One grade only, that the best. McLaughlin has been our motto for thirty-eight years. His carriages are stylish, substantial and comfortable. They cost a little more than some others, but think of the comfort it is to know that when you go out driving your carriage is not going to break down before you get back. Then, too, they run easier, last longer, and are more attractive than cheaper rig. Get one and be in th fashion. For sale at 42 Princess St.

The premier of the United Kingdom will be, ex-officio, president of the imperial conference and the premiers of the colonies and colonial secretary will be ex-officio members The various governments will appoint other members but, with the except ion of the special confirmation of the conference, not more than two representatives of each government shall participate in the conference. Each government will have two yotes. A department of the colonial office is created with a permanent secretary staff which shall be charged with the duty of obtaining information for the use of the conference and dealing. tentatively, with such matters of general impartial interest as arise in the intervals between the conferences It was further decided that when mat ters arise requiring the consultation of two or more governments, which cannot conveniently be postponed until the next conference, a subsidiary conference may be held between es governments concerned The Earl of Elgin, secretary of state for the colonies, referring to the matter of military defence, putlined the general principles of an imperial or-ganization and the premiers concurred in his views. The premiers then explained the defence organization of their respective colonies and the extent to which the general organization uld be put into practice. The draft of a resolution creating a ceneral staff for the empire was tabled.
