In Town.

London, March 191—A young woman told a policeman who was on duty at Eton College, yesterday, that she had lost her way. She could not remember anything about herself. She was taken to Slough Workhouse, and there a bottle, containing a little medicine and bearing the label of a firm in Shephard's Bush, was found in her possession.

It was afterward ascertained that she was Adelaide Gallimore, aged with the conservative candidate against was a flowed an attack of syncope from the effects of which he died.

R. H. McElroy, of Carp, was elected to fill the vacancy in Carleton county for the Ontario legislature. The seat was contested by him as the official conservative candidate against was Adelaide Gallimore, aged
