IS VERY VIGOROUS

GENERAL BOOTH IS WONDERFULLY FASCINATING.

He Will Work on Sunday as Vigorously as Any Young Man—Three Services Arranged Warmly Welcomed.

Montreal, March 16.—Gen. Booth, of the Salvation Army, arrived here, today, from Toronto, where he has been holding a series of meetings. He is booked to address three large meetings in this city, to-morrow, the most important of which will be held in His Majesty's theatre. On Monday evening he has accepted an invitation from the board of trade to address that body on social subjects.

There were a number of officers of the local branch of the army at the station to meet the general. They were there at the time the train came, half-past seven, and waited patiently till the general got off. With him were the officers of his personal staff, Colo. Higgins and Kyle, Lieut.-Colo. Pagnino and Gaskin, Brig. Powell and Commissioner Coombs. After a short and informal reception the general proceeded at once to the Windsor hotel, where he will stay during his visit to this city.

NINE WERE DROWNED.

Thrown Into the Water By Great Explosion.

Forbach, Germany, March 16.—An explosion of fire damp, in the coal mine at Kleinrosseln, near here, last night, caused the death of sixty-five miners, and the injury of twelve others. Three are missing.

Thrown Into Waters.

Wheeling, W.Va., March 16.—Nine persons were killed in an explosion and drowning in the flood of the Ohio river, here, about 10.30 o'clock this morning. The accident occurred at the plant of the Warwood Pottery, on the north side, which is surrounded by water from six to eight feet deep. The explosion was followed by fire which nearly destroyed the plant.

Many Miners Killed.

Searles, Ribensh, Prussia, March 16.—Twenty-two miners were killed, this morning, at Gerhard coal mine. A cable broke and the miners plunged down several hundred feet in a shaft.

Two Men Receive Sentence at Smith's Falls.

Smith's Falls, Ont., March 16.—For stealing from cars of the G.T.R. and C.P.R., James Joliet and Harry Greene, arrested here last week, were sentenced by Magistrate Sparham. Joliet got two months and Green two years. Lebrillon, another suspect, was acquitted.

THE CHICAGO FLYER.

Ran Into An Open Switch—Many Injured.

Detroit, Mich., March 16.—The Chicago flyer, on the G.T.R., due here at 7.45 a.m., ran into an open switch, at seven o'clock, at Bancroft, and twenty persons are reported to have been injured. The engine and front car are said to be fatally scalded. The train was running two hours late when the accident happened.

Decision Of Trustees.

Ottawa, March 16.—Trustees Foran, of the Stanley cup, has decided that "Hod" Stuart and Riley Hersh can play for Wanderers, in Stanley cup games. They have played in all the games that have placed Wanderers in a position to play for the cup. They should have been protected before the championship games started and are in an entirely different position to the Ottawa players, who would have been in Kenney's team. Thus ends the decision of the trustees.

Burial Of Ex-President.

Pent Sur Seine, France, March 16.—The funeral of Ex-President Casimir Perier took place here, yesterday, in the presence of a representative of President Fallieres, Ex-President Loubet, Premier Clemenceau and the other cabinet officers. Recovers This Sum Against Insurance Company.

London, March 16.—The suit by Captain Hon. H. W. H. Beresford and his wife, an actress, who is professionally known as Miss Kitty Gordon, against the Accident Insurance company, was concluded, yesterday, in the King's bench division. Their claim was for $5,000, the value of a fur coat which disappeared from Mrs. Beresford's trunk, while she was returning from an American tour. Judgment was given for Captain and Mrs. Beresford for $5,000 and costs.

PANIC IN MONTREAL.

Mr. Rykert Hard Hit, But Will Continue. Montreal, March 16.—It was learned that Mr. Rykert will not be forced to the wall as a result of the stock panic. He was badly hit, but secured his seat on the Exchange, and this will enable him to tide over the present crisis. He expects to resume business in a short time. Numbers of other brokers suffered heavy losses, and some bucket shops had close calls, but so far none have suspended payment.

