Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

The clerk of the weather picked two very fair days, from his assortment of very unpleasant ones, for Mrs. William J. Crothers' post-nuptial reception, and on Monday and Tuesday guarding our coasts just a little too a great many visitors went to see her at the residence of Mrs. W. Crothers, Sr., Earl street. The bride and her mother-in-law received, and Miss Minnie Crothers was also hand to welcome the people. Roses and a grate fire brightened the drawing-room, and in the library, where the tea table was, were tulips. Miss Hannah Bredin made ten, Miss Kidd assisting her.

"Not receiving" is adorning the hall doors, and dusting caps, more or less fetching, are crowning the locks of our maids and matrons, and society seems to be taking a holiday, and getting its beauty sleep, as it were, for the June gaicties, which, on the Shooting. South Franklin, Mass., May 8 .- The police have been unable to locate John Danelio, who is alleged to have shot his bride of a night, Frances Danelio, at their newly-prepared home, on Sunday night. The young bride is still alive, but little hope is entertained for her recovery. The couple were married on Sunday and received friends in their new home until nearly midnight, when they re-tired. Mr. Danelio, the groom's father, who occupied the room upstairs, being the only other occupant of the house with them. Early Monday he was aroused by hearing revolver shots downstairs, and, hurrying down to the couple's room, found the young woman lying on the bed with three bullet wounds and three stab wounds in her body. The husband had disappeared. It was some time before the police were notified, and although the police of surrounding cities and towns were notified to be on the watch for the missing husband, they were unable to locate him. No cause is known

GROCERY STORE ENTERED,

But the Burglars Secured No The burglars at work in Kingston, are evidently meeting with hard luck. The grocery store of John Gilbert, at the corner of Gore and Wellington street, was entered by some person or persons during the night, but no booty was secured. The thieves evidently became frightened after they got into the building, and then made their escape. Entrance was secured by prying open one of the windows at the rear of the store, and the way out was made easy by unbolting the door, which was found open when Mr. Gilbert came down to the store in the morning. Several boxes were found to have been knocked down from their usual place, but upon making an inspection, Mr. Gilbert found nothing The burglars who secured an entrance to the office of the Kingston Milling company, secured nothing for their trouble, and these two cases; would go to show that the burglars

Sheriff Caught In Raid.

New York, May 8 .- Something a sensation was caused in Jersey City by the arrest of Sheriff Kaiser, of Hudson county, in a raid on an al leged poker game in the back room of a saloon. The policeman who made the arrest declares that the sheriff had possession of poker chips and some of the money which he says was on the table. Sheriff Kaiser says his arrest was a mistake, that he was merely playing pinochle when the policeman burst into the room. The sheriff was taken to a police station in a patrol waggon with several other prisoners, but was permit-
