THE WHIG, 74th YEAR.

DAILY BRITISH WHIG, PUBLISHED every evening at 8:00-3:00-10:00. Advertisements, per line, six lines and over—first insertion, 15c.; each subsequent consecutive insertion, 10c. Notices by a solid scale, twelve lines to the inch.

THE WEEKLY BRITISH WHIG, 16 pages, 112 columns, is published in two editions, one on Monday and one on Thursday morning at $1 a year, if paid in advance; otherwise, $1.50 per year.

When is the education to begin which the citizens must have if they are to be expected to vote for the $75,000 local improvement by-law?

A DROP IN OUR FAITH.

There were reasons for the provision in the British North America Act that gave the right of any litigant to appeal to the privy council, which at the time of consideration was regarded as the highest embodiment of judicial wisdom.

The cartoonist may have gone too far, but he certainly had cause for depicting justice as blind and as dropping a judgment into the wrong hat, with the best intentions. The idea that there is any gamble in the dispensation of law is discouraging to say the least of it, and the entertainment of it must lead to ungenial reflections.

The supreme court ought to be good enough for Canada, and its litigants will eventually realize that with less expense and more satisfaction, they should confine their appeals to it.

THE SCHOOL OF PEDAGOGY. The board of education has a large and serious proposition before it and one connected with and concerning the school of pedagogy in Kingston.

At once it was deemed expedient that the graduates of the older and better college should not be handicapped by having to go elsewhere for the technical instruction that qualified them for the best high school work.

Every grocer keeps WINDSOR SALT. No other is so pure, so delicate. Best for the table.

education department to the college authorities intimates that it should be worth a good deal in Kingston.

There are many things to be arranged. No money grant can compensate for the disturbance of the schools and the work of the regular teachers, and no agreement can be satisfactory which involves any interference or dictation in the management of the schools.

The "observers" may not see eye to eye with the trustees in the merits of any case, yet there can be but one governing body, and it the board of education, which must be supreme in its control of the schools.

EDITORIAL NOTES. The mining craze continues. The capitalization goes on. Amazing profits must now be made to yield any results to the average investor.

When is the education to begin which the citizens must have if they are to be expected to vote for the $75,000 local improvement by-law?

The political bosses—democratic and republican—are against the governor of New York state. The reason is obvious. Governor Hughes has no use for the bosses.

The conservative leader by the conservative press, is censured for his lack of progress in moulding public sentiment. It's been so busy, washing the party's dirty linen that he has not had time to serve the people.

Mr. Stead is distressed about the public journals in America. Some of them are very bad. Oh! Was it not announced a few days ago that he did not read the papers? How, then, can he pass judgment upon them?

The leader of the opposition in the Dominion house is going on a tour of the provinces. His attendants have been announced. They do not include the men who distinguished themselves on a former occasion, and in the tour across the continent.

What a time there would have been in Montreal if the 50,000 tons of poisoned salmon had gone into consumption by the people. Through the vigilance of an inspector the unsuspecting public can have no idea of what they have missed.

Mr. Borden must be delighted with the outlook of his party in the Dominion. The independent conservative papers—the Halifax Herald, the Toronto News, and the Montreal Star—have scathed the opposition, and pronounced its work a failure.

Government printing bureau worked last Sunday on Hansard as the house sat on Saturday and the speeches were wanted by Monday. Was this violation of the Sunday act necessary? Is there not a touch of heathenism in the Ottawa?

The city council of Montreal, says the city attorney, cannot by a commission order theatrical entertainments. Archbishop Bruchesi will censor them, so far as his church is concerned, and if his example is followed by other leaders of the people a commission will not be necessary.

While Mr. Bourassa finds fault with the quality of the emigrants Canada is receiving from Britain—being in his opinion the dregs of the old land—industrial Canada pronounces it the very best material that this country could have. The arrivals this year will number probably 300,000.

The Mail innocently suggests that the liberals of Toronto should allow the next federal election to go by default. In other words they should allow the Toronto constituencies to elect a solid conservative contingent by acclamation. This would be the people's idea of disapproving of graft. Or approving of it, which?

