MAYOR MOWAT HE WILL PRESIDE AT COUNCIL AGAIN.

The Address of the Candidates After the Contest Was Over—Mowat Had a Great Oath-taking of Friends.

His thanks to his comrades of the 14th Regiment for their support, and also to the members of the permanent force, who had stuck so loyally to him in spite of the unpopularity of his adopted policy.

On Monday the people re-elected him chief magistrate by a majority of 222 votes over Ald. Hoag. The labor candidate, Dr. Richardson, was defeated, though he received a larger vote than many thought he would.

At far as the majority campaign was concerned, politics did not rule, but in the aldermanic contests, the political vote was rather in evidence.

The returns were received at the Whig office and posted in sight of a large and intensely interested crowd which stood in the street in the drizzling rain till the last bulletin at seven o'clock announced the substantial majority of Mayor Mowat.

His worship said that a glad man the winner was. It was most pleasing in looking over the returns to find that Sydenham ward in which he lived, Ontario ward in which he earned his living, St. Lawrence ward which he formerly represented as alderman, and the Victoria ward where so many of his friends resided, had all given him substantial majorities.

Mayor Mowat's Remarks. His worship said that a glad man the winner was. Dr. Richardson Speaks. There was a gathering in labor hall between five and six o'clock yesterday afternoon, to listen to their leader's remarks. The labor candidate had been at each subdivision and the speech Dr. Richardson had made at each of these had been turned into his record of returns.

Notes of the Polling. They are thirteen conservatives and nine liberals in the council of 1907. The council's inauguration meeting will be on Monday next at 11 a.m. Ald. Cooper made a great run in Rideau ward as an eleventh hour candidate.

THE JUNIORS WON DEFEATED PICTON BY EIGHT GOALS TO THREE.

The Game Was Fast and Clean and Was Kingstons' All the Way—"Chaucer" Elliott Was Referee.

The junior O.H.A. series was opened in Kingston last night when Kingston Footbalists met and defeated Picton under most unfavorable weather conditions. The ice was too soft for the teams to get in any regular combination work, but did not seem to interfere with the skating of the players.

From the scratch Wilson started toward Kingstons' goal, but his pass was intercepted and after a series of scuffles, lasting about five minutes, Crawford and Amiel got going and Amiel started the scoring with a pretty shot from Crawford's pass.

With the commencement of the second half both teams started to play fast and clever hockey and had the ice been in better condition they undoubtedly would have trimmed Picton far worse than they did.

At the finish the score stood: Frontenacs 8; Picton, 3. The local enthusiasts retired, shaking hands with themselves for so decisively triumphing just as tough a proposition as they will meet this season.

General Sporting Notes. "Rocky" McMillan has returned to Cornwall and will throw in his lot with the Factory town hockey team after all.

White Wool Blankets. Plenty of cold weather still to come. Have you sufficient stock to pull you through until the warm weather comes?
