

For Family Colds

A reliable cough and cold cure should be always in the house ready for use the moment the first symptoms appear. It is always easier, cheaper and better to check a cold in the very beginning. It is safer, too. Shiloh's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, has been tested for thirty-three years, and tens of thousands of homes in Canada and the United States to-day are never without it.

GAMEY'S ATTACK

BEFORE THE LEGISLATURE ON WEDNESDAY.

Grew Excessively Abusive Over An Article Which Appeared in the Whig—Mr. Penne Denied Collusion or Evan Knowledge. Rising to a question of privilege, in the Ontario legislature, on Wednesday, Mr. Gamey pointed out that the members of the legislature had been invited by Mr. Penne to visit Kingston with the other legislators to inspect one of the institutions of the province.

Parish Church Burned. St. Hyacinthe, Que., Feb. 14.—Fire occurred, this morning, about two o'clock in the village of St. Aime, Richelieu county, the beautiful parish church was burned to the ground. Loss about $75,000; cause unknown.

The Sharrow Lake Bridge. The work of rebuilding the Sharrow Lake bridge is in progress. The county roads and bridges committee awarded the filling-in contract at $900. It will cost $300 for steel frame work, hence the total cost will be $1,200. Of this amount the county council pays seventy-five per cent, and the Ontario township council the balance.

Frontenac Conservative. The annual meeting of the Frontenac Conservative Association was held at the court house Thursday afternoon. These officers were elected: President, C. W. Langwith, Sunbury; first vice-president, Henry Esford, Barriefield; second vice-president, A. Rankin, Collins Bay; secretary, Hugh Craigston, Sydenham; treasurer, Jas. McGlynn, Wolfe Island.

14th A Better Team. In commenting upon the 14th Regiment-Argonauts match last night, the Toronto Globe says: "The victors had much the better of the play, and on faster ice would have won by a greater margin."

Get This Healer To-Day. You can't get along without having some good healing remedy in the house. The one to choose, always is Wade's Ointment.

Accident Story Retold. The Whig has received two more letters on the accident to a young lady at the battery rink. By the accounts already published and also by the additional letters received, it seems clear that the batterymen are practicing crokey on their own rink, and that other skaters should not have gone among the players.

Corling Last Night. The curlers were out in force at the curling rink, last night, and three interesting games were played, with the following results: T. W. Driver, C. A. McPherson, W. T. THE JUDGMENT OF THE RAILWAY BOARD.

The City Officials Were Not Highly Pleased—Must Improve Cars and Tracks—Sentenced For False Pretences. Ottawa, Feb. 14.—The judgment of the Ontario railway and municipal board, in the Hamilton street railway case, was received at the city hall, this morning, and was anything but satisfactory, to the city officials. The board has ordered the company to improve its cars within a period of three months and to make some improvements to the tracks within six months. The aldermen were hoping the company would be ordered, practically, to renew the whole system, and considerably improve its service which has been anything but satisfactory.

William Wilson, the Toronto man who admitted getting goods from the F. W. Fearman company under false pretences, was sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment. Rev. S. W. Falls, for the past three years pastor of Gore Street Methodist church, of this city, has received and approved, call to the Woodgreen Tabernacle, Toronto. He will succeed Rev. Isaac Touch.

John Salski, was, this morning, committed for trial on a charge of cutting and wounding a fellow countryman in a row over a keg of beer. Salski is alleged to have stabbed his companion in the arm.
