When you have a Bad Breath—Wake up!

WAKE UP! It's time to take a Cascaret.

—When the friend you speak to turns his face the other way.

—When your tongue is coated.

—When you have Heartburn, Belching, Acid Rising in throat.

—When Pimples begin to peep out.

—When your Stomach Gnaws or Burns.

—That's the time to check coming Constipation, Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

One single Candy Cascaret will do it if taken at the right minute, just when you first feel the need of it.

Do it now!

Cascarets don't Purge, nor Weaken, nor waste Digestive Juices in flooding out the Bowels, like Salts, Castor Oil, "Physics."

But, —they act like Exercise on the Muscles that shrink and expand the intestines, thus pushing the Food on Naturally to its Finish.

When your Bowel-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise to strengthen them, not "Physic" to pamper them.

Cascarets provide the bracing tone that is needed specifically by the Bowel-muscles.

Then carry the little ten-cent "Vest Pocket" box constantly with you, and take a Cascaret whenever you suspect you need it.

One Cascaret at a time will promptly cleanse a foul Breath, or Coated Tongue, thus proving clearly its ready, steady, sure, but mild and effective action.

Have the little 10c Emergency box of Cascarets constantly near you!

All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year, for six years past.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "C.C.C."

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets

Are just

for women

and contain just what every Sick and Run-down Woman Needs.

Do you know that distinguished physicians say that ninety per cent. of the ills of women result from your peculiar organism.

This should make clear to you the need and advantage of taking a medicine that contains uterine and female tonics.

You know, of course, that remedies made to sell to men as well as women do not contain these. They cannot.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women (not for men) contain them all, and you do not have to take our word for this. Chemists and physicians, whose standing makes their statements reliable, say that not one single medical ingredient of any value to women has been omitted from them.

What is the result? Simply this. When you buy a box of these tablets you get a remedy compounded just for your special needs, and one containing all that medical science can supply in this twentieth century to make you a healthy woman. What more could you ask?

And unless your experience should be different than that of other women, you need nothing more. If you don't feel as well as you would like to, try these tablets.

They Make Healthy Women.

A PRACTICAL JOKE

FOOLED BY SOMEBODY, ARMY MARCHES ON PARIS.

Three Thousand Enter French Capital and Cause a Sensation Among Officers.

Paris, April 20.—A detachment of soldiers was called out yesterday to protect Parisians against an imaginary strike under circumstances reminiscent of a comic opera.

Between, when the city was at peace and many Parisians were taking the air on the boulevards, 3,000 soldiers—infantry and cavalry—marched into Paris from Vincennes, halted on the Place de la Republique and the Place de la Bastille and then separating, marched to the police stations of the nearest districts.

The officer in command of each detachment saluted the district superintendent gravely, and told him he awaited orders. To say that the superintendents were perplexed is a mild expression. They thought they had been sought out by officers temporarily deranged by the Easter sun.

Each of them took his dilemma to M. Touhy, Director of the Municipal Police, and asked what was to be done to get rid of the soldiers, who stood their ground and refused to leave the police stations without instructions from headquarters.

M. Touhy was as puzzled as his subordinates, and presently the telephones at the prefecture of police and the ministries of the interior and war were madly ringing. M. Lepine, the police prefect, M. Clemenceau, the premier; General Piquart, the war minister, and the military governor of Paris all talking at the same time, and demanding each of the other what this display of military force meant.

Every one lost his head for the moment, but at five o'clock some one thought of sending the troops home, and this was hastily done.

General Piquart has opened an inquiry into the extraordinary affair, which has greatly mystified Parisians, who are inclined to regard it as a practical joke.

EVANGEL SERVICES

THAT OF LAST EVENING ONE OF THE BEST.

The Attendance Was Very Large—The Addresses Given as Usual; the Singing Was the Chief Attraction.

Last evening, Sydenham Street Methodist church was filled by eight o'clock, with an audience eager to hear the evangelists. Promptly at seven-thirty o'clock, Mr. Williamson and the choir opened the service of song. The singing of the Gospel songs was very much enjoyed. At eight o'clock, Mr. Cameron took charge of the service.