Rogue And Robbery.

Paris, March 16.—Two policemen observed an abnormally stout man being helped along by two friends in the Rue Lefevre today, and as he seemed to be in great pain, the officers advised his being taken to hospital. At the policemen's first words the man's companions took to their heels, while he collapsed on the pavement. The police helped him up, and found that he had sixty feet of copper cable wound under his vest. He proved to be an escaped convict named Lalune, and had stolen the cable.

DEAR SIR.

Many thanks for your Company's check to my Bro. Wm. Lacey No. 42,265, which is an excellent result insuring to-morrow, the 17th inst. London, March 9.—The king abroad, and the Lent is on, has almost decided of its aristocratic resort of the continent.

The Italian Riviera is becoming increasingly popular with English and few places have gone in favor than San Remo.

Canes is, as usual, crowded with the English. One of the popular amusements here, next to the celebrated Municipal Casino, is the adopted it, it offers worth having or seeing over four hours. Indeed, if the night goes on in the way it has been, the hotel is not becoming as such a Cannes life as the Golf Club.

It is the more likely because a well-bred air about the guests, and at present, at all marked absence of the common to the public resort and Monte Carlo.

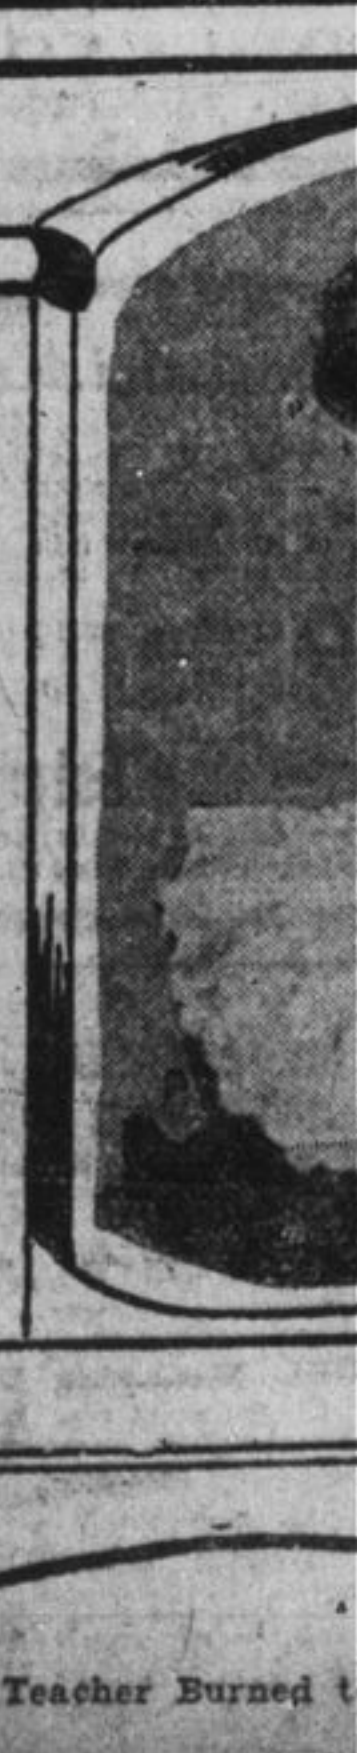

The Grand Duke Michael took twelve players from Nice on Saturday to play the Golf Club, The Duke of Devonshire, the Earl of Essex and many other people motored to the links.

Those who played for Arthur Paget, Gerald Page, Greville, Captain Holler Curran and Mr. Saunders.

The Nive team included ville Gordon, Hay Gordon, Mr. Deechamps and Mr. Tu won the singles by seven or five, and Cannes won the two matches.

Monte Carlo has not been a good season, though the been almost as crowded as before the engagement of the Visitors to over from Nice and Montone in large numbers, people stay for long itself.
