Told in the Twilight

Mrs. Christopher Abbott, King street, gave a tea on Thursday, which was particularly pleasant. There was but one regret, and that was that the hostess, who has ordered herself to everyone get so soon to leave us. Mrs. Abbott had filled her rooms with lovely flowers, and they looked very pretty. In the dining-room Miss Macaulay and Miss Lolla Saunders poured the tea and coffee and a large number of girls in pretty frocks, assisted, and Mrs. E. J. B. Pense cut into the sitting-room.

Mrs. Frederick K. Mahood, Brock street, held her post-nuptial reception on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and many were the visitors who called to welcome the bride. Mrs. Mahood's mother, Mrs. James Reid, received with her and Mrs. W. J. Mahood was also in the drawing room, chatting with the guests. Daffodils filled the house, and a lovely vase, holding the same flowers, stood on a centre of beautiful lace on the tea table. Mrs. George Mahood was the presiding genius of the tea room, Miss

And then, too, filters your blood - every particle of poison and impurity in your blood is destroyed, and you begin to notice the difference in your face first thing - your clear complexion.

The Rev. W. F. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, will be cordially welcomed by Kingstonsians. Many people here have met Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, during their brief stay, at various times, with Mrs. J. M. Machar, and found them very charming people.

Mrs. F. Milo, Union street, entertained at a very enjoyable progressive euchre party, on Thursday night, her guests numbering twenty-four. The first prize for the ladies went to Mrs. W. Moore, for the men's prize going to Mr. John Cousins. A delicious supper came after the presentation of the prizes, and with this the hostess was assisted by Mrs. T. Moore and Miss Margaret Mucker.

This afternoon, the little compulsory tea being given by the unmarried victims of the married couples, was turned into a farce of considerable amusement.

The marriage of Miss A. Gertrude Hardy, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hardy, of London, formerly of Kingston, Ont., will take place, on the bride's home next Wednesday afternoon.

Sport in the shape of the word that means good fun is the chief characteristic of the hockey matches which have the girls on one side and the redoubtable staff of the Royal Military College on the other, and remarkably good fun was Thursday's game. The men played this time with both hands, and even then the clever, nimble little skaters of the gentle sex managed to get five goals to the men's four. Among the spectators were Mrs. Victor Williams, Mrs. Norman Leslie, Mrs. E. D. Lesbury, Mrs. H. B. V. De Bury, Miss Bessie Gordon, Miss Mabel Brownfield, Miss Marion Calvin, Miss Marion Redden, Miss Beatrice Tandy, Miss Loreta Swift and Miss Yvette Pacaud. The girls who played were Miss Madeline Carter, Miss Elsie Pense, Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Marie Carruthers, Miss Phyllis Short, Miss Nora Gordon, and Miss Irene Swift, their opponents included Mr. Ernest Dawson, Mr. Herbert Dawson, Mr. Iva Martin and Captain Russel Brown. Major E. N. Moxley refereed, and Mr. P. G. Campbell was timekeeper. Tea made a delectable finish to the strenuous afternoon.

The Badminton players are preparing to send representatives to Montreal, in April, to try conclusions with the Montrealers.

The American Badminton tournament is still going on at the armoures, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Major and Mrs. Henri Panet are expected up from Ottawa next week. Mrs. Ross, of Chicago, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. B. Ferguson, Union street west.

Mr. J. Hora has gone out to Fernie, B.C. Mr. John J. McKay, Sr., of Sydney street, left on Tuesday, for St. Catharines, where she will spend some weeks. Ernest Shiver of Kingston is spending a few days with Mrs. B. L.

14TH TEAM FAILED

The crowd cheered and cheered, and the boys responded with another in good, quick order, Potter again doing it for the locals. At this stage it looked as if the soldiers were going to win out the round, but the Indians saw that they must be up and doing.

After Powell shot one over the visitors' net the puck again slithered up, and Powell and Bennett were given a rest, nothing seemed to result from Kingston's handicap, as Hancock took care of everything in sight. With the players all on again, the play was delayed by Killarney, who injured his knee but did not retire. After another series of rushes Lloyd scored on a long shot which barely got into the net, and the chances for the cup coming to Kingston were ended. With Stratford's score the locals lost their nerve and the game ended with two players decorating the fence. The score at the finish of the game standing 14th, 3; Stratford, 1. The teams were: 14th-Goal, Hancock; point, J. Richardson; cover-point, VanHorne; rover, Potter; centre, Bennett; left wing, George Richardson; right wing, Powell.

The 14th team haughtily the visiting Stratford team and the officials at the conclusion of last night's game. Addresses were delivered, W. S. Hancock spoke regarding the disturbance and informed all concerned that it was caused by outsiders, and that blame could not be attached to the home team.

The Paragraph Pulpit

Uttarrian REV. C. W. CASSON, OTTAWA

Theology and Religion. We must learn the distinction between theology and religion. Theology is largely the dried shavings cut from the tree of truth in the past, and we are apt to forget that a shavings diet is not conducive to spiritual health. A man may be stuffed with shavings, and yet starve. Religion is the nourishing of life with natural and nourishing food. It is a matter of feeding, and not merely of filling. Theology at the best and most is head-knowledge; religion is heart-comfort and soul-stimulus. The one may show us the right path, but the other gives strength to tread.
