FIRE ESCAPES NOT USED.

The laundry fire in Montreal, the other day, demonstrated that there may be fire appliances for the saving of life, and the people do not know how to use them.

They came out on the fire escape landing, at the third story, looked down into the street, and lost their wits.

The reflection follows that the fire escapes may, therefore, be neither ornamental nor useful.

Technical education is attracting wider attention. In the future there will be more mining, mechanical and electrical engineers, and fewer doctors and lawyers.

Queen's men expect great things from its school of pedagogy. It is hoped it is not to be loaded down with any of the weaknesses of the education department.

Delmas explains that it is a valet Thaw wants, not a counsel. Did not the late revelations bear out what Mr. Jerome contended for so strenuously, that the prisoner was really unable to direct his case?

JUST DODGING THE ISSUE. Mr. Ryan is taking it for granted that he will be the democratic candidate in the next election.

The reasoning is well-liked, and a contemporary, the Montreal Witness, hopes he will pursue it further and insist, if he be in a position to do so, that the democrats open their books and show who are contributors to the expenses and to what extent.

The Witness was disappointed in Mr. Borden of the Canadian opposition. "Just before the opening of the present session," it remarks, "he went up and down the country preaching electoral purity and urging publicity as the cure.

Both sides are committed to electoral reforms, and appear to be undecided as to how they are to be secured.

GOING BACK TO PALESTINE. The address of Rabbi Madola de Sole, to the Jews, last evening, was intended to revive their drooping spirits and to give them renewed interest in the Zionist movement.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS

Seeing Stars.

Toronto Telegram. The Montreal Star is a journal which seems to have no principles of its own and is always offering up other people's principles at the altar of a base expediency.

A Proper Butter-In.

Buffalo Times. That new animal, the goat-antelope, which has been added to the London Zoo, should possess the qualities of certain people who, having leaped in, are still able to jump out again.

A Sound Proposition.

Toronto Star. It has been demonstrated that salt water helps to make ash burn why not take George E. Foster down into the boiler-room of the House of Commons and let him do his crying there?

Law Asserts Itself.

Ottawa Journal. The New York state assembly has passed a bill providing for a flat rate of two cents a mile on all railroads in the state.

A Proper Kind of Worship.

Botany Bay Independent. As the clerics will not agree upon Bible worship in the schools, the politicians, it appears, have agreed upon introducing flag worship.

Investigate The Combines.

Toronto News. It is contended that it would be quite proper for the government to remove the duty on canned goods until the present trade combine ceases to exist.

A Serious Typhoid Epidemic in the Town. Pictou, April 23.—You had better send for the doctor, I think I am getting it. Going into his home, after being out in the garden.

SUDDEN PICTON DEATH.

Pictou, April 23.—You had better send for the doctor, I think I am getting it. Going into his home, after being out in the garden.

Mr. Ames, M.P.—referred to as a Y.M.C.A. young man, a Christian in politics—is unmercifully scored by the Montreal Star because of his endorsement of Mr. Fowler's slogan.

The Petewawa affair is being developed into a wonderful grievance. An ordinary appropriation, under the new, with due regard for the interests of all, is being construed into a case of "confiscation," "robbery," and assault on provincial rights!

The Montreal Star calls Mr. Ames to account for inviting Mr. Fowler to Montreal, and for endorsing him as "a straightforward and courageous man." The term does not fit the person who will say slanderous things and produce no evidence in support of them.

Mr. Shepley will act as counsel for the railway commission in the enquiry into the telephone business. Is there any conservative member of parliament interested? If so it will be in order to dub the enquiry as an attempt to ruin him and drive him out of public life.

The conservative press comments upon the large increase in the expenditure of the dominion government. It could comment, and does not, upon the large increase in the revenue. Canada is growing fast and its government is doing well if it does not own a silver mine.

Had Lengthy Conference. Brussels, April 21.—King Leopold had had a lengthy conference with M. De Troos, the minister of the interior, who has been attempting to form a new cabinet, and who is expected to accomplish his task.

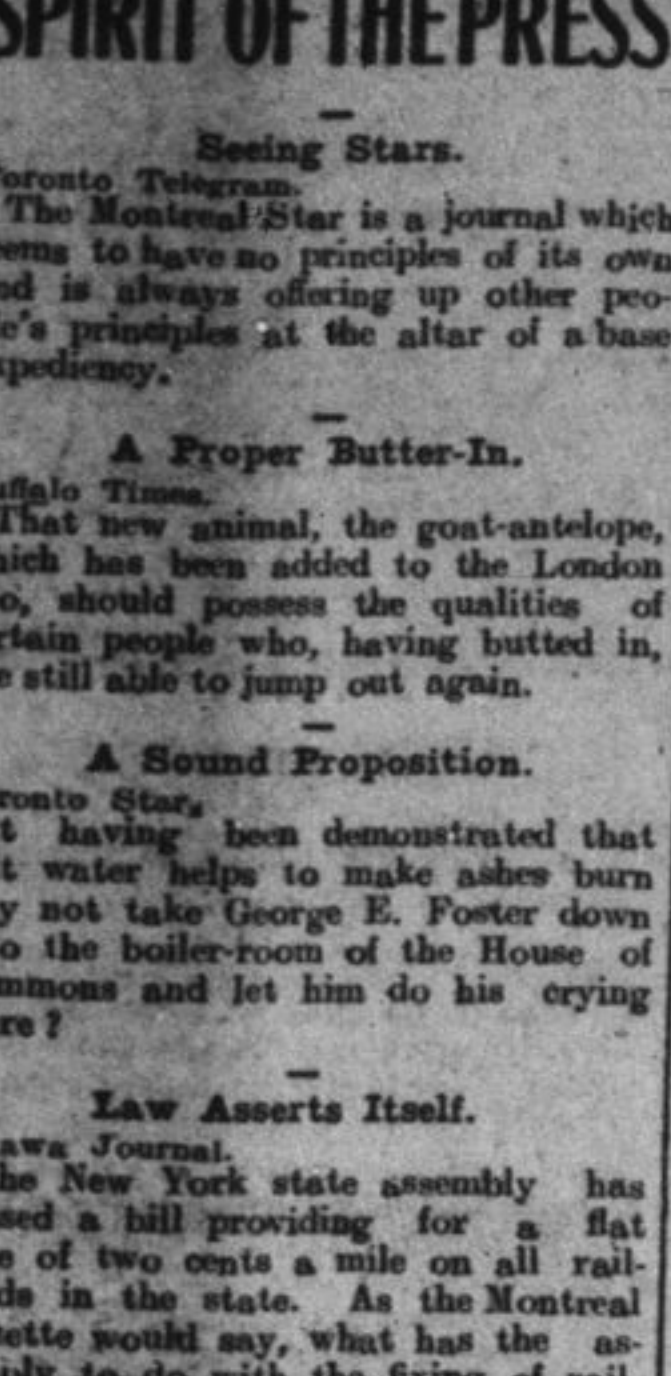

At Lavant Station. Lavant Station, April 23.—Mrs. John Paul, of Lavant settlement, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. William Brownson. The teacher reports a very large attendance at school, twenty-eight being on the roll.

Carried Over Falls. Raleigh, N.C., April 24.—Four men were drowned in Cape Fear River, yesterday, at Buckhorn Falls, thirty miles from Raleigh.
