A Preparation Discovered That Will Destroy the Dandruff Germ.
For some time it has been known that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp into little white flakes, and by sapping the vitality of the hair at the root, causes falling hair, and of course, usually baldness. For years there have been all kinds of hair stimulants and scalp tonics on the market, but there has been no permanent cure for dandruff until the discovery of a preparation called Newbro's Herpicide, which destroys the dandruff germ. Destroy the cause, the effect will cease to exist. Kill the dandruff germ and you'll have no dandruff, no itching scalp, no falling hair. Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50c. and $1. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. G. W. Mahood, special agent.

THE SPORT REVIEW

N. L. U. TO ENCOURAGE THE JUNIORS

Hod. Stuart Will Not Go to Ottawa—Notes About the Baseball Teams in Training.

Rube Kissinger has a new curve that he calls the teetotaller, because it never takes a drop.

The Stratford banquet and presentation to the champion hockey team is billed for Thursday, April 18th.

The Perth Crescents will have one of the best lacrosse teams in the country this year. They are champions of humour, to make the talk reminiscent of all the better. With loving care the tootsie-roots, the comical Dutchmen, and the like, and holders of the City lacrosse trophy.

There is no truth in the story that Hod Stuart is going to Ottawa to play hockey and football. He has signed to play with the Montreal Wanderers again next winter.

Most ball players return from their training trips with an increased respect for the great and most palatable thing—eggs!—and a desire to have them again.

The decision of the N.L.U. to encourage the juniors, was one of the best they have ever given. The juniors are worthy of encouragement and it is to be hoped that they will boom the game this year.

Charles Comiskey tells of a star player down in the Mexican City League, who has not made an error in five years.

He is one of the dandies of the town, and drives to the ball park in silk hat and Prince Albert.

There is trouble ahead for the Newark Eastern League Club. The Atlantic League has been formed and Newark is to have a team in it when the season opens, and it will in all probability hurt the attendances at the Eastern League grounds there.

ON FATHER RHINE.

Most Enjoyable Tour Under Rev. Mr. Langfeldt.

In the absence of the chairman and vice-chairman, Mr. Penn and Mr. Lampfield, R. J. Carson, a member of St. George's Men's Club, took the chair and introduced Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, of Peterboro, to a good audience in the synod hall, on Friday night.

Langfeldt, with true patriotism, spoke of his good fortune in being born a German, and then took his hearers with him for a tour of the lovely rivers of the Waterland, the Neckar and the Rhine. Mr. Langfeldt spoke charmingly, with loving care, and brilliant and witty views to advantage. The scenes at Coney Island and the incidents in connection with it caused much amusement and laughter. Mercedes Desmonde sang three pretty songs, which were loudly applauded. They were: "Sweet Adeline," "You're Mama's Boy," "Just Between You and Me," and "Old Sweethearts."

MacLennan, the comic Dutchman, sang two songs, in character, which were well received. Miss Addie Loneran played the accompaniment and several solos. There will be a new programme of songs and pictures to-night. The matinee this afternoon was largely attended.

"When Harvest Days Are Over."

The London Free Press says: Felix Haney, in "When the Harvest Days Are Over," painted a big hit at the theatre. The story is about the trials and tribulations of a filial young man and his sweetheart, an obedient daughter. Felix Haney, remembered for his excellent work in "Way Down East" as the country boy, "Hi Holler," has a part, that just fits his particular line of comedy. He keeps the house in an uproar. Mr. Haney is probably the best comedian in the country in this style of comedy. Mr. T. Moore, Mr. Allen, Miss McKittrick and Miss Parker were all good in their several roles, and gave excellent support.

AN INSURANCE CASE.

Judgment Given in Favor of Kingston Plaintiff.