SPRIT OF THE PRESS

Everything O. K. Ottawa Free Press. Major G. W. Fowler stayed with parliament to the end and inspected the guard of honor with as much interest as if they had been a gang of lumber drivers.

Gets What He Wants. The man who lived on scraps has died rich. But hundreds of men who had scraps every day and night, too, have died poor. The scrap heap theory is not to be depended on as a wealth producer.

Some Of The Heelers. Brockville Recorder. No wonder Eddie Dunlop, M.P.P., of the Pembroke Lumber company ($98,000), was enthusiastic over the question of provincial rights at the Petawawa camp. Mr. White, M.P., of the same company, ditto.

lead to the Dominion Lord's Day Act, in Winnipeg it has been decided to enforce it to the letter, Sunday, so far as the new act is effective, will be observed, it would appear, much as local opinion desires. It was so observed also before the law was passed.

Purely Conservative Views. We told you so, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who proposed that the colonial conference be a star chamber affair, is now complaining that he has been misreported. He says he didn't refer to Bourassa as a firebrand. Guesses are in order as to what he did say. Probably that the member for Labelle was not a firebrand but a patent fire-extinguisher, and that the rest of the third party was just a squirt.

REAR ADMIRAL J. F. FARRINGTON, who, though retired, will take an active part in the international naval display at the Jamestown Exposition during May and June. He is expected, however, to leave early in June to act in an advisory capacity to the American delegation to the Hague Peace Conference.

HE COOL, SHE DEFIANT.

Prince's Performance Prohibited in Rome. Rome, May 2.—The Prince and Princess de Broglie, whose romantic love story is familiar to Americans, have been performing for the last few nights in the Salone Margherita Cafe-Chantant in Rome. The Queen of Rome has now, however, prohibited their further appearance in public, consequently a hostile demonstration two evenings ago, when their turn was vigorously hissed, and the princess' voice was completely drowned by the blowing of whistles and clanging of keys.

Ever since their debut in Rome the prince and princess have been the subject of adverse artistic criticism on the part of the press, but no angry feeling was manifested toward their persons till the prince, in an interview in a Roman journal, denounced the local aristocracy as specimens of ill-breeding, contact with whom had lessened still further his personal regard at having revolted from their ranks.

The prince, though very pallid, bravely the rowdy opposition with dignified calm, an attitude in which he was unfortunately not imitated by the princess, whose first gesture of fey defiance culminated in her presenting herself anew to her persecutors with her fingers pointed to her nose. Whether better fortune awaits the de Broglies at Naples and other big Italian cities till the prince, in an interview in a Roman journal, denounced the local aristocracy as specimens of ill-breeding, contact with whom had lessened still further his personal regard at having revolted from their ranks.

THE TEMPORAL HEAD

Of the Flying Rollers in Windsor and Detroit. Windsor, Ont., May 1.—John R. Sinton has returned here to become the temporal head of the Flying Rollers community of Windsor and Detroit. He bears credentials from Prince Michael and assumes the position he held before the advent of Mrs. Mason. Sinton says Mrs. Mason took away about ten thousand dollars in cash when she disappeared a few weeks ago.

Pugilist Found Guilty. London, May 1.—A coroner's jury found "Pedlar" Palmer, the English pugilist, guilty of manslaughter, in causing the death of Robert Choat, a gas house stoker, of Deptford, on April 2nd.

St. Louis, May 1.—Mrs. Theresa Dwyer, 4311 Forest Park boulevard, was granted a divorce from Dr. Robert J. Dwyer of Toronto, Canada, by Judge Reynolds. Mrs. Dwyer testified that her husband said the women in the United States were lacking in respectability, and that he always spoke disparagingly of the people of this country. She also said that she provided for her own maintenance and gave the defendant funds for his personal expenses. The couple were married October 12th, 1888, and separated June 1st, 1901.

WHY SPRING BRINGS WEAKNESS.

