The Prairie, of Calgary, which has Miss Annie Merrill, formerly of Picton, as its clever little editress, is out in Easter dress, with a delightful Easter poem, on the first page by Kathleen R. Wheeler. The only regrettable thing about the issue is that the editor herself gives us nothing from her pen in 'Lily' her father, the late Judge Merrill, from whom she inherits the abilities which she possesses. Miss Merrill has a deep and full knowledge of nature in all her moods, in all her graces, and an article on the spring-time of the west, from her pencil would have enhanced much the value of her Easter pages.

S. J. KILPATRICK INJURED

In Runaway at Belleville—Three Ribs Broken. A runaway accident occurred, last night, in Belleville, in which S. J. Kilpatrick, proprietor of the Kingston marble works, was seriously injured.

Mr. Kilpatrick had been in Toronto, and having business in Belleville, he stopped off there yesterday evening. As is well-known the connection between the city and the station is made by bus and the accident occurred when about a mile from the hotel. Mr. Kilpatrick and number of other passengers were in the bus when the traces broke and the horses ran away, with the result that the passengers were all seriously injured, including Mr. Kilpatrick, who suffered injury about the face, head and hands, and in addition he had three ribs broken.

He remained in Belleville last night, and a hospital was erected to see that his injuries were not at all serious, or as he termed it "consisted of a few scratches." Mr. Kilpatrick arrived in the city by the one o'clock train this afternoon and was conveyed to his home on University avenue. Though he is not critically hurt, his injuries are such that he will be confined to his room for some weeks.

Two and a half hours of fun.

NON-JURY COUNTY COURT.

Portland Township Farmers Figure in Case. There is only one case on at the non-jury county court but it is attracting a good deal of attention, tracking a good deal of attention among the farmers in Portland township, both the plaintiff and defendant being farmers residing in that district.

The case is that of Edward Freeman, Jr., vs. John Moore, and the suit is entered for the sum of $163.50, balance plaintiff claims is due on a settlement for the renting of a farm. Several witnesses arrived in the city, Wednesday, to give evidence.

SPRING HILL MINES

Have Gone Out on Strike To-day. Halifax, N.S., April 3.—In accordance with the decision arrived at at a meeting, last night, when a secret ballot was taken on the question of a strike, resulting in a vote of three to one in favor. The miners at Spring Hill mines are idle to-day. Only the fan men, engineers and firemen remain at work. The trouble is over the refusal of a number of the men to join the P.W.A.

A PERSONAL MATTER.

How English M.P. Dealt With Charges Against His Honor. London Daily News. Sir H. Marks, the member for the Isle of Thanet, on the conclusion of questions in the House of Commons, was granted permission to make the following personal explanation:

'On the 26th of November last certain charges against me in reference to the conduct of my newspaper were brought before the house by means of a letter to Mr. Speaker. I informed the house that the charges had been made in my constituency during the past three years, and that the majority of the sections in the constituency had shown their opinion of them by twice returning me to parliament.

'The statement is now being made and widely circulated that, in violation of my pledge, I have allowed the matter to drop and take no action upon it. This, sir, is not the fact. The fact is that on the day after the question was raised by means of the assembly on the 27th of November, I put myself in communication with the local representatives of the party.

'Mr. Marks read his letter, which recapitulated the circumstances and unreservedly placed himself in the hands of the central council of the Thanet Conservative Association. The reply he received from the president stated that they were not taking any action for libel. "In 1904 we had the court of inquiry, in 1904 we had the election, and in 1906 we had the election, and on each occasion you came through the ordeal triumphantly. To ask you now to take action would be to stultify ourselves and to cause the electors of Thanet to be objects of ridicule. To put you to the expense of an election for the sake of sixteen nominalities would be too absurd. We investigated the new charge, and after a prolonged inquiry thoroughly and unanimously satisfied ourselves that it was utterly false."

'The council resolved: (1) That the question of Mr. Marks' fitness as a member of the House of Commons, raised in the letter to the Speaker, was purely one for the majority of the constituency, who twice returned him as their representative. (2) That this council is of opinion that Mr. Marks has done nothing since his election to forfeit the confidence of the constituency; that this council desires to place on record its unabated confidence in him, its high appreciation of his public services, and its entire satisfaction with him as the representative of the division in parliament.

'These resolutions, added Mr. Marks, were subsequently submitted to, and unanimously approved by the six local conservative associations in the constituency, and communicated to Mr. Speaker, and the press. They accurately represent the considered opinions of those who sent me here.'

IRELAND ONLY VIRTUOUS.

England and France Slipping London, Down Hill. London, April 2.—Never before has Father Bernard Vaughan been so bitter in his condemnation of society as he was yesterday in the fourth of his Lenten discourses, which he is delivering at the beautiful church of the immaculate Conception, in Farm street.

"Is it true," demanded the preacher, "that with the exception of certain towns in Ireland, all the big towns in the United Kingdom are on the down grade? Ireland still gives the empire pure women and brave men.

"If England and Ireland were weighed in the balance before God, it would be a bad day for England. "England and France, in this entente cordiale embrace, are slipping down a slimy decline, and the end, if we do not rouse ourselves, must be the bottomless pit."

A Transfer.

During a Lenten lecture on the poor, Jacob A. Riis said: "The slums of New York, when I first came to know them as a police reporter, were disheartening, indeed. To clean them seemed as hopeless as cleaning an Augean stable. It was like the case of a slum boy whom I heard about the other day. "Jackie," said this boy's mother, "your face is fairly clean, but how did you get such dirty hands? " "Washing my face," said the boy."

Working Indoors Causes Anaemia Chlorosis or anaemia is simply thinness of blood. If combined too much indoors, anaemia develops, because the lungs are insufficiently supplied with oxygen, and the blood is consequently ill-nourished and half-strengthened. But there is a cure! Dr. Hamilton has solved the problem in his famous pills of Mandrake and Butternut; as a blood enricher their equal is not known. All the functions upon which life depends are helped by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Richness and purity are instilled with wonderful promptness into the vital fluid. Healthy color supplants the pallid, ashen face. Better appetite, strong digestion and dreamless sleep are sure to follow, because of the increased blood supply furnished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Think it over. Will it pay you to look and feel half dead, to lack color and spirit, when all can be changed by Dr. Hamilton's Pills? Better act at once! Your case is more curable now than later on. Dr. Hamilton personally guarantees his pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Their merit is unquestioned. Thousands of anaemics they have cured and kept well. They will do just the same for you. Try Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box or five boxes for $1, and refuse any substitute.
