PROJECT BACKED BY BRIT-ISH CAPITAL

Concession is Only Matter of Few Weeks-Thought in Berlin That Move is Meant to Checkmate Germany's Asiatic Ambitions. New York, April 27 .- The Herald

orrespondent at Berlin has sent the following cable despatch: I am assured to night by a prominent British resident of Constantinople in intimate. touch with palace circles, that the project for the construction of a cond Suez canal, supported solely by British capital in British hands, has passed beyond the stage of mere speculation and has now entered upon a definite form. A concession is only a matter of a few weeks. Concern and anxiety are manifested here in view of the fact that the Bagdad railway, which was intended by the German authorities to sap British influence in Asia Minor and as menace to India, is now relegated, far as its importance is concerned, to a secondary place. This move on the part of Great Britain is here considered a checkmate to German Asia-
