DAIRY CONVENTION

FOR EASTERN ONTARIO IN OTTAWA.

Remarks by President Derbyshire—There Was Not as Much Milk Produced as in 1905.

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—This morning the annual convention of the Eastern Ontario Dairyman's Association was opened...

"We did not produce as much milk as in 1905, owing to the shortage of pastures, and we realize that with all the educational advantages in reach of our dairymen, such as this association, the district schools, agricultural colleges and cow-testing associations, a greater quantity should have been produced.

"Under direction of the minister of agriculture for Ontario, we have had twenty-eight instructors and two sanitary inspectors, and we expect our staff to be increased next year, and each instructor made a sanitary inspector.
