HE DID NOT WANT IT KNOWN

"If Henry Knew He'd Go to Prison." Cayuga, Ont., April 20.—At the Perkins murder trial, this morning, the chief witness was Mrs. George Carter, of Walkerville, Mrs. Perkins' sister. Mrs. Carter was accompanied by her husband, visited at Mrs. Carter's home last summer. Mrs. Carter said Mrs. Perkins asked her if she could obtain a doctor's order to buy some strychnine. Mrs. Carter gave her the address of a Detroit druggist. Mrs. Perkins said she did not want Henry (her husband) to know she was going to buy strychnine, as he would go crazy if he knew. While at Mrs. Carter's home Henry Perkins was ill and vomited. Mrs. Carter's evidence was corroborated by her daughter, Lillian.

ENDED HIS DAYS

A Lad Shot in Bowels Through Accident. Chatham, Ont., April 20.—As the result of the accidental explosion of a shot gun, last evening, Francis Barnard, 15 years old, of Walkerville, lost his life. In company with a seven-year-old brother he was shooting muskrats, in the Thames river, when the trigger of his gun, caught on an obstruction and the charge passed through his bowels. The boy died two hours later. Coroner Boyd deemed an inquest unnecessary.

Fine Rink Burned

Niagara Falls, Ont., April 20.—The large arch roller and ice rink, at the south end of the city, was completely destroyed by fire, this morning, with another large barn owned by Frank Dalton. Loss on rink, $15,000; loss on barn, $1,800. Loss on both partly covered by insurance. The rink was owned by a company.

Card of Condolence.

IT IS WITH EXTREME REGRET that the I. O. O. F. No. 78, Watertown is called upon to chronicle the death of one of its members, Bro. Alexander Costello, who died at Walkerville, Ont. In the death of Bro. Alexander Costello, this local has lost one of its oldest members and a most devoted and hardworking brother. It is with deep sorrow and sympathy that we express our sorrow over the great loss we have sustained. Local 252, of Kingston, has heartily sympathized with the widow and a kind and loving father and mother in their old age. It is sincerely hoped that God will be merciful to the bereaved and grant them the best of all worlds—permanently rest and happiness. Street W. DUFFIE, Local 252, T. F. ABOUT PEARL FISHING

PRECIOUS GEMS COME FROM EAST INDIAN ISLAND.

Found By Native Divers—Oysters are sold at auction and chasers may be lucky or unlucky in finding gems.

Flushed under the ocean comes news that in future the gem-chance, the Oriental pearl, will value in price like the diamond, also like the diamond will be by a powerful syndicate and give the public in small lots to keep price up to the highest possible. The pearl is undoubtedly the origin of adornment and was in probability the first gem worn by man; its use is as old as man almost every record of the dim misty past the pearl is referred to as the emblem of purity and so the Tears of Buddha, the Souls of Angels, often given in exchange for the fair white slave or the dusky black girl desired for the household of the wealthy Oriental, frequently ransom of a captive child or the of a human life. No matter if gem be dangling from the breast or in the throat of a society belle, folded oiled paper in the safe of a Lomber in the filthy leather bag of an trader its value is always known, it is probably the most frequented item in the world. On the East Indian islands, the pearl-producing oyster thrive...
