Did As He Was Told. A solicitor of many years ago, who had a large practice at the Old Bailey, London, in his time, instructed his client in a complacent, easy-going manner to keep every time his counsel, per the course of his address for the defence to the jury, hit the desk in front of him with his fist.

Unfortunately, the barrister, in a moment of forgetfulness, hit the desk in front of him with his fist, and the youthful prisoner, according to his instructions, at once burst out blubbing.

It was in those earlier days when the pianist was a professor at the Warsaw conservatory, and the scene was the home of the Polish poet, Swietochowski, who had just expressed his opinion that no living composer could compare in beauty and simplicity with Mozart.

The Paragraph Pulpit Unitarian REV. C. W. GIBSON, OTTAWA

The Largeness of Liberalism. The largeness of liberalism in religion is not to be reckoned by the amount of its surface, like which appears on the surface. Like which, the amount exposed on the top is only an indication of the fact that much more lies beneath and out of sight.

A Personal Favor. The late Thomas Nolan, a well-known member of the bar of New York, was once retained as counsel for a poor widow named Mulcahy.

A PESTIFEROUS GERM. Burrows Up the Scalp Into Dandruff and Saps the Hair's Vitality.

People who complain of falling hair as a rule do not know that it is the result of dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite burrowing up the scalp as it digs down to the roots, which the hair is fed in the scalp.
