Eng. De Broglie and His Wife Secure Paris Engagement. London, Feb. 5.-Prince and Princess

de Broglie seemed particularly happy, at the Tivoli, last night, for they signed a contract in London, vesterday, with the director of the Scala, Paris, to appear there for a month. beginning in May, at a salary of $3,000 a week-a record salary for Paris. There is also a clause in their contract indemnifying them up to a sum of $40,000 against injury during such time as they shall be in the Scala carrying out their engagement. Prince de Broglie said, last night that he is officially informed that his family will do all in their power to Brevent him and the princess from appearing in Paris. Before appearing there they will both fulfil a month's engagement at the Winter Garden, Berlin, and they are now considering offers from Brussels and Vienna.

We are seeking engagements on our artistic merits solely, said Prince Robert, "and a letter that I received, yesterday, from a great musical director in Italy, who addressed me as his 'dear confrere,' gave me more pleasure, I can assure you, than you can possibly imagine."

> DIED ON MONDAY. Mrs. Dodd Passed Away at Vener-

Mrs. Janet Dodd, of 385 Earl street, widow of the late George Dodd, passed peacefully away at four o'clock on Monday afternoon. She had been ailing for over a month, and a few days ago contracted a cold, which proved fatal. Deceased was born in Scotland in 1821. She was twice Myers' HOME-MADE Sausages married, both husbands having predeceased her. She leaves seven grandchildren (five sons and two daughters, of the late Robert Sinclair), and one sister, Mrs. Peacock, of Coc Hill, Ont., to mourn her loss. In religion she was a Presbyterian and a member of Chalmers church. The deceased was eighty-six years of age and one of the oldest residents of Kingston.
