A WARM DISCUSSION OVER THE SALARIES OF CITY OFFICIALS.

Lively Session of Board of Works Over Applications of Assistant Engineer—Walks to Be Inspected.
Ald. Gaskin, the chairman, presided at the regular meeting of the board of works, yesterday afternoon, and also dealt with the applications of Assistant Engineer—Walks to be inspected.
A discussion arose over the watering of the streets. Ald. Kent asked why the watering carts had not been ordered out, and he was told by the chairman that the frost was not yet out of the ground.
Ald. Kent said that there were streets in the down-town section that were very dusty, and needed attention. A watering cart sent over these streets in the morning would be all that would be required. At this time of the year, the one trip would be sufficient.
It was the general opinion that the streets would have to be cleaned after the next rainfall.
The chairman said that the work would be done just as soon as the new weather set in for good, and the members cracked a smile, when he said that Rev. Mr. Hicks had stated in his weather forecast for April, that there would be a snow storm about the 4th of the month.
No action was taken in the matter. The members decided to make an inspection of the sidewalks this (Friday) afternoon. It is usual for the members of the board of works to make such an inspection at this time of the year. The chairman said that the members would take carriages, and start out on their junk at 1.30 p.m. It is the intention to visit three wards during the afternoon.
The engineer was given power to hire a man to assist in the taking of measurements on the streets, and he was also instructed to secure tenders for planks for street crossings.

D. Grimshaw wrote, complaining about city workmen having dumped some stone in front of his house on Place d'Armes, and asking that the place be cleaned. The stone will be removed, and Mr. Grimshaw will be notified of this effect.
H. H. Day asked permission to remove a tree, which is directly in front of his house, at 219 Bagot street.
Ald. Kent said that the tree should be removed, and a motion made by him, that the necessary permission be granted, was carried.

Salaries of Officers.
A very warm discussion took place over the increasing of salaries of city hall officials. The discussion came about as the result of the application made some time ago by R. J. McClelland, assistant city engineer, for an increase in salary, and which again came up for discussion before the meeting of the board of works, yesterday afternoon. Mr. McClelland is asking that his salary be increased from $750 to $1,000 per annum.
Ald. Kent informed the committee that at a meeting of the finance committee, held on Wednesday night, the question of salaries had been discussed, and that it had been decided that no increases would be given this year. He had been found that the revenue of the city would not stand for any increase in salary, and that the members had come to the conclusion that none would be granted Mr. McClelland.

The statement aroused Chairman Gaskin. He wanted to know what right the finance committee had in dealing with Mr. McClelland's application. The finance committee, he said, did not hold the council, but only provided the funds.
Ald. Kent said that the salary system in vogue at the city hall was wrong all the way through, and that it needed to be placed on a proper basis.
Chairman Gaskin said that he believed Mr. McClelland was worth a higher salary.
"I don't believe in throwing money away," said the alderman, "but I want to place myself on record as supporting this request for an increase in salary."
The chairman told Mr. McClelland having to work at night.
Ald. Hanley remarked that it was rather a high increase that Mr. McClelland was asking for. He thought that a smaller amount should have been asked.
"We're throwing away money every year," said Ald. Kent.
"This talk about city officials having to work at night is all a bogey," remarked Ald. Elliott, "and I say this in spite of truthful contradiction. I believe that if they did their work in the daytime they would not find it necessary to work at night. I do not think that any of the city officials are overworked. If they were like you and I, who have to make our own living, they would not find it necessary to work at night."
The chairman said that if the question of the salaries of all the civic employees was taken up he might move for the dismissal of two or three people around the city buildings.
"I would not ask for the dismissal of any person," said Ald. Elliott, "but what I do say is that this night work business is all a bogey."
Ald. Kent said that he had no greater friend than Mr. McClelland. They were boys together, and he had assisted Mr. McClelland to get his present position.
"But," said he, "I think Mr. McClelland is getting sufficient salary for Street Scraping Begun.

The street scraper was out for the first time this morning. It is going on with all possible speed. All the streets have to be scraped and a work will occupy at least two weeks. The rain of last night made scraping possible. Without it, the roads would have had to remain as they were until wet.

AT THE POLICE COURT.
A Local Scavenger Fined By the Magistrate.
In the police court this morning, Robert Reeves, scavenger, was fined $2 and costs, with the option of ten days in jail, for dumping ashes on the Mills property on Earl street. The case was before the court several weeks ago, but was adjourned for further evidence. It was shown that Reeves had dumped the ashes on the property without having received any instructions to do so, and the magistrate remarked that it was rather unusual for a city scavenger to be mixed up in a case of this kind.

