A NEW HOCKEY UNION FOR WESTERN ONTARIO.

It Will Allow Professional and Amateurs to Play Together-The O.H.A. Will Soon Have to Recognize the Danger of the

A London, Out., desputch says: The present drift of affairs in the hockey world, and the attitude of the O.H.A. on the question of amateurism is undoubtedly resulting in killing the game in what would be good hockey towns if fairly dealt with, and has rewards the organization of a new association, which will accept the definition of an amateur as laid down by the more progressive athletic bodies of the east, and which permits amateurs to play with or against professionals without affecting their standing as mateurs. This move has not been dertaken without due consideration, Western Ontario enthusiasts, who see that the approaching result of the policy of the Ontario Hockey Association, which at the present time is apparently afraid to deal with the charges laid against certain players. The O.H.A. knows full well that to place these men under the ban means which openly recognizing professionalto control the paid men playing in its

The O.H.A. must and doubtless does, recognize the seriousness of the situation, and the fact that a procrastinating policy will merely effect a temporary putting off of the evil day. Professionalism—sometimes thickly, sometimes thinly veiled -has for years abounded in the O.H. A., though in the majority of cases positive proof was, and is still, a minus quantity. Many clubs, too, it is true, were, and are, innocent as re gards the paying of players. Still the taint of professionalism is there, and cannot be entirely washed away with out entirely annihilating the association.
