THE SPORT REVIEW

THE PLEASURES OF THOSE WHO LIKE PASTIMES.

The Curling Contests on Monday Night—Hockey Keenly Enjoyed at Various Rinks—The Events of the Day.

There were two games at the Curling Rink last night. W. Youden's team defeated E. Lyons by the score of 14 to 12, and E. Slater defeated W. H. Dalton by the score of 17 to 14.

Hockey To-night. There will be a double header at the Royal rink to-night. The first game between Frontenac Business College and Alexander is for the championship of group "A."

Peterboro Had No Claim. Toronto News. The meeting of the O.P.A. sub-committee to clear up the Kingston Peterboro matter, did not start till 10 o'clock last night.

He Did Not Come. Preston, the Niagara boxer, did not keep his agreement with James Carry, last night, as the boxing bouts had to be called off.

Freelanced Last Night. The 14th hockey team had an hour's light practice at the rink last night. The support of the Stratford-St. George's game seems to satisfy the local fans, as it goes to show that Stratford cannot be very strong, or they would have defeated St. George's in Toronto.

Hockey At Zion. On Zion rink, last night, the Excelsior and Granite played a game of hockey. At half time the score stood Granite 3, Excelsior 0.

Play Off Monday. The executive of the City Hockey League met at the Frontenac Business College, last night. The only important business before the executive was the fixing of dates for the final round, which will be played in the evening rink, on Monday night, between Wanderers and the winners of the Frontenac-Alexandria game.

Finish Of The Series. The City Basketball League series will be finished at St. John's hall, Wednesday night. The championship now rests between Waldron's and Chumley's. If the former team wins the championship, the championship goes to Waldron's, and if Chumley's wins the series will end in a tie.

Hockey Matters. Toronto Telegram: A heavy slap at the O.P.A. wasn't it for the Guelph hockeyists to up and give a ministerial show which showed that they are all amateurs, not a professional in the bunch.

Russell Boyd, of the Montreal Victorias, has replied to the challenge thrown out at him by the Eastern Canada Hockey League. The reply, however, is not anywhere as sensational as was expected. It simply takes the form of a statutory declaration that he is an amateur, and Victoria may say that they now defy the league to do the worst.

Showing Disease Ravages. Brooklyn, N.Y., Feb. 25.—In the Brooklyn institute, to-day, a tuberculosis exhibition, similar to those held in the country during the past year, was opened. The exhibition, which is being largely attended, is in charge of prominent medical men, who have volunteered their services. It comprises pictures, statistical tables, model apparatus and models of anatomy, all bearing upon the prevalence and the prevention and remedy of the "white plague."

General Sport. At Edinburgh, Scotland, in the fourth football match of the international series under rugby rules, Scotland beat Ireland by 15 to 3. As Scotland has already beaten Wales, and England was defeated by Ireland and Wales, Scotland is bound to win the international trophy.

A DESERTED CHILD

SEARCH FOR NAMES OF FOUNDLING'S PARENTS.

Her Abandonment Leads to a Romance After Lapse of Twenty-one Years. Brussels, Feb. 26.—On Wednesday last the following advertisement appeared in the London newspaper: Twenty-one years ago a lady from London abandoned in Brussels a little girl 2 months old. Reward to any one giving information about this person.

The only information which she volunteered was that she was on a visit from England. Nothing is definitely known about her male companion, though it is stated that he was a magistrate holding a high position in England, until a few years ago.

It was a delicate child, and was sent by the society to a peasant family in the country. It was a woman of good position, and adopted it as her own. The baby, which was then three years old, came to Brussels, and M. and Mme. Francoise, who had no children of their own, brought it up well and gave it a good education.

But they could not give it their name. The child had been christened Renee Dupont by the priest, and by the laws of the society that name holds good until the age of twenty-one. She is about to lose this temporary name, and, failing the discovery of her own, will take that of Renee Francoise.

Mme. Francoise is willing to confer her name on her ward officially, but before taking this step she is anxious to make a last effort to ascertain the whereabouts of the mother. For this purpose she has inserted an advertisement in a London newspaper.

Mme. Francoise is persuaded the mother is a woman of good position. Five years ago, she received an anonymous letter bearing the stamp of a Charing Cross Post-office, in which the writer stated: "If you are looking for the mother, she is a woman of good position."

An elderly London lady who is in search of a missing daughter called on Mme. Francoise this morning, but it was proved that she was not the mother of Renee Dupont. There is good reason to believe that the parents will be found soon.

Arctic Whaling To Be Abandoned. Dundee, Scotland, Feb. 25.—Owing to the failure of the whaling industry in the Arctic, the Dundee Whaling company, the largest of its kind in the world, at its annual meeting, to-day, decided to abandon the work and wind up the company. Whaling in the Arctic is practically a lost calling.

Trusses that satisfy. Dr. Chew's Contracts for five sections of the National Transcontinental railway have been let. The Grand Trunk Pacific company will construct three sections.

CLAIMS CONSUMPTION HAS ITS ORIGIN IN THE CRADLE

GOVERNMENT STEPS IN.

Takes Charge of a Gananoque Estate.

A few years ago Mrs. Adeline Turner, a widow owning a house and land on Princess street, was sent to the Brockville asylum as insane and demented to her at large. She is there yet, in good health, and, as we are informed, says the Gananoque Reporter, working industriously every day as cook in the institution.

Princess Now Represents His Generous Deed. Cettine, Feb. 25.—Prince Nicholas, of Montenegro, who, last November, granted his people a constitution "in order to promote the liberty, independence and happiness of Montenegro," is now beginning to regret of his generosity, as the people do not understand how to use it.

Some in parliament, and cabinet circles are almost an every-day occurrence. Recently Prince Nicholas dismissed a ministry which pretended to have a voice in army appointments. On parliament suggesting that he should reconstitute it because it had the people's confidence, the old warrior gave the assembled legislators a sound rapping.

News Arrived From Petworth. Petworth, Feb. 25.—Rev. Mr. Suddor has been conducting special services in the Free Methodist church, during the past two weeks. Charles Venus and bride are spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. Henry Walling.

Was a Good Company—Character Well Kept. Rockwood skating rink looked very pretty, on Monday night, with its decorations of flags and streamers, the occasion being the annual carnival, which will be played in the evening rink, on Monday night, between Wanderers and the winners of the Frontenac-Alexandria game.

Premier Impeached. Premier Whitney's declaration in the legislature regarding the dismissal of Sheriff Gillespie will be received by Premier Edwards, both liberal and conservative, with a smile. A high court has never been held in Prince Edward county since James Gillespie was appointed sheriff with the duties of the post office, and the duties of the post office are official duties. No person here has ever known of the deputy sheriff resigning and taking part in elections.

Those Asylum Changes. It is likely that an Ontario government inspector will come here to check over the asylum charges against the city in the recent account rendered by the provincial government. There is no doubt but what the city is overcharged, and when Auditor Milk makes his report, the city council will doubtless seek a refund of the amount taken from its share of the provincial railway tax.