Winter Weakens the System and allows Disease-Germs to Enter. Great epidemics, such as fevers, infectious skin diseases and pestilence break out in the spring. Winter shuts out fresh air from many homes, and only a few get even a little sunshine. The blood naturally grows thin, colorless and diseased, we tire easily, sleep poorly and have headaches. In this condition we are very prey to sickness and fill the hospitals and graveyards.

Attractive Bulletin. A souvenir number of the St. Lawrence Bulletin, Thousand Island Park, N.Y., is filled with interesting resort matter and should be a valuable guide to the tourist. This spring issue is being distributed far and wide as a "boom" for the isles, there being attractions to draw a person from Texas or Georgia to the beautiful resort. Historical sketches, many illustrations, detail of hotels, and hints how to reach the islands, from most anywhere, are given. Full pages are devoted to Montreal, Quebec, Lake Champlain and Albany, and hints how to reach the islands, from most anywhere, are given. LAKES WERE ONCE SEAS.

Great Salt Lake is Slowly Drying Up.

The Great Salt Lake, it has just been discovered, is gradually drying up, and the inhabitants of Salt Lake City seem quite surprised. They cannot see the bed. All salt lakes owe their salinity to the fact of their having no outlet, and a lake without an outlet is a dying lake. Nor is death usually long delayed, speaking geologically. Lakes Koko Nor and Lob Nor were undoubtedly extensive inland seas not so very many decades ago, yet Seven Hedin found them the other day reduced to mere arid puddles, set in the midst of well-nigh limitless salt deserts that once were their beds.

The terrible Takla-makan desert, too, in which Hedin nearly died of thirst, was once the bed of just such a lake. So also were the salt deserts of Persia. Northern Tibet is studded with salt lakes in process of desiccation. The Aral and the Caspian "seas" were at one time far more extensive than is now the case, proving that they, too, are undergoing the inevitable process of desiccation, to which all such bodies of water are sooner or later invariably subjected. So that, as a matter of fact, the early Australian pioneers were not so very far out in their reckoning, when they imagined that the greater part of the unknown interior of the island continent was occupied by an inland sea, into which discharged the many rivers, that like the Murray and the Darling, flowed away from the outer ocean instead of towards it. They were a few centuries too late, that was all. The Australian Mediterranean had been there, but it had dried up. The last remnants of it exist today in deep depressions, like Lake Eyre and Lake Torrens, themselves in process of desiccation. The rest of its area is occupied by the series of salt deserts to which modern explorers have given the name of the Dead Heart of Australia.

DIED THIS MORNING.

Miss Eva Sawyer Had a Long Illness. On Thursday morning, after a long and painful illness, Miss Eva Sawyer, second daughter of the late William Sawyer, a well-known artist, died at her brother's residence on Brock street.

Her place will be a difficult one to fill, especially in her church, where she was a devoted, cheerful and skilful worker. Her Sunday school class at St. George's cathedral was one of the best managed in the school, and her pupils were very fond of her, and her artistic taste and executive power always aided whatever she undertook most materially. Miss Sawyer leaves besides her mother, one sister, Miss Agnes, and three brothers, William A., John and Francis, all of this city.

Why Spring Brings Weakness. Winter Weakens the System and allows Disease-Germs to Enter. Great epidemics, such as fevers, infectious skin diseases and pestilence break out in the spring.

The blood must be purified, must be given power to expel the seeds of spring fever. Ferrozone is the only remedy: It calls back vim and energy, fills the body with vitality, makes every fibre sing with new found life and health.

That grating tiredness leaves you when Ferrozone drives it away. Sleepless nights are turned into periods of rest and you pick up fast. Day by day your appetite improves.—this means more food is transformed in nutriment that will build and energize weak organs. The inclination to worry passes away because Ferrozone strengthens nerve-tone and bodily strength, thus prevents depression.

Think it over—Ferrozone is a wonder tonic, in fact it is more because it establishes health that lasts. Thousands use it in the spring and thereby cleanse and restore the entire system to a perfect condition. You'll feel the uplifting power of Ferrozone in a week—it's bound to help you if you only give it the chance. Sold by all dealers, 50c. a box or six boxes.
