Ladies Like Furs

Fur always become the ladies. They are a Winter necessity, of course, on account of their warmth, but they are also models of style for the dressy woman, and hence her admiration for them. We have a new and varied stock of Genuine Furs in a variety of skins, Mink, Ermine, Beaver, Seal, Chinchilla, etc. These are all well made and lined, and look like what they are - luxurious garments for stylish people.

COUNTESS CLANCARTY DEAD.

Formerly Belle Bilton, a Music Hall Singer.
London, Jan. 3.-Countess Clancarty, better known, perhaps, as Belle Bilton, an ex-music hall singer, is dead at the age of thirty-eight years. Her marriage, in 1887, at a registry office, to Lord Dunlop, who succeeded his father, the Earl of Clancarty, in 1891, caused a sensation in society. The marriage proved to be a happy one.

WAR IS SURE

This is The View Of Witte's Paper.

PUT RUSSIA BACK AS FAR AS LAKE BAIKAL AT LEAST.

Japan and China Will Likely Combine With This Aim in View - Japan is Making Ready and Her Forces and Fortifications Are All Being Strengthened.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 3.-Many people in Russia are serious in the belief that another far eastern war is sure to come, and that in the next conflict China will be arrayed on the side of Japan against Russia.

Even ex-Premier Witte's journal, the Shovo, has the same view. "Japan is arming and war is inevitable. Japan will seize the Amur province and perhaps will push forward as far as Lake Baikal," that is into the heart of Russia's Asiatic territory.

Despatches from Manchuria say Japan's preparations, besides an increase in her navy, army and fortifications, include a railway from Korea to Mukden, with a bridge across the Yalu, which will enable Japanese troops to reach Mukden in five days. Japan has also a garrison at New Chunging, although that port has been nominally transferred to China. In southern Sakhalin Japan is making military roads, and could raise fortifications in a fortnight.

In Manchuria the Russians regard a war with China as inevitable.

The Russian Budget.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 3.-The preliminary budget estimates, prepared by the ministry of finance, for the six months, of 1907, commencing January 14th, provide $22,415,000 for regular expenditure, an increase of $18,896,000 or 3.7 per cent compared with the same period of 1906. The greatest part of the increase will be absorbed in the payment of interest on the big loan of 1896, which increased the total charges from $11,098,000 to $94,730,000.

DISASTROUS FIRE

Swept About Montreal Early in Morning.

Montreal, Jan. 3.-The worst fire in the season occurred early this morning on St. Antoine and St. James streets, west, causing a loss close to half a million dollars, and the death of one man, and injuring half a dozen firemen. This was caused by the collapse of one of the brick walls.

Horradus Gagnon, a carter, who lives in a little house in St. David's lane close by the burning structure, was the victim. He was going back to his house to see what had detained his wife when he was struck by the falling wall. His son got out without hurt. The injured firemen were working on a ladder in the same locality when the bricks came down and they all sustained more or less serious fractures and bruises.

The fire started in the building, on St. Antoine street, occupied by the Smith, Patterson Co., wholesale grocery store, and the Gorham company, silversmiths. From the rear it spread over to the buildings, facing St. James street, at the corner of the thoroughfare, the Dodge Manufacturing company and the Standard Clothing company. Half a dozen smaller stores and many residences were in both structures were also sufferers.

The burned structure is owned by the late Mrs. J. J. Gagnon. The firemen injured were Patrick Hamel, Joseph Dumas, John Livingston, Michael McGrath, J. Brossier and James Messette.

MURDERED CHILD.

Paris, Jan. 3.-The approaching trial of the late Archduke Otto was made public to-day, one being addressed to Emperor Joseph and the other to his brother, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, disbeliever in the fact that he was the father of two natural children, aged five and six years, by a Viennese actress. The archduke has implored the emperor to take care of the children. It is stated, however, that his majesty will give the sum of 200,000 crowns for the maintenance of the children, but the archduke's death, disbeliever in the fact that he was the father of two natural children, aged five and six years, by a Viennese actress.
