Hopeless, Confused and Depressed in Mind, Forgetful, Irritable, Drowsy, Languid and Useless.

Mrs. M. A. McNeil, Brook Village, N.S., writes: "I suffered from dyspepsia, loss of appetite and bad blood. I tried everything I could get but to no purpose. I finally started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. From the first day I felt the good effects of the medicine. I can eat anything now without any ill after effects and am strong and well again."

TALK ABOUT THE RAIDS.

The political historian is at work, and he is digging up some facts in connection with the rights of the province and their defenders. When the territory of Ontario was at stake, when the conservative government essayed a huge confiscation, and Sir John Macdonald led in the raid, deploring that not an acre of the disputed land or a pound of its minerals belonged to Ontario; when there was a clash on the license question, and the dominion government undertook to administer the trade, appointing its inspectors, when Sir Oliver Mowat was denounced as "a little tyrant," who should be ousted where was Mr. Whitney? He was not one of the party who was fighting the trespassers and demanding "hands off," but one of those who were standing by and consenting to the spoliation of the province. The wonder is that he can desire, under the circumstances, a revival of these unpleasant memories—and they are unpleasant. The real friends of the province are the liberals. They protected it when it needed protection, and they are sincerely desirous of moving out to it justice and fair play now.

ENTERPRISE AND FAILURE.

Calgary has decided that it will embark in the ownership of a street railway as soon as the money market becomes easier and at least $250,000, the estimated initial cost, can be comfortably financed. Money is now "high," as looked at from a municipal standpoint. The debentures are not selling well to the issuers of them. The interest on western bonds is 4 1/2 and 5 per cent., and it is likely to remain there for many a day. The reason is not far to seek. Business generally is booming. The varied commercial enterprises of the day demand large capital, and the banks can lend out advantageously all the funds they can accumulate. Calgary may, therefore, have to wait for some time before it can develop its new municipal schemes.

A contemporary, the Montreal Herald, recalls that Mr. Walker, the president of the Bank of Commerce, does not think much of some municipal enterprises and it wonders what he will think of Calgary's decision on this question. "Brother Walker," as he is titled, can have no objection to the people doing anything which they understand and can safely take care of. A street railway requires expert management. It requires a large and popular constituency. No city of less than 40,000 can, it is calculated, make enough out of the street railway service to pay for expenses and maintenance, and provide a proper return. Careful management may, under private ownership, afford in addition a reasonable dividend.

In the same economy practiced under public as under private arrangement? No one can say that who really knows of the changing circumstances and changing plans of the average municipal council. One inroad after another is made on the funds or earnings of a plant until a crisis is reached. Calgary may be in a position to experiment in public ownership, so far as street cars go, and it may not. Failure, however, is not something which can be cheerfully contemplated, and the city can afford to grow in size as well as experience before it ventures too much in untried schemes.

WHY INTEREST IS LOW.

The withdrawal of many millions of dollars from deposit in the savings and other banks is not remarkable, in view of the low interest which is offered—3 per cent. Money is worth more than that. The city is getting its advances at 5 per cent. on a yearly contract, and under terms which are more favourable than can be realized by the average borrower. The rate on loans runs from 6 to 8 per cent. according to the security offered and the exigencies of the occasion. The banks, therefore, at the present time are making large profits on their deposits, and they will continue to do so while the combine into which they have entered continues.

Similarly the government is doing well to hold so much as it has, at the current rate of interest; and it is a sign of the times that the rate on government loans, especially of the one falling due this year and to be renewed and spread over four years, has been advanced to 4 per cent. This latter date is the value of the money to the big customer, which in this case is the country, and it should be the rate to the small customer, the Canadian savings bank depositor.

The Canadian Courier thus comments upon the situation:

"The Canadian banking association is the greatest monopoly in Canada."

and in some ways it has been the mostly beneficial. Nevertheless, when it refuses to pay more than the historic three per cent. on deposits when money has risen in value two to five per cent., it is taking an undue advantage. The bank deposits should be rising rapidly, yet in March they declined several millions. People are drawing out their savings and investing them elsewhere.

"The banks were so short of cash recently that the Ontario government was forced to come to their assistance and take part of its huge deposit in the Bank of Montreal and divide it up among the other institutions in hundred thousand lots. Probably the Dominion government would have done the same thing if its expenditures were not jumping ahead so fast. Yet the banks in the face of this situation refuse to advance the rate of interest which their monopoly has fixed."

A government commission has undertaken to enquire into the telephone business, in order to determine whether or not the people are being imposed upon. The same commission, with Shepley as chief inquisitor, might with advantage, look into the banking business.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Secretary Tait predicts that the Panama canal will be finished in eight years. Eighteen or twenty would be nearer the mark.

Mr. Slead regards Sir Wilfrid Laurier "as the greatest statesman in the British Empire." A remarkable tribute from a most remarkable man.

The Whig, dear Citizen, does not approve of Mr. Fowler's brainstorms. It thinks the speaker should call him down every time he goes off at half-cock.

Why not run George Tate Blackstock for one of the Toronto, since his presence is demanded in the house? Why not drop Foster? He is done anyway—practically dead.

A poor Italian was convicted of murder in the second degree, in New York, in four days. The jury reached a verdict in sixty-eight minutes. Great contrast with Thaw's trial.