Help From Kingston.
Among the contributors to Muskegon Consumptive Sanatorium last year were these Kingstonians: $20, C. A. Macpherson; $10, W. J. Crothers; $6 each, B. W. Robertson, Ireland Irothome, J. G. Spinks, J. C. C. Almon, Rev. W. R. Tandy, Miss Ella Tandy, Rev. John Fairlie, James McCulla, Davis Dock company, W. H. Reid, S. Rough-ton, a well-wisher.

Had Wide Experience.
Hon. H. Eason Young, M.P., the new provincial secretary of British Columbia, was born at Chateaugay, P.Q., and educated at Kingston. In 1883 he graduated from Queen's university with the degree of bachelor of arts, after which he took the medical course at McGill. Then he spent a year and a half in England in post-graduate studies. Upon his return he went to St. Louis, Mo., where he practised his profession, until attracted by the notoriety of discovery in Atlin. He went to the latter place in 1901, and has since resided there. He was elected member for Atlin.

A Reason.
There is a reason for all things and there is a good reason why last Saturday by far surpassed any day we ever had for the selling of hats. The men of Kingston have got to know that nowhere else can they get such new, noble and exclusive styles and they like our unmatchable values. Ask to see the Delmar, the young man's derby, Campbell Bros., the style centre for men's hats.

A Real Help Meet.
A recent Kingston bride is a real help to her hubby, and not the least in travelling. The first hotel halted at on the honeymoon tour was a leading one of Toronto. The bride advanced to the register and wrote her new name on one line, and that of her husband on the next line below, while the dumpy groom stood by in ardent admiration. That bride active lady could safely be entrusted with the hotel, a family and the franchise.

Small Chimney Blast.
At 9:15 o'clock last evening the firemen were called to 179 Jones street, where a chimney blaze was reported. The firemen put out the blaze with the assistance of a Babcock extinguisher, without any damage to the property.

Was Successful Tenderer.

Two Popular Hats.
Cartier's and Wilkinson's famous hats, $2 and $2.50, are to be had in Kingston only at Campbell Bros., the style centre for men's hats.
Frosted, Brock street, has received three cases of imported coats for his order clothing department, consisting of Scotch and English tweeds, serges, chevots and vicunas. A great variety of them to choose from.
Two thousand vessels of all descriptions disappear every year.

R. M. C. MINSTRELS

A MOST AMUSING SHOW AT THE COLLEGE.
The Choruses Were Tunesful, the Costumes Very Cleverly Got Up, the Jokes Fresh, and the Hits and Skits Good.

"Lazily, lazily, drowsily, drowsily," came the words, very full and pleasant of sound and white, the old royal standard, and a huge ensign. The curtain drawn aside a semicircle of scarlet, white, and black, and black, very black faced and handsome youth, about thirty in number, were seen, with the end men, and the minstrel show at the Royal Military College began. It was all clever, and most amusing, from the first joke at the beginning to Mr. Brannigan's airship at the close.
All the choruses were very sweet, and some of the solos were sung by voices that were very full and pleasant. After the usual jokes, and they were funny jokes, a most amusing skit was given, the principal characters being a polo pony of varying attainments, a horse, a dog, a cat, a pig, and a man, and a very genuine terror of equestrianism, and a somewhat facetious and shrewd groom.
Very clever, too, was the take-off on the melocholic roman American and English boxers will be fought in England on April 22nd. Al Belmont, a Boston featherweight, will meet Owen Moran, and Sam Langford, a negro, welterweight, of Boston, will box "Tiger" Smith.
Walworth had two falls during the course of his paced race of one hour at the Velodrome d'Alvir, Paris, on Sunday. In spite of this he won, beating P. Ginguard by 250 yards, with Nat Butler, of America, and Brun, of France, third and fourth.
While the Yale baseball team was returning from Georgetown Field, where it met the Washington College team, Billy Eash, the famous outfielder of the Cleveland Americans, and at the present time coach of the Yale team, was struck in the left eye by a missile thrown by a street urchin, and he may lose his sight.

One of the most unique events of the Ottawa Capitals' English tour will be the presentation to the three sons of the Prince of Wales of lacrosse sticks. These are being made at President Tandy's mill, and will be of regulation juvenile size. Each will be enclosed in a neat case of bird's-eye maple, adorned with silver maple leaves, and suitably inscribed. At the time of the present Prince of Wales' Canadian visit he was presented with a couple of the Capital players' sticks.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
The Levdon Amusement Company is the Attraction.
The Levdon Amusement company made its first appearance at The Grand Opera House, last evening. There was a very fair audience, who were much pleased with the entertainment. The high-class production. The light was clear, with a total absence of flickering, which caused the illustrated pictures to be seen in a most advantageous manner. The principal ones were "The Dog," "Coney and His Goo," an affair of honor, "The Murder on the Train," with the great tunnel scene, "Lady Macbeth's Black Room," which caused much laughter, "Romeo and Mandy at Coney Island," country cousins having the time of their lives; "Empire State Express," and magnificent scenes from Frenchville, the photograph of which was a fine piece of work. Mack Arless, the funny little Dutch man, sang several comic songs, which were repeatedly applauded. Mercedes Desmond, it was much to be regretted, was unable to appear owing to temporary illness, as she is a singer of ability. There will be a change of programme to-night. The company will return to-night and will give a matinee to-morrow afternoon.

