Hockey Notes. It is said that when the hockey see on is over the Montreal Victoria Hockey Club will make application to the C.A.A.U. for reinstatement to the amateur ranks. Their excuse for wanting to get back is that they went into the Eastern Canada hockey series because there would otherwise have been no outlet for their capabilities as hockey players, and because they wanted to show the other clubs that there could be just as good an ama-teur as a professional team gotten together. They think that they have done a good deal for amateur sport by making that showing. As it eir only lapse from amateur principles has been to play against profes-sionals for not a professional has found a place on their team. The Vics., it is understood, have up to date managed to get over two thousand dollars on the right side of their

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The Marks' Co. Completes Its Engagement To-Night. Notwithstanding the disagreeable condition of the weather there was good attendance at the Grand opera house last evening. A southern piece was presented entitled, "On the Mobile," the scene being laid in Alabama, Gracie Marks, "Laura Hatfield," gave a clever interpretation of her role. Elizabeth Bates and Emma Ballard were at home in their several parts, E. M. Wilgus, "Billy Dix," the bashful lover, did some fine acting. Mr. Stanford, "James Major, the spider," as usual, received the disapproval of the gallery for his realistic eflorts. W. Crockett, "Pompey, a colorled servant," was good.

The specialties were new. The Sours nferno scene, acrobatic work and club swinging gained for them applause. The illustrated songs by H. M. Wilgus were much admired. The musical bells and cathedral chimes by John Nalon were also appreciated. The moving pictures were very pretty. The company this afternoon played before large audience, "The Prodigal's Re-

"The Beauty And The Beast." Dazzling in splendor, gorgeous in scenic display, bewildering in costume effects, and displayed with over one thousand incandescent lights, the curtain will rise on that magnificent English and American spectacular pantomime from the Drury Lane and Broadway theatres, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," booked to appear in this city. Never in the history of weird productions has anything like it ever been attempted before whether in this country or England, and it goes without saving that our local patrons can consider themselves in store for a big treat when this company makes their appearance at the Grand on Thursday, Feb. 21st

"Thorns And Orange Blossoms." The dramatization of the famous novel, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," is even more interesting than the reading of it. The drama opens a wider play upon human emotions and human passions than perhaps any melodrama that has been produced. The reading public is familiar with the story. The scenery is especially adapted to the production of this play, and the company presenting it is an exceptional one. "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" will be the attraction at the Grand on Saturday, Feb-
