisonment in a fortress.

The other officers are sentenced to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.

The government prosecutor, in his closing address, declared that the infliction of the death penalty under these circumstances was out of harmony with the spirit of the times but he said that the sentence was the only one in question found no example in history.

Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, he averred, could have transferred all his commands to one battleship and then sunk the rest of his squadron.

The rear admiral made an emotional reply in which he cast upon the ignorance of the prosecutor, who, he said, has worn the uniform of the navy for only one year.

The sentences are commuted to short terms of imprisonment.

The sentences passed upon Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and the three commanders are similar to those handed down in the cases of the naval officers who were condemned by court-martial for surrendering to the Japanese.