LEADERS AMONG THE JAUS-TRIAN ARCHDUKES.

Amazing Series of Frauds Coolly Perpetrated By Three Daring Brothers-Even Jailer Duped. Berlin, Jan. 12.-Three brothers named Will were, yesterday, sentenced to long terms of imprisonment Bavaria for impersonating the Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to throne of Austria-Hungary, his ceased brother, the Crown Prince Rudolf, and a fictitious Austrian nobleman named Count Von Barnum.

in much the same manner as 'captain' at Koepenick demonstrated the power of a uniform, so this trio invoked the magic of titles in Germany, with such brilliant success that they swindled various persons out appregating thousands pounds. Their greatest coup, however, followed their arrest.

One of the brothers, whom the lice failed to capture, set to work to convince the chief warden of the jai Will, but were really the Austrian Crown Prince and his brother, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, If would release the two "archdukes" the jailer was promised a reward of $87,-500 on the third day after they were at liberty, $500,000 a year later, and fall, October and November, 1904, I a permanent residence in one of the was suddenly afflicted with a bad erup | crown prince's Austrian castles. The gullible iniler assented to the proposal and released the prisoners. He has been given two years' imprisonment for the acceptance of bribes. One of the documents introduced vidence against the swindlers was fictitious "last will and testament of the imperial heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary." which the bogus crown wrince filled in and countersignea with "the Great House Seal of the Hapsbures." This document had been given to a certain Herr and Frau Schwalb, who kept a boarding house at Ludwigshafen, where the make-believe royalties established their base of operations. They told the old German couple that they had been banished from Austria fifteen years ago on account of dueling, and were unable to return until 1907. One of their first achievements was to . "borrow" their landlord's saving bank deposit, amounting to $1,000. The Schwalbs' faith in the august identity of their boarders became so thorough that they proceeded to induce their relatives and friends to turn over their savings, explaining that the gratitude of the exiled "archdukes" could be relied upon to make their benefactors rich beyong the dreams of avarice. One old woman parted with her savings of a lifetime. amounting to $1,750, and the crown prince's promissory note, secured by deed upon some hidden piles of gold.