Collier's Weekly will be published in Canada, and become the competitor of the weekly whose editor was so eager for the late change in postage. He's getting what he did not look for.

The liberals in the legislature voted that the registration—and the franchise conveyed under it—should be given to the inhabitants of all towns in Ontario. This should be remembered.

The Montreal Gazette is worried because so many of the federal ministers are out of the country. Is the public business suffering? So much the worse for the government, if the opposition be alert and equal to its opportunities.

The Halifax Herald (conservative) is satisfied that unless Mr. Borden gets a gait on, and "orders his followers to obey him," "which pre-emptive decay and ultimate extinction." Straight talk.

Conservatives as well as liberals were interested in the nomination of Hon. Mr. Pugsley, for St. John, left vacant by the death of Dr. Stockton. There may be another liberal candidate, Mr. Sears, but if local feeling favours Mr. Pugsley he will be elected.

The registration of voters is now confined to cities and towns "having a population of nine thousand and over." The electors who are disfranchised in other places will have a substantial grievance. If the registration is a good thing for one place it should be a good thing for all places where voting to a considerable extent has to be done.

Team of Horses Drowned.

Mably, May 2.—When Thomas Munro was driving through the village, at noon, to-day, his spirited team of roadsters became frightened at some new shingles at George Cartton's. They jumped and the pole dropped down. Mr. Munro was thrown out and received injuries about the shoulders. The team ran straight into the river, at John Buchanan's blacksmith shop, and were drowned. Upwards of twenty men were on the scene at once and the horses and buggy were drawn out on the bank. Mr. Munro had been offered $350, the evening before, for the team. A number from here attended the Norris-Richie wedding at Althorpe. Rev. Mr. Woodcock attended the marriage of Rev. Mr. Cox, in Sydenham. Rev. Mr. Clark is attending a meeting in Carlton Place.

Collapse of Grain.

Evidence Of Our Success.

Ottawa Journal-Standard.

Last Saturday's Ontario Gazette chronicled the incorporation of forty-three companies. Fifteen of these are to be mining concerns with a total capitalization of $13,600,000. Thirty-one are industrial corporations and the total capitalization is $1,615,000. The showing was somewhat larger than that of the average week, but not a Saturday passes without the provincial official Gazette's announcement of a large number of incorporations of industrial enterprises including mining ventures.

THE REASON

Why George W. Mahood Continues to Recommend Vinol.

First: Because it is not a patent medicine and it contains besides tonic all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work; therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Second: Because Vinol acts first upon the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, and, in a natural manner, restores health and strength.

Third: Because Vinol contains no injurious drugs to react upon the system; every ingredient being named on the label, a patient knows exactly what he is taking.

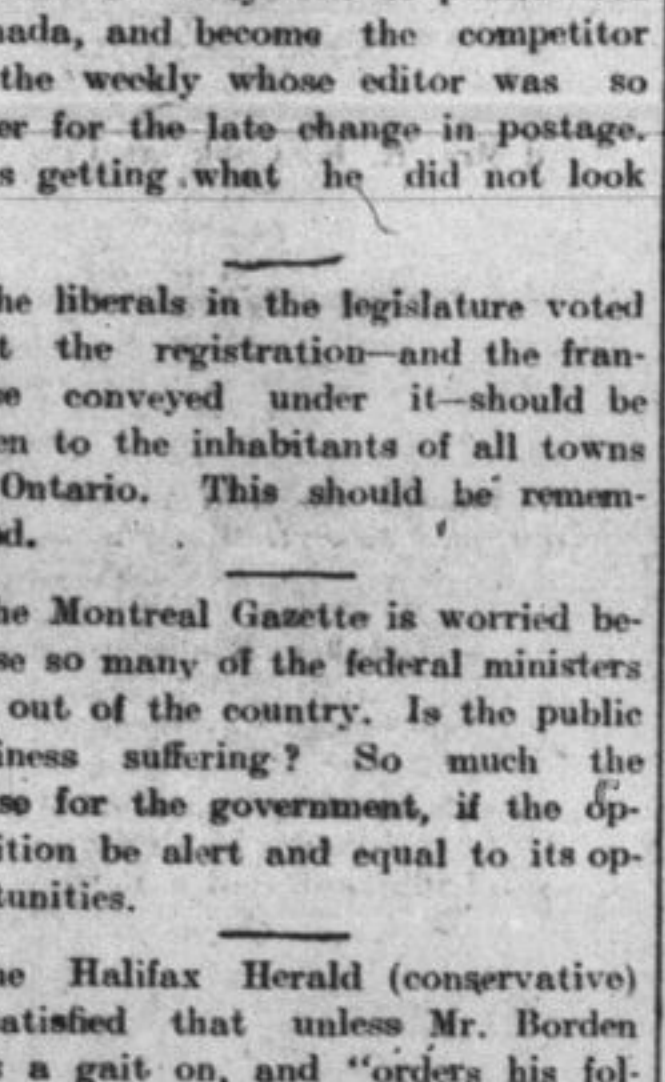

Fourth: Because we never sold anything in our store that gave such universal satisfaction for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and to build up the system after a severe sickness, and for relieving hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

Try Vinol on your guarantee. Geo. W. Mahood, Druggist.
