THE SPORT REVIEW

PICTON AND BELLEVILLE MAY PLAY HERE

To Decide the Junior District Tie—Ottawa Defeated Victoria in Montreal By 12 to 10—Queen's II and R.M.C. I Meet.

The Junior O.H.A. series is closed, as far as Kingston is concerned. Belleville and Picton enter the finals for the supremacy of this district. The two teams are evenly matched, and it is doubtful which team would win, as they are quite capable of each winning on their own ice.

Beaten At Belleville. On Friday night Kingston curlers went to Belleville to play a game in the junior series. They were defeated by a score of 10 to 8.

Ottawa Beat Victoria. In Montreal on Saturday night, the Ottawa defeated the Victoria by 12 to 10. At half time the score was 8 to 3 in favor of Ottawa.

Alfred Smith, Harry Smith and Spittal, of the Ottawa, charged with assault on three Wanderers players in the match two weeks ago, were served with warrants in Montreal, on Saturday afternoon. They were accorded bail in $200 each, which was guaranteed by Shirley Ogilvie, of the Ogilvie Milling company.

In the match at Quebec, Saturday night, the Montreal Wanderers won by 11 to 3.

K. & F. Hockey Team. Although somewhat late in getting into the game, the Kingston & Pembroke staff have now a hockey team, and they are ready to meet all comers.

General Sport. The English Henley regatta dates have been fixed for July 3rd, 4th and 5th. In the Centenary bospital in Montreal, the Heather's rink defeated the double rink championship cup.

To Meet To-Night. Cadets and Queen's II clash at the covered rink, tonight, in the opening game of the Intermediate C.H.U. Both teams have had a month's hard practice preparatory to the opening game, and are in good condition.

Hockey At Sydenham. A game of hockey was played at Sydenham, by the Victoria, of Williamsburg, and the Victoria, of Williamsburg, which resulted in a victory for the Victoria by a score of three goals to one.

BREAKFAST IS READY. This is the key-note of the morning. The woman who has no maid feels luxurious when she has Orange Meat.

The largest number of coupons mailed by any one person on or before March 30th, 1907, and addressed to Orange Meat, Kingston, will receive a prize of $20.00.

The Pittsburgh Orchestra. Ed Paul, the conductor of the famous Pittsburgh orchestra, composed of fifty-five musicians, has associated with him Henry Bransford, a distinguished soloist, horn in Copenhagen.

McCann's Purest, Strongest, Best. E.W. Gillett Limited. Toronto, Ont.

DR. POTTS HEARD

HE PREACHED EDUCATIONAL SERMONS.

And Presented the Needs of the Methodist Church in Caring For the Mental Training of Those to Occupy Its Pulpits.

Dr. Potts preached at Sydenham street Methodist church Sunday evening, and nearly every seat in the auditorium and the gallery was occupied. Dr. Potts delivered an eloquent sermon, taking as his subject, "Soul Winning And Soul Winners."

During the forepart of the service the pastor, Rev. C. E. Manning, referred to the fact that Rev. Dr. Potts was this year celebrating the jubilee year of his ministry. Kingston was the returned gentleman's home town, and the members of the congregation took great pleasure in welcoming him back to the city.

Change In Weather. There was a most agreeable change in the temperature Sunday and today, the thermometer going several degrees above the zero point.

"Three Swallows." Sir John Power & Son's "Three Swallows" Irish Whiskey, Famous for over a century.

Girouard's Training. Broad Arrow says: Col. Girouard owes something of his success to his practical training not only at Kingston Military College, but in the service of the C.P.R.

Students At Church. The students of Queen's University turned out in large numbers at Sydenham street Methodist church, Sunday evening, to hear Rev. Dr. Potts. One section of the gallery was made up almost entirely of students.

Ice Cutting Begun. The work of cutting ice commenced in the harbor, this morning. W. H. Reid has a gang engaged cutting opposite Point Frederick.

Last Dance To-Night. The Fortnightly Club meet to night for the last time in next Monday, at the Whig Hall, as their dates clash between now and the beginning of Lent.

Skating On Saturday. The fine weather Saturday afternoon, attracted a large crowd to the skating rink in the harbor.

Paid A Fine. A drunk, hailing from Wolfe Island, was the only occupant of the prisoners' dock, at the police court, this morning, and he was fined $2 and costs, with the option of twenty days.

No Further Particulars. The Kingston police have received no further particulars about the Kingston lad under arrest at Brockville, referred to in Saturday's Whig.

ALL THROWN ASIDE

COUNTY COUNCIL THIS YEAR HAS DIFFERENT VIEW.

On the Question of Freeing the Roads of Tolls—Councillor Stoney's Forward Legislation Gets the Council's Boot.

This year's county council has taken a backward step in regard to the question of county roads. It voted down the proposal to purchase the Perth Road and set it free of tolls, and it repealed the by-law passed last year in regard to a county road system.
