The action of the Saskatchewan gi-lature in seating Samuel J. Donaldson as member for the Prince Al bert district gives honor and dignity to that assembly. It will be remembered that Mr. Donaldson was robbed of his right to sit in the legislature by bold and systematic ballot manipulation. For these scoundrelly actions, by the way, no one has been adequately punished, and the courts revealed a singular inability to remedy the gross injustice to which Mr. Donaldson was subjected. Now, however, the legislature has intervened, and has declared Mr. Donaldson's right to sit for the constituency for which he was elected. It is not necessary quire too closely into the motives consider how certain was Mr. Donald son's re-election for Prince Albert. It trast to the precedents which other Plucky Girl's Success. She was told that it was altogether too difficult, and was useless to try to do the work as there were too many obstacles overcome. She was persistent, however, and was allowed to try. She surprised those who had tried to dis pert. At a recent competition in Virginia City she showed herself to the best operator in the exchange, and easily surpassed all competitors. What of that, did you ask? Only this: Susie Davis is blind and has been blind all light.