COBALT NOT IDEAL.
Has Bad Water, Smallpox, Typhoid and Blackflies.
W. H. Brooks, the Kingston wrestler, is not very favorably impressed with the not so good town of Cobalt. Mr. Brooks says that though money can be freely made there are several drawbacks which will always be the result of these is the lack of good drinking water, which is imported in barrels and sold at so much a quart. At this season of the year small-pox and typhoid fever are very common and in the summer the black flies and other insects make life unbearable.
As a sporting country, Mr. Brooks says Cobalt is the best in Canada. Mercedes Desmond, it was much to be regretted, was unable to appear owing to temporary illness, as she is a singer of ability. There will be a change of programme to-night. The company will return to-night and will give a matinee to-morrow afternoon.

CONCERT GIVEN BY QUEEN ST. CHURCH.
Rehab Tandy, of Toronto, Was Assisted By Local Talent—The Programme.

The concert given in the City Hall, last night, under the auspices of the Queen Street Methodist church, was a fine affair. There was a good attendance, and the programme was of high merit, and one that delighted everyone present. Rehab Tandy, tenor, of Toronto, was present for the occasion, and he was assisted by local talent, consisting of the Queen street male quartette, composed of John Shea, T. Rutherford, Ross Bradley, W. Manly, and Miss Mignon, and Norma Telgmann, violinists, Miss Singleton, pianist. Mr. Tandy's solos were given in excellent voice, and he was greeted with warm applause. The Misses Mignon and Norma Telgmann, are general favourites with Kingston audiences, and their selections proved a rare treat. The Queen street male quartette rendered several fine selections.
The programme included the following numbers:
Piano solo, Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 2 (Liszt), Miss Singleton; vocal solo, Recit. and Air, "Lead One Your Aid" (La Reine de Saba) Gounod, Rehab Tandy; quartette, "Annie Laurie, (Gibbel), Queen street male quartette, vocal solo, "My Queen" (Blumenthal), Rehab Tandy; violin solo, Fantaisie Ballet (Berlioz), Miss Mignon Telgmann; vocal duet, "Alma As the Night," (Gottel), Messrs. Shea and Bradley; vocal solo—(a) "Hark! Hark The Lark"; (b) "Who is Sylvia" (Schubert); (c) "Cantone La Donna e Mobile" (Regoleto) Verdi, Rehab Tandy.
Part II—Male quartette, "Lucky Jim" (Parks), male quartette; vocal solo, "Land of Hope and Glory" (Elgar), Rehab Tandy; violin duet, orature "Leo" (Telgmann), Misses Mignon and Norma Telgmann; vocal duet, "On to the Field of Glory" (Belesario) Donizetti, Rehab Tandy and Ross M. Bradley; male quartette, "Good Night," (Dudley Buck), male quartette, "God Save the King."

SPORTING NOTES.
Interesting Items on Various Sporting Topics.
England's hockey team gained another fine win in the international match against Ireland at Bromley, scoring five goals to nil.
Seattle, Wash., dispatch says: The Arctic Brotherhood has raised $5,000 to send the Nome basketball team on a tour of the United States.
Lajoie's guide estimates that a last base runner travels at half the speed of a race horse, while the ball thrown by the catcher to intercept him travels at the rate of eighty miles an hour from the plate to second.
Baird, the Ottawa hockey player, will probably be found in the west when the ice forms again. Baird made a great hit at Portage and the western team will certainly land him unless the Ottawas get there ahead of them.
Two boxing bouts between American and English boxers will be fought in England on April 22nd. Al Belmont, a Boston featherweight, will meet Owen Moran, and Sam Langford, a negro, welterweight, of Boston, will box "Tiger" Smith.
Walworth had two falls during the course of his paced race of one hour at the Velodrome d'Alvir, Paris, on Sunday. In spite of this he won, beating P. Ginguard by 250 yards, with Nat Butler, of America, and Brun, of France, third and fourth.

AND FOR LADIES, TOO.
When Dealer Does Not Have Them Send For Catalogue.
There are a few stores among the 325 Slater shoe agencies, where the Slater women's shoes cannot be bought. In such cases the lady who desires the incomparable shoe may easily get it by sending direct to the Slater Shoe company, Montreal, for a catalogue. All sizes and widths are made in a hundred of the best styles.
The same fine workmanship and cultured design is evidenced in the finish of the ladies' shoes as that which has made the name "Slater" a synonym for fine footwear. The Slater shoe for men was first perfected, but the Slater shoe for ladies has been on the market for years, and each year grows wider its circle of admirers.
