LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Service At The Late Fire. Kingston, April 13.—(To the Editor): I see that great and just praise was very deservedly tendered to our efficient fire brigade services exhibited, at the late Kelly's & Birch fire, which I thoroughly endorse, but I think that that commendation should have been carried further and been made to include our so less efficient police force, who were equally alert on that occasion and who speedily gave a prompt and early alarm of the fire and adjoining property on that occasion, and but for which greater loss would have been sustained.—PRAISE TO WHOM PRAISE IS DUE.

MAKE BELIEVE.

J. W. Foley. Let's dream, like the child in his playing. Let's change the things round us by saying. They're things that we wish them to be. And if there is sadness or sorrow. Let's dream till we dream a day. Let's learn from the children and borrow. A saying from childhood—'Let's play.'
