Told in the Twilight
Seldom, indeed never, has there been a prettier ball in the City hall than that given on Wednesday night, when Mrs. R. W. Garrett introduced their only daughter, Miss Maudie Garrett, to society.

Several years ago Mrs. Miller invented a mid and simple preparation that cured herself and several friends of female weakness and pain. She was besieged by so many women seeking treatment that she decided to furnish it to those who might fall for it. She started with only a few dollars' capital, and the remedy, possessing free and unobscured merits, producing many cures when doctors and other remedies failed, the demand grew so rapidly she was several times compelled to seek larger quarters.

More than a million women have used Mrs. Miller's remedy, and no matter where you live, she can refer you to ladies in your own locality who can and will tell you sufferer that this marvelous remedy really cures women. Beware the fact that Mrs.
Miller's business is very extensive, she is always willing to give aid and advice to every suffering woman, who writes to her. She is a generous, good woman, and has decided to give away to women who have never used her medicine $10,000 worth absolutely FREE.

Every woman suffering with pains in the head, back and bowels, beginning down feelings, nervousness, creeping sensations up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, or pain from any cause, should sit right down and send her name and address to Mrs. Cora B. Miller, box 4478, Kokomo, Ind., and receive by mail (free of charge in plain wrapper) a 50c. box of her marvelous medicine, also her valuable book, which every woman should have.

Remember, this offer will not last long, for thousands and thousands of women who are suffering from the same ailment, are waiting for the benefit of this generous means of getting cured. So if you are ailing, do not suffer, but order your name and address to Mrs. Miller for the book and medicine before the $10,000 worth is all gone.

White eruptions. Miss Habel Mido was assisted in dispensing tea by Miss Pauline Sparling and Miss Beatrice Lambert.

Mrs. W. St. Pierre Hughes, King-street, gave a bridge party of three tables early in the week, the prizes being won, curiously enough, by Colman and Mrs. R. E. Kent. They were much congratulated on their joint good fortune.

A few ladies were asked over to the adjutant's residence, at the Military College, yesterday, by Mrs. D. Lal-ford, for a little game of bridge, and the afternoon in her cosy home was spent most pleasantly.

Little affairs, all pleasant, but too small to individualize, have had Miss Marie Gilmour of Brockville, for their raison d'être this week. She is a very popular visitor.

Mrs. E. T. Taylor received on Thursday, at the Royal Military College, and in spite of the bad day, many crossed the bridge to see her.

Mrs. D. D. Calvin, who is getting settled into her quarters at 61 William street, has been feted in a quiet little way this week.

Mrs. S. Kilpatrick, University avenue, is giving her thimble tea this afternoon.

The yacht club dance will come off on Tuesday of next week, instead of Wednesday, as there are some other attractions on that evening.

Mrs. John Cochrane, Gore street, is giving a tea-dance this afternoon, for some of the younger people and the coquets. These little afternoon-evening affairs are very jolly.

Mrs. Lennox Mills will give a young people's tea, on Wednesday, at "Dish-top."

MRS. MILLER
MAKES A FORTUNE
Started a Few Years Ago With No Capital, and Now Employs Nearly One Hundred Clerks and Stenographers.

Until a few years ago Mrs. Cora B.
Miller lived in a manner similar to that of thousands of other very poor women of the average small town and village. She now resides in her own palatial brick stone residence, and is considered one of the most successful business women in the United States.

Tips For
The Farmers
BY UNCLE JOSH.

The cold snap this week has had a marked effect upon the attendance of the market. In the small supply of wheat offered for sale during the week nevertheless.

In his recent address at Queen's College, Hon. Sydney Fisher pointed out the necessity for the boys to remain on the farm. Secretary Wilson, in the United States department of agriculture, is entirely in favor of the idea. He proposes the agricultural high school as a preliminary to the agricultural colleges.

Economic forces are already working in the direction of encouraging life on the farm, its products all at good figures, and the isolation of farm life is being broken down. The rural telephone, the rural telephone and better roads, while surprisingly large areas of farm country have been brought into touch with the world by the trains, the increasing interest of the so-called "city people" in the country, absorbing, as they have, the abandoned farms of a decade or two ago, is having a wholesome effect upon all the year-round residents of the rural districts.

The value of agriculture as a subject of study in the rural schools is being studied in the office of experiment stations, will be determined largely by the attitude of teachers toward the subject. The rural schools of the consolidated rural school system are providing special normal schools for country teachers; the older normal schools are offering courses in country life subjects, and the normal schools are aiding the state agricultural colleges in the normal schools, by giving short courses for teachers,
