

3 CHILDREN WHO WERE COVERED WITH SORES

Wonderful Zam-Buk Triumph!

Every mother knows with what rapidity sores, ringworm, ulcers, etc., spread from child to child. In Montreal recently most of the public schools were visited by an epidemic of itch in this way. A child is afflicted with scalp sores, itch or ringworm. In the course of play, one child puts on another's hat. In this way, or in a hundred and one more which children make possible, the infection spreads and sometimes a whole family is affected. Mr. J. C. Bates, of Bark's Falls says: "My three children were all broken out with sores on face, hands and feet. Their condition was pitiable; and although I tried various ointments and averts the sores continued to spread. "One day I saw a report telling how beneficial Zam-Buk was for skin diseases, ulcers, etc. I got a supply of the balm and applied it to the children's sores. Almost immediately they got relief, and the sores began to heal. Although the skin disease had defied all the salves I had previously tried, in one week Zam-Buk overcame the trouble, and to-day the children have not a pimple or spot or mark of disease on their skin. For this grand result I have Zam-Buk to thank."

There is Mrs. Ripley, for instance. She suffered terribly with her back. It ached, ached, ached—all the time. Eyes in bed, seemed as if she could not get up. It finally became so bad that housework was impossible. She certainly was a discouraged woman when she began to take GIN PILLS. And then, by selecting a happier, healthier woman in the Dominion than this same Mrs. Ripley to-day.

WOLFE ISLAND NEWS.

The Farmers Have Made Money Out of Hay.

Wolfe Island, March 13.-The crossing to the city and Cape Vincent still remains good and all appearances will remain so for the remainder of the month. It has certainly been a banner winter for the farmers on the island. Since the ice has taken, a daily procession of teams hauling pressed hay can be seen. She Was the Wife of Denbigh's Postmaster.

Denbigh, March 9.-The remains of Francis Grainger, of Venuschar, who died, on the 2nd inst., of pneumonia, at the age of about seventy-one years, were interred, on the 5th inst., at the Denbigh Methodist cemetery, after the funeral services had been held at the Venuschar Free Methodist church. Mrs. Mathilda Lane, beloved wife of our esteemed postmaster, John Lane, died very suddenly of heart failure, at the age of a little over sixty-one years, on the morning of the 4th inst. She had not been in very good health for some time, but had been able to attend to her ordinary household duties up to the last evening of her quiet existence, and her unexpected death was quite a shock, not only to the members of her family, but also to her numerous friends and acquaintances in the vicinity. The funeral took place on the afternoon of the 6th inst., at the Methodist church and cemetery, and was attended by an unusually large number of sympathizing friends. Rev. Mr. Mearns, of Plover, officiated. Rev. J. R. Butler and Mrs. Butler, of Courtenay, Durham county, son-in-law and daughter of the deceased, and her daughters, Mrs. J. R. Stewart, of Lindsay, and Miss Genevieve Lane, of Toronto, arrived in time to take part in the obsequies. Rev. J. R. Butler conducted divine service in the Methodist church, on Sunday evening last, but has since returned to his present field of labor. James Slater, who, since last fall, has been in a Belleville hospital, suffering from blood-poisoning in one of his hands and arms, has returned home again, but will not be able to use his injured limbs for some months yet.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

An Arden Case.

Arden, March 13.-[To the Editor:] Facing an item in the Whig of January 26th, I wish to correct it. It is in regard to a case brought before Judge Price against an Ardenite for taking lumber. The writer did not owe the party who took the lumber any such amount as stated, but the party who took the lumber was encouraged by one of the most popular men in the township. The writer sent a search warrant after the party and lumber; the party would not give it up, but the judge ruled that he must give up what did not belong to him. As the parties who were at the trial from Arden heard the judge say that they did a good many things out in this country that they would not do around here, they should be a hint that they were not a law-abiding people.
