MUSIC DRIVES AWAY RATS.
Rodent With Bell Collar Rids Factory of Relatives.
South Norwalk, Conn., March 19.—The ingenuity of C. Buck Gorham in placing a metal collar with pendant bells on it on the neck of a rat has succeeded in ridding the large plant of the Automatic Machinery company at East Norwalk of an army of rats that infested it. The company has paid the inventor a reward of $75, which is offered to any one who would drive away the rodents.

Had a Cerebral Attack.
Brussels, March 19.—Notwithstanding official denials, private enquiry confirms the report that King Leopold had a cerebral attack a few days ago after which he was, for some time unconscious. It is now announced that his majesty will come home much earlier than was expected.

LEGISLATION
Not To Be Introduced Re Boundaries, AT THIS SESSION
RATES WAS MATTER FOR COMMISSION.

Female Employees of the Railway To Benefit in the Provident Fund—The Lumber Combine Committee Hears Considerable Evidence.
From Our Own Correspondent.
Ottawa, March 19.—There was not much doing in the commons, yesterday, the discussion for the most part being upon the western lands bill. The premier announced that in view of his expected early departure for the colonial conference in London, it was not expected that legislation would be introduced this session, providing for an extension of the boundaries of Manitoba.

REDUCTION OF RATES.
It is pretty certain that Mr. Ald. Toye, as chairman of the Light and Power committee, will advise lowering the gas and electric rates to the ordinary consumer before making any arrangement with regard to lowering the price for individual lighting. The individual citizen-consumer will have the first consideration. At the first meeting of the city council in April, the question of light and power will probably be discussed. The reduction will not likely go into effect until July 1st.

NO PARDON FOR HIM
And He Will Lose His Citizenship Thereby.

SENATOR BURTON.
Washington, March 19.—The efforts to get a pardon for ex-Senator Burton have all failed, and they may as well give it up. His term of imprisonment expires on the 22nd, and the ex-senator and his friends wanted him released to citizenship and to the eligibility to office, of which his sentence deprives him, but the president is obdurate and relentless. He thinks that instead of his sentence being shortened it should have been longer, and he would make it longer if he could. Ex-Senator Burton is deprived of the right of ever holding office again.

THE MODUS VIVENDI
HOPED QUESTION WILL SOON BE SETTLED

At the Coming Colonial Conference—The Remarks Made Over the Disturbance in Newfoundland By the Terms Made With the United States.
London, March 19.—The unionist papers are shocked to learn that Mr. McNamara, the parliamentary secretary of the local government board, and one of the Canadian members of the House of Commons, has joined the London branch of the Unionist Irish League. They censoriously remark that this is the first time any member of a British ministry has joined a militant Irish Nationalist organization and they seem to auger dangerous consequences.
