THINGS THEATRICAL
NOTES ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS AND PLAYHOUSES.

Australia's Tragedian in London—Another of Novels to Be Dramatized—Digby Bell to Tour in "Shore Acres."
 Digby Bell is going on the road in James A. Herne's old play, "Shore Acres."
 Richard Golden will shortly leave his fortitude years on the stage, or rather in the show business, for Golden began his career with a circus manager, says his biographer, the dramatist, "The New Standard," now running at the Gaiety Theatre, in that city.
 There is a possibility that Henry W. Savage will take the role of "Madam Butterfly" in London for a run at Covent Garden at the close of the American season.
 The English Drama Society is preparing to produce "The Hour," a new comedy by Nugent Monck, with "Cleopatra in Judds," by Arthur Symonds.
 In Boston, this week, William Faversham produced Charles Frederick Noyes' new play, "The World and His Wife," founded on El Greco's painting, by Jose Echeagaray.
 Another of Count Leo's to be dramatized and presented in English, the production is to be made Charles Williamson, in the spring, as soon as "The Day" has been launched in Rids Johnson's new comedy, "The Boys of Company B."

It has been practically decided that the New York Theatre will become a vaudeville house. Hitherto it has been devoted to return Broadway engagements of first-class shows at reduced rates.
 "Brewster's Millions," now running in New York is to be produced also in London. It tells of a young man who has to spend a million dollars in a year to qualify for a legacy of six more millions.
 Charles Frohman has already arranged for Ethel Barrymore's tour, next season, in this country. He has secured "The Silver Box" for Miss Barrymore. Her two brothers will be in her supporting company.
 Mr. Frohman has just acquired the next piece by Henri Lavedan, the author of "The Duel." This will be found to be the direct opposite of "The Duel" for it is a bright comedy. It is scheduled to be produced at the Gymnase, Paris.
 Mary Manning is still touring in Rida Johnson Young's play, "Glorious Betty," in which she portrays Betty. She is not only heart-cooled, but puts on her shoes and stockings in view of the audience—that is, with her back to the audience.
 Madame Benne is now rehearsing, for production at her new theatre in Paris, a comedy entitled "Paris and New York." The story of this tells of a young American widow who goes to Europe to marry a title, but finds herself married for love instead.
 Edward Herrigan has revised "Old Lavender," at the Lincoln Square Theatre, New York, and the piece seemed no less popular than when it was first presented, some two decades ago. Edward Herrigan himself, author and actor, appeared in his old favorite character of George Gogswell, afterwards known as "Old Lavender."

GERTRUDE ELLIOTT,
 As "Cleopatra," at The Grand, on Wednesday, February 23rd.
 There is a possibility that when George Alexander produces his English version of "Le Volcan" at the St. James Theatre, London, Miss Elliott will play the part she created in Paris with such success. Cosmo Gordon Lennox is at work on the adaptation.
 Miss Marie Doron, who played the heroine of "Cleopatra" in America, has been selected by Mr. Frohman to play in America the leading role of "The Morale of Marcus." She goes to London in May next, when rehearsals will take place with a number of English actors who go to the United States in this piece.
 The new Australian tragedian, Cyril Koughley, is attracting a good deal of attention in London by his Macbeth. One prominent critic says that he "played the scene in which he is told of the murder of his wife and children with extraordinary effect. Here was the genuine tragedian, in that he was bringing the lump to the throat and the year to the eye in an expression of grief so simple, so dignified and so wonderfully beautiful I have not met for a very considerable time."
 A London theatrical writer says: "The Stratford-on-Avon Shakespeare festival, this year, will give us another stage Don Quixote, for F. R. Benson has announced an intention of appearing as the hero of Cervantes' famous romance in a new play by Messrs. G. E. Morrison and R. P. Benson. It is not inappropriate that a play fashioned out of the masterpiece of Shakespeare's great Spanish contemporary should be produced at the festival, and the authors have endeavored to preserve, as far as the exigencies of the stage will permit, the spirit and atmosphere of Cervantes' work. With Mr. Benson as the Knight of La Mancha, and G. R. Weir, one of the best of Shakespearean low comedians, as Sancho Panza, a very interesting performance is promised."

Men Require Nerve and Blood Tonic
How Are Your Nerves?
 The daily grind of life burns up a man's vitality faster than he realizes. He gets shaky, starts to tremble, loses his sleep, is ready to fly off the handle any minute, and complains. The nervous man is nervous because his blood is so thin his nerves are starved to death.
 He needs Ferrozone!
 Its first action is upon digestion. It stimulates secretion of gastric juice, ensures perfect digestion, prepares the food so it can be at once assimilated.
 Hence the blood is nourished, is fortified, made richer, richer, stronger.
 To the whole organism is imparted a vim, an energy and reserve of vigor that the nervous man never knew before.
 The restorative power of Ferrozone is marvelous. In a month it will make you feel like the man you were. Karl E. Nossaman, of Rochester, who writes: "I owe a debt of gratitude to Ferrozone, which saved my life after a severe case of nervous prostration. About a year ago my health gave out. I was in such a weak, irritable condition I couldn't work, and found that three doctors did nothing for me. My druggist recommended Ferrozone as the best preparation for nervous trouble, so I commenced with one tablet at meals. Every box of Ferrozone I took did me more good than the previous one, and it wasn't very long before I was strong enough to move around again. In three months I was completely cured. Ferrozone braced up my nerves, gave me a strong healthy constitution, and is certainly a marvelous restorer and tonic."
 Try Ferrozone—sold everywhere in drugists in 2c. boxes.

STEPS TOWARD CANTEEN.
 Representatives Committee Shows Attitude.
 Washington, Feb. 22.—The first step in the direction of the restoration of the army canteen on government reservation has been taken by the representatives committee of the house, which has declined to recommend the expenditure of government appropriations in national homes for disabled volunteer soldiers, selling in intoxicating liquors.
 They will fly as far as five or six miles from the live to gather honey if supplies are scanty near at hand. As a rule, three miles is their outside limit of flight.
 The contending parties in the music-hall fight in London, England, have accepted the arbitration of G. R. Ashwith, K.C., agreeing to abide with the decision.

 Toronto Star's Toronto paper came out with a wild story to the effect that the O. H. A. had flopped again, and had ordered Kingston to play Peterboro a sudden-death game for the championship of the Eastern series of the senior O.H.A. The O. H. A. has no such thing.

Some think water is pure because it is carbonated—charged with carbonic acid gas. That is wrong. Carbonating water doesn't purify it. Carbonic acid gas doesn't cleanse water. Plenty of carbonated waters are mostly ordinary city water, charged with gas. That gas is just made by the action of sulphuric acid on whiting (such as is used for calcimining), or from the fumes of burning coke. Pleasant, isn't it? Even spring waters that are naturally fizzy, carbonated far within the earth, are not always safe to drink. Natural carbonation is likely to load water with more lime or magnesia than the system ought to get. So a natural fizzy water may be wholesome and it may not. The safe way—doctors think the only safe way—for people who like carbonated water, either plain as a beverage, or as a diluent for spirits—is to get an ideally pure spring water, charged with purified carbonic acid gas, and Carbonated and bottled under absolutely safe, cleanly, and scrupulously sanitary conditions. Water like that is zestful, refreshing, wholesome, and enhances the flavor of whatever it dilutes—liquors especially. The water that surely meets every requirement is sold in your neighborhood by merchants who care for the custom of particular people, and in your city by the right kind of hotels, bars and clubs. It is worth asking for; and it is labelled
