A BOY ARRESTED.

Placing An Obstruction on I.C.E. Track.

Sussex, N.B., April 15.—Charlie Burlock, aged fifteen, was captured by detectives for placing an obstruction on the I.C.E. track near Hume Square, on Monday last. The C. P. R. Pacific express struck the obstruction, but no cars were derailed. The train was stopped, however, and the matter investigated. The lad found a piece of iron crescent shape, which he looked over the rail. He denied it at first, but later admitted that he put it on but did not think it would do any harm, as he had often seen boys put lead on the track for trains to flatten.

FUNERAL TO-DAY.

The Late Mrs. E. E. Horsey Buried at Cataract.

The funeral of the late Mrs. E. E. Horsey took place at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The remains lay amid beautiful flowers at her late residence, Frontenac street, where the service, conducted by Canon Loucks, assisted by Rev. E. S. Foran, was held. A few of the most beautiful floral tributes were from the following friends and relatives: Pillow, from E. E. Horsey; wreath from John Moxon, and family; wreath, Capt. E. Horsey and family; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Haro, Picton; pillow, H. H. Gilderlove; anchor, Bay of Quinte Navigation company; wreath, St. Luke's Sunday school; wreath, officers of the steamer Albatra; spray, Miss N. Horsey; spray, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Linton; crown, a friend; spray, young lady friends; wreath, J. P. Hanley; wreath from Ethel and Eva Brightman, two little tots from Mrs. Horsey's Sunday school class.

The pall-bearers were near relatives of the family and also the chief mourners. They were: Melville Horsey, Ottawa; Arthur Horsey, Montreal; Rev. H. I. Horsey, Ottawa; Thomas Moxon, Binghamton, N.Y.; Herbert Moxon, Picton, and Dr. Elliott, Detroit, Mich.

The remains were laid at rest in the family plot at Cataract.

HE WAS A HORRIBLE BRUTE.

Put Infant Into Hot Oven—Filled It With Whiskey—Weighed Five Pounds.

Montreal, April 16.—George Blanchette was arrested, early to-day, on the heretofore unheard charge of placing his five-months-old child in a basket and then putting it in a hot stove oven. It is also alleged that Blanchette piled the infant with whiskey until it had convulsions. The case has been taken up by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Women and Children, on the complaint of the prisoner's mother-in-law, on the plea that his wife was afraid to make a charge against Blanchette. The prisoner is alleged to be a drunkard and more or less of a brute. The poor infant, which has been so abused, only weighs five pounds.

FRONTENAC CHEESE BOARD.

The Inaugural Meeting Was Held on Thursday.

The Frontenac Cheese Board was this afternoon reorganized for the season at a meeting held in the Whig hall. There was a good attendance of members.

The president, J. McGrath, opened the proceedings and in doing so stated that he was pleased to see such a large attendance of members at the opening meeting. The past season had been an excellent one for the cheese business, and he had no doubt that the approaching season would be just as successful.

It was announced that the following factories, heretofore represented on the Brockville cheese board, would now be identified with the local board: Lattimer, Elginburg, Sunbury, Cold Springs.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, C. W. Langwith. First Vice-President, William Fawcett. Second Vice-President, F. Valleau. Secretary-Treasurer, W. Pillar. Marker, George Ratray. Directors—Wolfe Island, A. Hough; Kingston, W. Craig; Lobborough, Jas. Kelly; Howe Island, Thomas Prior; Portland, Thomas Leonard; Pittsburgh, John Keenan; Storrington, F. Ferguson; Hinchinbrook, J. E. Campbell; Oso and Odden, George Valleau. Auditors—Joseph McGrath and J. Keenan.

All the newly elected officers, made brief addresses thanking the members for the honor conferred upon them.

The following resolution, moved by W. Pillar, and seconded by W. Craig, was carried unanimously: "Resolved, that the Frontenac Cheese Board has heard with regret of the removal of D. J. Mackinnon, buyer, to British Columbia. Mr. Mackinnon was for several years a member of the board and one of its most active workers. The board desires to express to him its wish for his future prosperity."

J. A. Kerr was present at the board meeting as a representative of James Alexander, Montreal, and in feeling terms, referred to the good work of Mr. Mackinnon while a member of the board.

The following motion, moved by J. W. Murray, and seconded by Joseph McGrath, was also carried: "Resolved, that the Frontenac Cheese Board regret the retirement from the board of inspectors, of G. H. Robinson, Kingston, who for three years, performed valuable services as instructor to the different factories, and would respectfully petition the Eastern Ontario Dairywomen's Association to place him in the position of sanitary inspector."

The boarding of cheese was then proceeded with. The following factories boarded: White-Cataract, 30; Glenburie, 30; Long Lake, 63; Sunbury, 25; McGrath's, 35; Callias Bay, 53; total, 226.

Colored—Cold Spring, 62; Glenvale, 30; Keenan, 40; Bar View, 30; Model, 60; Rose Hill, 30; total, 242.

The bidding opened at 11c. by Mr. Alexander, and was gradually raised to 11 1/2c. by Mr. Kerr.

The sales were: Robert Thompson, Keenan & Sons, 40 boxes, Latimer, 63; McGrath's, 35, at 11 1/2c.; Mr. Kerr purchased Sunbury, 25 boxes, Bar View, 30 boxes; Glenburie, 30 boxes and Glenvale, 29, at 11 1/2c.

The board adjourned, to meet again on Thursday next, at 1:30 p.m.
