City Will Be Sued-The Do Extensive Work in King ston Harbor.

The board of works met again, yes erday afternoon, at three o'clock Free, Hanley, Elliott, McCann and Kent were in attendance. The members first went down to the Queen street slip, and saw the tar and other filt that was constantly entering that still pool of water. The slip is certainly in bad condition, and a remedy must be applied, else the city have to pay damages to the property owners. The tar comes from the ga plant, and the light committee wil have to deal with that trouble. Ald Gaskin said that part of the other misance came from the Maclean pork louse, grease, etc., entering the sewer. It was pointed out that refuse from a pork factory was not sewage matter. and the city could prevent people letting it run into a drain. The board of works recognized that it must do some-

Gaskin suggested that the easiest way ty to purchase the wharf property cupied by Mr. Crawford and owned by the Kirkpatrick estate. This, he would be cheaper than erting the sewer. On motion of Ald should have a conference with J. M ampbell, manager of the light plant, and Ald, Toye, chairman of the light stopping the tar from entering the

At this juncture, Ald. Toye entered the committee room, and Chairman Gaskin at once placed him on the witness stand. Alds. Elliott and Gaskin both held that the chief trouble was caused by the tar entering the slip Ald, Toye held otherwise, and some loud talk ensued, but it ended

The engineer said that last year, the board of works was given $13,000 for the streets. This year, the engineer said, the board must have least $15,000 to do the necessary work It was decided to ask the finance com mittee for the latter amount.

The city engineer's plan for extend-ing the O'Kill street sewer pipe from the outer point of the pier the Macdonald park shore was adopt nd laying the pipe will be asked for Ald, Gaskin drew attention to the act that Kingston should ask of improving the harbor. arge amounts of money were being on other harbors, while Kingston's was almost being neglected, because the city council had not hings. A city had to be alert, and press its needs upon the government, else it would nevar get anything. On Lem. B. Parker's dramatization moved, and that this petition be presented by the civic and board the government the necessity of enlarging the Welland canal The question of repairing the streets was again considered, but no definite action was taken. The board recognized that the first thing to must be the financial question. After it had been decided how the money was to be got, the board could decide as to what kind of material to use on the roads. This matter will be
