

Told in the Twilight

The weather for the bride's tea, at Mrs. W. J. Crothers, Earl street, yesterday, was as bright as could be wished, and so pretty light frocks were worn by those who filled the room.

Mrs. William Crothers, and with her Mrs. Crothers received, and with her Mrs. Crothers, Jr., and Miss Minnie Crothers, and by a fortunate combination of circumstances everybody seemed to be able to have a chat with all the hostesses.

On Wednesday, Mrs. James Cappon asked a few ladies to a game of bridge at the Country Club. The players were the hostesses, Mrs. R. E. Kent, Mrs. Iva Martin, Mrs. Frederick Brownfield, Mrs. Walter Macne, Mrs. Francis Macne, Mrs. Robertson, of Vancouver, the guest of honor, and Miss Lily Norton-Taylor.

The bride, Mrs. William Crothers, will hold her post-nuptial reception, on Monday and Tuesday, May 6th and 7th, at Mrs. W. J. Crothers' residence, Earl street.

A number of people dropped in to see Mrs. H. A. Betts, Earl street, on Wednesday, when she received for the first time in some weeks. Among the visitors was Mrs. Arthur Matheson, and there was a lingering over a chat with her.

A croquet lawn for the ladies will be laid out at the Country Club, on Wednesday, when she received for the first time in some weeks. Among the visitors was Mrs. Arthur Matheson, and there was a lingering over a chat with her.

Mrs. William Crothers, and with her Mrs. Crothers received, and with her Mrs. Crothers, Jr., and Miss Minnie Crothers, and by a fortunate combination of circumstances everybody seemed to be able to have a chat with all the hostesses.

The Paragraph Pulpit

Unitarian. REV. C. W. GASSON, OTTAWA. The Exhortation of The Dawn. Look to this day!

For it is life, the very life of life; In its brief course lie all the virtues and realizations of your experience.

The bliss of growth, The glory of action, The splendor of beauty. For yesterday is but a dream, And to-morrow is only a vision; But to-day, well-lived, Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, And every to-morrow a vision of hope.

Such is the exhortation of the dawn! —From the Sunskrit. Address Mr. Gasson for free literature.

Market Was Deserted. The rainy weather put a damper on the market on Saturday morning, the square being almost deserted. A few vegetable growers braved the storm, but one could have counted the farmers who put in an appearance. A very slim crowd came in on the K. & P. railway.

The little Bostrakos seaweed, which is of a dull purple color, rises nearer to high-water mark than any other seaweed. Progress Brand ready-to-wear clothing, the best in Canada. Livingston's, Try Bibby's special $2 hats.