Pence vs Northern Life Assurance Company—Judgment at Oswego Hall (E.B.R.) in action tried without a jury at Kingston by Justice Mabie. Action to recover from defendant $2,000, the amount of two insurance policies issued by them upon the life of George Zeigler, Jr., assigned to plaintiff. Zeigler died on Nov. 1, 1906. The first policy, $1,000, defendant contended that it lapsed by reason of non-payment of the premium due on Nov. 1, 1905, and the policy was in full force on the 8th November, 1906. The second policy, for $1,000, was dated 31st March, 1903. The premium, said to be payable on the 20th March, 1906, was not paid. The only question involved as to this policy was whether the premium was payable in advance or whether the insured had the whole year after 20th March, 1906, to pay it, under the terms of the policy. Held that it would be unfair to declare this policy forfeited under the construction of the contract contended for by defendant. Judgment for plaintiff for $2,000, less the current year's premium on the second policy, with interest from date of writ of summons and costs. J. L. Whiting, K.C., for plaintiff. T. H. Purdon, K.C., for defendant.

Movings Pictures and Vaudeville Performance.

There was a very fair audience at the Grand Opera House, last night.

It is arsenic products and their use in which was largely impressed with the trial.

The medical experts at the trial therefore had to decide whether the poison found in the exhumed remains had penetrated the bodies from the earth outside the coffin or whether it had been administered during life.

YELLOW MARRIAGES.

Toronto Chinese Church Pastor Must Answer For Them.

Toronto, April 6.—Rev. Robert Brown, pastor of the First Chinese church, will appear in police court to show cause why he should solemnize marriages.

The attention of the morality department was drawn to him when he married a white girl to a Chinaman last week ago. Last night he married Chin Chen and Ida Hops, at the home of Charlie Hing, a church street laundry man. In police court, yesterday, Ida Hops and her friends, Jessie Stocks and Jennie Goldbeck, were charged with vagrancy.

Rev. Mr. Brown had an interview with the chief inspector in which he asserted that he had every right to solemnize marriages. To do so without being ordained is an offence under the Ontario statutes. Some time ago the scope of the act was widened to include all above the rank of captain in the Salvation Army as persons qualified to perform the marriage ceremony. Rev. Mr. Brown will, a subscriber here, be commenced missionary work.

STAYED AT POLICE STATION.

Strangers Looking For Work on Boats.

Two strong, sturdy-looking men were guests at the police station, Friday night. They were without money, and asked to be allowed to remain overnight. They arrived in the city from the west yesterday and stated that they had come to get jobs fishing on the lakes. One stated that his boat was in Halifax, and the other claimed London, Eng., as his home, saying that he had only been out in this country a short time.

Timber In North Hastings.

Any one who thinks that the timber is nearly all cleared out of the country should take a trip over the C.O.R. and between Bancroft and Millbrook where he will see something that will quickly disabuse his mind of any such delusion.

At present the timber on the market and cordwood are awaiting shipment, and some splendid pine can be seen.

When the road is completed to Maynooth another fine tract of timber will be opened up immediately.

It was suggested that a juvenile societly organized among the scholars of the various Sabbath schools, and it was decided to form such a society

as soon as possible. The meeting adjourned till Tuesday evening, at the Whig office.

A WOMAN POISONER
SENTENCED TO DEATH FOR CRIMES

Her Mother-in-Law and Sister-in-

Law Were Two of Her Victims

—She Used Arsenic in a Cunning Way.

Berlin, April 5.—Frau Ernestine

Feige, of Grauen, near Hirschberg,

in the Silesian mountains, has been con-named Janischek, and a woman named

Brueckner, who had lived with her as lodgers in the years 1903 and 1906.

She was also charged with poisoning in four other cases, two of her alleged victims being her husband and sister-in-law, but at those four cases were held to be uncertain, as to whether the exhumed bodies showed traces of poison.

Frau Feige has been called the Silesian Lucretia Borgia, and the trial revealed that she had many points in common with the famous Roman poisoner. In all the cases it was the desire to become possessed of her vic-
