THE SPORT REVIEW

QUEEN'S JUNIORS DEFEATED THE CADETS

By Seven to Six—The Game Was Keen and Fast—Basketball Matches—General Notes on Hockey, Last Evening. An interesting game was on between Queen's III and R.M.C. II and the spectators who were present witnessed a clean and interesting exhibition of hockey.

R.M.C. II—Wright, goal; Carson, right; Cowley, cover; Spain, rover; Moffatt, centre; Scott and McKenzie, wings. The game started at 8:15 o'clock, both teams playing hard. Moffatt scored the first goal for Cadets on a pass from Scott. Queen's quickly got busy, and the game continued in a fast, even, and interesting manner.

Basketball Last Night. A large number of spectators were packed into the gallery at St. Luke's hall, last night, to see the basketball game between the Cadets and Queen's III. The game was a fast and interesting one, and the spectators were kept on their feet throughout.

Hockey Notes. The Ontario Hockey Association has advised with the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union... Complaints as to defective rinks, either in lighting or something else, have been registered against St. Thomas and Port Colborne.

General Sport. G. Towns and Edward Duran have signed articles for a race for the world's championship on the Nepean river, for £500 a side, to take place on March 2nd.