A large number of prayer requests were read and remembered in special prayer. After the announcements, Marjorie, the six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Reid, Barrie street, sang the "Sunbeam" song.

Mr. Ray spoke on "The Power of an Evil Habit." He called attention to the large place the question of power was occupying at the present time. Sources of energy were being exploited and developed. Waterfalls in Ontario and lanes in the west were being put to serve the interests of man. The same was true of mental power. Educationists were editing new textbooks and colleges were changing the courses of study that they might better develop intellectual power. The power of the soul was greater than all others, for by it men apprehended the things that never could be proved by mental processes. The power of an evil habit was predicted of Christ, friendship, and service in Him.

At the close of this address, the quartette sang "The Riches of Love," and Mr. Cameron followed with a stirring appeal on the words of Jesus to Nicodemus. With illustration and argument he urged those present to personalize the words of Jesus, and begin the new life. A large number responded to the appeal. The after service was very effective, almost all the audience remaining. By request, the quartette sang "The Beautiful Land," and Rev. Dr. Macgillivray closed by prayer one of the best services of the series.

GASOLINE CRANKS' CLUB

A Report of Their Meeting Given By One Who Was There.

"The Gasoline Cranks," a secret society lately organized in this city, had a meeting, last evening. The writer, who was secreted down in the "Glory Hole," is able to give an account of at least a portion of the proceedings. Several new members were duly initiated, but as death is the penalty for divulging the forms of ceremony, the obligation, signs, etc., the scribe withholds his hand until he gets enough money to buy a revolver to protect himself with. The president and his whippers called the club to order and stated that the brethren had been brought together for the purpose of initiating three lawyers, two doctors, a barn-yard mariner and a couple of locomotive works foremen. The ceremony was most impressive, if the blood curdling shrieks and prayers for mercy, after the evidence of its strenuousness.

After the initiation, the president stated he would be pleased to hear the brethren discuss the prospect for a successful motor-boat season. Three members rose at the same time, each one trying to catch the eye of the presiding officer, but this astute gentleman had no idea of having his eye caught, nor his glasses either, but as all three commenced to talk, and each on a different subject, he shouted to the husky secretary to cut off Brother Phelick's "gasoline" throttle Brother Bastowhemin's "Carburetor," and open the switch and cut out Brother Bohannon, the chief of the doctors present, and in less than time it takes to write it, the air was surcharged with the choicest assortment of brand new words, for use during the coming summer when their motors kick and refuse to go. The vice-president being a church member, and leader of a choir, very properly protested against such hot stuff as the doctor had dished up. When in the act of defending himself the medical man inadvertently placed his finger on the top of a live "spark plug," on one of the motors in the room, and as a result, five members of both engines opened up at a full "advanced spark" speed, the language used by the doctor having caused a "mixture" that no sensitive gasoline motor could ignore.

Quiet was at last restored, and the president wished it distinctly understood that he was bound to maintain order, and he required every member to bottle up his profanity for use when on the water. Brother Phelick then moved that as there was now an "Elk's club" in the city, this club should go one better, and call itself, "The Buffalo Club." Then three men and some to spare, as the secretary at once smelled a large quantity of money in Brother Phelick's move as a scheme to boom "Buffalo gasoline motor," denouncing it in very vigorous language, and wound up by declaring that he would withdraw his motion, which for the time restored quiet.

The president then announced a new feature he intended introducing in his gasoline yacht this season, and stated that he had bought a second-hand hand organ piano, formerly owned by a prominent Italian nobleman, that played it before the doors of the owner of the yacht Baby Grand, was of fine tuning and fixing it up, so as it could be played by attaching a belt from the fly wheel of his motor. The programme he would hand out each evening, when the band was not playing in the park, would consist of choice numbers, among which would be "The Protestant Boys" and "Wearing of the Green." The owner of the smallest gasoline motor boat in the fleet, said he was such an impulsive fellow, he thought he would include in the list, when the president frowned so sternly at him that one of the lenses in his spectacles cracked, and in a voice of thunder asked, "What is this?" "The Protestant Boys" you should have." This alleged joke was met with deadly silence, the company not seeing the point until next day. As it was now two o'clock, the meeting adjourned until next week.
